Mission Statement

We are an urban parish of Pittsburgh's East End dedicated to serving one another both within and outside our parish, but especially to the poor and marginalized of our community. Empowered by Christ to spread the good news of salvation, we are committed to forming intentional disciples of every age and accompanying them in their faith journey, with the goal of fostering an encounter with and deepening our relationship to Jesus Christ. We do this joyfully rooted in the Eucharist and our Catholic faith, employing our diversity and talents to support one another and build the Kingdom of God in love, mercy, and justice.

Welcome, Scouts!

This weekend the Scouts join us at the 9:00 Mass at Sacred Heart and the 11:00 Mass at St. Raphael. We are glad to have you here! Your presence makes this Sunday particularly special. Our parish is blessed to have scout troops at both Saint Raphael and Sacred Heart campuses. You set an example for all of us with your service to our parish—you organize clean-ups of the parish grounds, collect food donations, and so much more.

Hooked on Joy

My name is Gary Fritsch, and I'm a Joy Addict. Over the course of my life I have acquired and rid myself of many habits both bad and good, but nothing like this. Nothing has ever gripped me so tightly and consumed me so completely – I'm hooked. I supposed I should explain what it means in my mind to be hooked on JOY.

Joy is not happiness. Happiness is shallow and can only occupy the pleasant times, the feel-good moments, the satisfied days. Happiness is not bad, but it is not joy. Joy is the deeply rooted gift of struggle and spiritual sweat. In my understanding of this word, its letters act as an acronym for the three true sources from which joy flow.

J – Jesus. An understanding that we are loved so much by the most powerful being that exists that He would stoop to be like us to show us in great painstaking detail that we are loved and forgiven. Every time we are reminded of this gift, by scripture, or the sacraments, or the actions of a loving friend – JOY!

O – Others. A focus on others, their needs, their difficulties and the ways that we can help provide a constant source of joy. Every time another's heart is unburdened, or a task lightened or a barrier removed – joy, sometimes even coupled with sadness, swells within us.

Y – You. Each of us is uniquely made as a distinct and unrepeatable component of the image of God. When we discover the ways in which God has gifted and equipped us, and put these to use in reflecting the image of God to others, joy not only grips us, but increases exponentially.

This is why I am so thrilled to be here, because I see unlimited opportunity to 'feed my habit' so to speak, in all of the ways mentioned above. But I will warn you, if I get to know you, I might just get you hooked as well.

Caring for Our Parish Home

As a child my father insisted I make my bed and keep my room clean. When asked why it was important, he told me that how you keep your space reflects on how you are feeling about yourself or life in general. Not only are our churches the House of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, our campuses are also home to our collective journey with Christ. From baptism, schooling and church festivals to weddings and funerals; our collective memories make our campuses a home for our greater Parish family.

I invite all of you to be mindful, to reach out with any needs, ideas or observations about the state of our Churches and campuses, but most of all be open to offer a helping hand in taking care of our Parish homes. I am looking forward to growing with our Parish family and I am excited to see the transformation that is possible.

Sincerely your fellow Parishioner, Chris Johnson

Let's Be the Hands and Heart of Christ

Although a cradle Catholic, I fell in love with the Catholic faith only a few years ago. I grew up in Toledo, Ohio, in a home with my parents and brother. My mom has always been a huge influence in my spiritual life: we would ponder the mysteries of God and the apparitions of the Blessed Mother, pray the rosary, and never miss a Sunday Mass. She made sure my brother and I attended Catholic schools.

As a young adult, I drifted a little from this path, pulled by currents of the world. But an experience of doing the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises, hosted here at our parish, transformed me. It was then that I came to really know Jesus in a way I never had before, and to know without a doubt that He is the center of my life. My whole worldview shifted. My priorities changed. Relationships changed. The experience of walking with Jesus set afire a burning desire to share His love with others.

Since then, I have enjoyed connecting with many Catholics, especially in the Young Adult group and daily mass community, and growing in my understanding of Scripture, the Liturgy, and the Catechism. I have been studying the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd over the past year and taking steps to become a catechist.

I hope to help our parishioners deepen their faith and share the love of Christ through service. There are so many people in our community who are searching to ease the hurt, to fill the emptiness, to satisfy the yearning for something more. Let's reach out. Let's be a good neighbor. Let's give them the heart of Jesus.

-Courtney Patterson

Black History Month

Saint Jude's Social Justice Committee is honoring prominent Black Catholics, including St. Josephine Bakhita, St. Benedict the Moor, and Pierre Toussaint, with poster displays in our Churches during the month of February. Learn about the stories of these Black Catholic saints, and be inspired by their heroic examples of holiness to the world. Look for the posters near the altar in St. Raphael and in the vestibule of Sacred Heart.

The posters also trace the history of Black Catholics in America. They share statistics from a 2021 Pew Research Study about Black faith in the U.S. Black Catholics currently comprise 4% of the U.S. Catholic population. Only 54 percent of Black adults who were raised Catholic continue to identify as Catholic. This compares to 81% who are currently Protestant, and 61 percent of white Americans who remain Catholics into adulthood.

One of the posters quotes Fr. Bryan Massingale who speaks to the heart of this disconnect: "What kind of Church are we if racial justice is considered irrelevant or nonessential to being a disciple of Jesus? And how can the Catholic Church be what it says it is - "Catholic" and universal - if almost half of its Black members abandon The Church despite their high measures of religious commitment?"

Let us take this opportunity to reflect on the ways that we be a more welcoming and inclusive parish.

Global Synod Meetings - February 21

As you have been reading here, Pope Francis has asked all Catholics throughout the world to be a part of the World Wide Synod, which will be held in Rome in October of 2023. The word “Synod” means “journeying together,” and Pope Francis is asking all of us to try to listen to the Holy Spirit - to discern how the Church today should continue the mission that Jesus gave to us, the People of God. He wants all of us to share what the Holy Spirit may be laying on our hearts about the Church now and its place in this world today. Pope Francis wants to hear from those who may feel marginalized or hurt by their Catholic experience, as well as from those who have found joy and mercy in the Church, and are looking for the ways to bring others to know the Lord Jesus in His Church. In these weeks of winter, every Parish in our Diocese will be holding “Synod sessions” to share, and listen to one another as to what the Holy Spirit is saying. We will be having two sessions here St. Jude Parish on Monday, February 21 at 1:00pm in St. Raphael Church and again that evening at 7:00pm in Sacred Heart Auditorium. You can give us a call at the Parish Office and let us know you will be with us— that would help us with the preparation. But you are also welcome just to come to the sessions. If you are planning to come, you will need to download the “Participant’s Guide” – which will give you the areas of discussion at www.diopitt.org/journeying-together

The observances of National Marriage Week (February 7-14) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, February 13) are an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family.

Praying together as a married couple is the #1 most effective tool for a thriving marriage, according to Pittsburgh's Renew the 'I Do' Foundation. Check out their website renewtheido.org for resources to support you throughout your journey—whether you are dating, engaged, or living the married life.

2022 Spring Speakers Series of the Association of Pittsburgh Priests

In a time marked by polarization, increased cynicism and resistance to institutional religion, many people especially those of younger generations are finding it harder to identify with the Church. This presentation will draw on the faithful and radical tradition of Franciscan spirituality to help today’s Christians respond to our times. To attend this free event, register at www.associationofpittsburghpriests.com. Free will offerings are welcome. For more information, contact Fr. John Oesterle at 412-232-7512 or johnoesterle2@gmail.com
