Mission Statement

We are an urban parish of Pittsburgh's East End dedicated to serving one another both within and outside our parish, but especially to the poor and marginalized of our community. Empowered by Christ to spread the good news of salvation, we are committed to forming intentional disciples of every age and accompanying them in their faith journey, with the goal of fostering an encounter with and deepening our relationship to Jesus Christ. We do this joyfully rooted in the Eucharist and our Catholic faith, employing our diversity and talents to support one another and build the Kingdom of God in love, mercy, and justice.

Solemnity of Christ the King

On the last Sunday of each liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, or Christ the King.

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 with his encyclical Quas primas ("In the first") to respond to growing secularism and atheism. He recognized that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations. This solemnity reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever.

This solemnity encourages us to celebrate and live out our faith in public. "Thus by sermons preached at meetings and in churches, by public adoration of the Blessed Sacrament exposed and by solemn processions, men unite in paying homage to Christ, whom God has given them for their King" (Quas primas, 26).

Proclaiming Christ's Kingship

Jesus Christ is a matchless King. Solomon dressed in splendid clothes and built a magnificent temple; David led his army to victory in numerous battles; Pharaoh maintained an iron rule over the Egyptians and their Israelite slaves. Jesus, meanwhile, lay in a manger, shared meals with the poor and public sinners, and hung stripped and bloodied upon the Cross. Christ never looked very much like a King.

Even now, the Kingship of Christ is unique, inasmuch as the reign of God extends throughout both heaven and earth. Christ's Kingdom is among us (Lk 17:21), as a present reality, and yet beyond us (Jn 18:36), as an eschatological reality. As the preface for the feast proclaims, the reign of God is "a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace."

All Christians, by virtue of their Baptism, are subjects of Christ's benevolent Kingship. In addition to the many graces that flow from being Christ's subject, this identity also entails responsibilities. Citizenship in the Kingdom of God (Phil 3:20) bestows, for example, a mission. This mission is not entrusted solely to bishops, priests, and deacons, nor is it the preserve of saints, scholars, and mystics who seem beyond the reach of ordinary people. All followers of Christ, rather, have a part to play in the realization of the Kingdom.

One of the most significant, difficult, and all-encompassing missions related to the Kingdom of God, in fact, is entrusted to the laity. According to the Second Vatican Council, the vocation of the lay faithful is to sanctify the world. In its dogmatic constitution on the Church, the Council teaches that the laity have the specific vocation of making the Church present and active in the world (Lumen gentium, no. 33). This teaching is further developed in the Council's decree on the apostolate of the laity, which states that laypeople fulfill their mission by evangelizing and sanctifying people; by their lives, the laity are called to permeate and perfect the temporal order with the spirit of the Gospel (Apostolicam actuositatem, no. 2). The laity, in this vision, are bearers of a mission to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world (Mt 5:13-14).

Sanctifying the world, therefore, is not chiefly the task of chanceries or committees or curial officials. The sanctification of the world properly belongs to the apostolate of the laity. This extraordinary call to discipleship remains unchanged in every place, in every period, and in every person. It is the task of the laity to make the Father known, to allow the love of Christ to shine forth, and to become suitable temples for the Holy Spirit. The proclamation of the Kingdom, begun by Jesus in the countryside of Galilee, is extended through time and space by the Church, with particular reliance upon the gifts and zeal of her lay members.

The Roman soldier who nailed a placard to the Cross identifying Jesus as the "King of the Jews" did so as an act of sarcasm. Every Christian has the opportunity to make the same proclamation, not in mockery, but as an act of worship. By the manner of our lives and our commitment to the Gospel, we announce to all the world the joy and freedom that come from submitting ourselves to the sweet dominion of Christ the King.

- Rev. David M. Friel, a priest of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Moving Forward with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Many parishioners were deeply touched by the service Father Freedy conducted as part of the Parish Mission. Since that time, a good number of people have requested that we restore Adoration hours in both of our churches. We would love to be a stronger Eucharistic Community.

Certainly, among all the devotions after that of receiving the Sacraments, adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the most pleasing to God and the most useful to ourselves.

Wouldn't it be a blessing if every parishioner that is healthy and able would commit to dwell each day for at least a half or quarter of an hour in a church in the presence of Jesus Christ, under the sacramental species. O taste and see that the Lord is sweet! (Psalm 33:9).

You have only to try this devotion and by experience you will discover the great benefit that you will derive from it. Be assured that the time you will spend before the most divine Sacrament will be the most profitable to you in life and the source of your greatest consolation in death and in eternity. (St. Alphonsus Liguori)

It is true that in every place God graciously hears the petitions of those who pray to Him. He promised that to us, having said so: Ask and you shall receive (John 16:24). Yet, as Catholics, we know that Jesus dispenses His graces in greater abundance to those who visit Him in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Please keep reading for the next few weeks this series of articles about our parish re-instating All Day Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Plan to attend Adoration on the Solemnity of Christ the King, November 21, 2021. Hopefully after the New Year we will do our best to conduct Adoration on a regular basis.

Happy Thanksgiving

to all

from the clergy, pastoral staff, pastoral council members, and finance council members!

Please note that Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 9:00am at St. Raphael.

There will NOT be a 12:05pm Mass at Sacred Heart.

Preparing for Advent

The season of Advent is approaching, and we would like to help you prepare for Christmas. This weekend we will have Advent packets available for both kids and adults at Masses. We hope these materials will aid you in deepening your prayer life and preparing to welcome Jesus this season.

There are limited quantities. If you are unable to come to church and would like an Advent packet mailed to your home, please contact Barb Melick at barb@saintjudepgh.org.

Prayer Service In Memory of Four American Churchwomen

Pax Christi will hold a prayer service on December 2 at 7:00 PM over Zoom to commemorate the martyrdom of Four American Churchwomen. Look for a Zoom link in the next bulletin and on our website.

The four women— Ursuline Sr. Dorothy Kazel, Maryknoll Srs. Maura Clarke and Ita Ford, and lay missionaryer Jean Donovan—were murdered in 1980 in El Salvador where they were helping the poor and displaced from the El Salvadorean civil war.

Sharing the Light Speaker Series

Maestro Manfred Honeck, conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra
December 2nd at 7 PM

The Saint Jude Speakers Series, “Sharing the Light” is honored to welcome Maestro Manfred Honeck, Music Director and Conductor of the internationally renowned Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra as its guest Thursday evening, December 2nd, live at Saint Raphael Church, 7:00PM

In his 14th season with the symphony, Maestro Honeck and the orchestra serve as cultural ambassadors of our city as one of the most frequently traveled touring American orchestras.

A devout Catholic, Maestro Honeck prays and invites others to join him in prayer before every concert and strives to put faith at the center of his life and profession. Catholicism permeates his life and has an influence on both how he programs and how he conceives of music.

Joining him in a conversation about his spirituality and the music of his life will be two colleagues and friends, Ann Martindale Williams, principal cellist of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, and Christopher Wu, holder of the Jeffrey Leninger First Violin Chair.

Please plan to join us for what will surely be an inspirational conversation among these brilliant musicians.

The presentation will be held live from Saint Raphael Church on Thursday, December 2nd at 7:00 PM.

Thanksgiving Day Mass and Pastries

On Thanksgiving, we will celebrate only one Mass in our Parish. Join us at St. Raphael at 9 am. It is always a glorious morning to reflect with gratitude on God's goodness. After Mass, youth from our parish will host a buffet of pastries in the school cafeteria. We hope everyone will come together for Mass and stay to socialize. If you would like to bring some breakfast treats to share, you can drop them off before Mass in the former school cafeteria.

Sing for Christmas

A great way to celebrate Advent and Christmas is by singing. Please consider joining our parish choir for just the Christmas Season. Rehearsals will begin this week for Christmas. Our choir will be singing the traditional carols as well as two contemporary anthems - "Strangers in the Streets" by David Chase and "Ass, Stable, Angel, Oxen, Bell" by Peter Foggitt. If you cannot commit to singing for the entire liturgical year, you might want to join us for Advent and Christmas.

Outdoor Advent Wreath

The worship committee has recommended that we have an outdoor advent wreath on the corners of both churches. We are in need of carpenters and handymen to construct these for us. If you are able to help, please contact J.R. Daniels.

St. Nicholas Toy Drive

This Advent St. Jude Parish is supporting the St. Nicholas Toy Drive, organized by Play It Forward and Missionary Childhood Association. The St. Nicholas Drive provides new and gently used toys for children in the Pittsburgh Area from baby to 12 years old. There will be an Advent tree in the vestibule of Sacred Heart Church; please take a tag, or visit our website at <https://saintjudepgh.org/toy-drive> to learn about online options for donating. Unwrapped toys can be placed in the marked location in the vestibule of Sacred Heart, and all donations must be delivered by Sunday, December 12th.

Questions? Email youngadults@saintjudepgh.org. Thank you for helping to spread the Spirit of St. Nicholas to local

Giving Tree

The Ladies of Charity will be setting up the Giving Tree in the sanctuary of St. Raphael Church the weekend of November 20 & 21. We invite you to participate in this wonderful gift-giving tradition at our parish and bring some Christmas cheer to someone in need. This year we will be giving gifts to residents of Vincentian de Marillac, shut-ins of our parish, children in need, and teens in Vagabond Ministries. Gifts should be returned by December 8.

We hope that you will support the Giving Tree or St. Nicholas Toy Drive at our Churches, regardless of where you attend Mass.

2nd & 4th Sunday Brunch | Sacred Heart

Church - Following 9:00 a.m. Mass on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month, meet up with other young adults to walk to S. Highland Ave. for brunch at The Urban Tap at 10 a.m.

RCIA at Saint Jude Parish

If God has been calling you or someone you know to join the Catholic Church or receive the sacraments of Christian initiation, then please email Father John Sweeney at frjohn@saintjudepgh.org, Father Joe Mele at frjoe@saintjudepgh.org, or Deacon Hahn at deaconbill@saintjudepgh.org for more information on the RCIA program at our parish! We customize the program to individuals if group meetings don't fit your schedule.

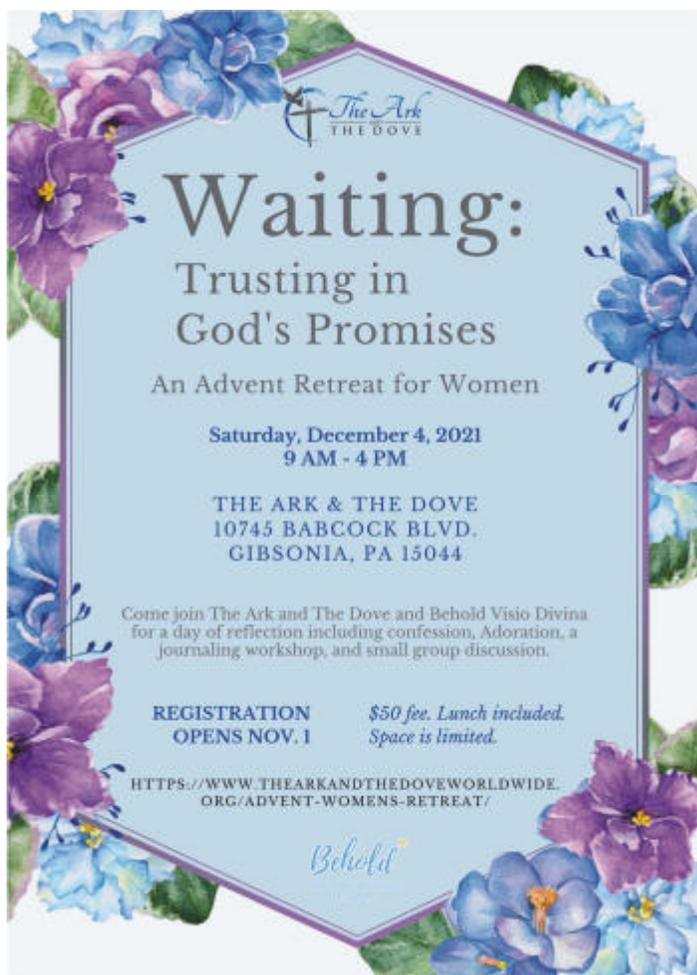

Saint Jude Adult Education Classes

Saint Jude Parish will begin hosting short classes for adults who want to grow in their knowledge of the Catholic faith. Each class will take place once a week for four weeks in a row:

Bible Study: The Gospels as Historical Accounts of Jesus' Birth.

Just in time for Christmas, this class will focus on what the Gospels tell us about Jesus' birth, what they don't tell us, and how the Early Church Fathers and others have responded to objections to or possible inconsistencies within the Gospel accounts of Jesus's conception, birth, and first years of life. This class will meet each Monday from November 29 through December 20 at 7:00 pm in the Holy Angels Conference Room at Saint Raphael (old school building, which the parish can access on weekday evenings).

For more information, please email Jason Spak at spakj1@yahoo.com.

This Week's Second Collection

From Catholic schools and hospitals—to parishes, retreat centers, and works of mercy—elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have prayerfully served our Church and world. Most ministered for little pay. Now, without enough retirement savings, many religious communities are struggling to care for aging members. Show your thanks for the prayerful service of elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. Your gift to this week's second collection helps provide nursing care, medicine, and other necessities. Please be generous.

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Father all-powerful, Your gifts of love are countless and Your goodness infinite. On Thanksgiving Day we come before You with gratitude for Your kindness: open our hearts to concern for our fellow men and women, so that we may share Your gifts in loving service.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Priestly Vocations

God has made each of us in his image and likeness and has created us with a specific purpose in order to share his love with the world. Are you a young man who has ever wondered if God is calling you to be a priest?
