THE PARISH OF SAINT JUDE

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." - Lk 20:37-38

Mission Statement

We are an urban parish of Pittsburgh's East End dedicated to serving one another both within and outside our parish, but especially to the poor and marginalized of our community. Empowered by Christ to spread the good news of salvation, we are committed to forming intentional disciples of every age and accompanying them in their faith journey, with the goal of fostering an encounter with and deepening our relationship to Jesus Christ. We do this joyfully rooted in the Eucharist and our Catholic faith, employing our diversity and talents to support one another and build the Kingdom of God in love, mercy, and justice.

Anchored to Christ by Hope

How is the theological virtue of hope working for you these days? Today's liturgical readings offer you an opportunity to compare the virtue as exercised by the characters in the readings with the way it operates in your own life.

What is the virtue of hope, anyway? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit."

The seven brothers of the first reading faced persecution courageously because of the hope they had in God's promise of eternal life. You are not facing a martyr's death as the brothers did, but do you face your own personal temptations, struggles, and hardships with the same hope of seeing God face to face? Is your hope firmly anchored in God? "Let us hold on firmly to the hope we profess, because we can trust God to keep his promise." (Heb. 10:23- Good News Translation)

The second reading has St. Paul addressing the Thessalonians, encouraging them to endure while hoping in the fulfillment of Christ's promise of eternal joy. Are you aware that God offers you the same encouragement through his word, the sacraments, prayer, and others?

Today's Gospel calls you to have hope in the resurrection of the dead! Through his discussion with the Sadducees Christ reassures you though earthly life will end, eternal life awaits. Have you reflected lately on this promise of the Savior?

In summary, the Church beckons you today to hold fast to the hope you have in the fulfillment of God's faithful promises.

Sister Ann Rosalia

TRADITIONAL ACT OF HOPE

*O, my God, relying on your almighty power and infinite mercy and promises,
I hope to obtain the pardon of my sins, the help of your grace, and life everlasting through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.*

SESSION 7 - The Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace

Who is the Holy Spirit? How does the Spirit work in our lives and in the life of the Church? Why is it so important that we know and love him?

Come one time or come every time – you won't regret it.

EVERY TUESDAY: 7 PM – Bishop Winter Room

Let's Talk!

A Saint Jude Parish Mental Health & Wellbeing Program

A "Talk-Saves-Lives" Presentation

Monday, November 7 @ 7pm

Sacred Heart Church, Bishop Winter's Room

Talk Saves Lives is an American Foundation for Suicide Prevention educational program that provides participants with a clear understanding of these mental health issues that can lead to death, including the most up-to-date research on suicide prevention, and what people can do in their communities to save lives. Participants will learn common risk factors and warning signs associated with suicide, and how to keep themselves and others safe. Topics covered include:

- Scope of the Problem: The latest data on suicide in the U.S. and worldwide
- Research: Information from research on what causes people to consider suicide, as well as health, historical, and environmental factors that put individuals at risk
- Prevention: An understanding of the protective factors that lower suicide risk, and strategies for managing mental health and being proactive about self-care
- What You Can Do: Guidance on warning signs and behaviors to look for, and how to get help for someone in a suicidal crisis.

Let's Talk and be well informed about Mental Health & Wellbeing!

Lumen Christi: This is where adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (I&DD) meet to learn more about their Catholic faith and share their love for Christ. The group meets twice a month, on Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:30 pm, Newmeyer Hall at St. Matthew Parish. The evening includes Bible study, Catholic Doctrine, music, crafts, social activity, and prayer. We welcome adults with I&DD from our Diocese to join us and share your presence with Lumen Christi. We also welcome anyone interested in sharing your time. Join us for an uplifting, spirit filled, and blessed evening with Lumen Christi. For more information, call Lou Bosco at 412-821-2351 ext 413.

Haiti Holiday Candle Sale next Weekend

On November 12 and 13, the Hearts for Haiti Committee will hold a Holiday Candle Sale after Masses at our two churches. In addition to Advent candles and scented tumbler candles, assorted coffees and chocolate bars made from Haitian produce will be on sale. Proceeds will fund teacher salaries at St. Antoine School in Haiti where 600 students, in kindergarten through secondary school, receive an education as a path to a better life. For purchases or donations we accept cash and checks made out to Partners in Progress"

CROSS WORD PUZZLE

The answers to the Saint Jude Cross Word Puzzle will be in the next bulletin.

Thank you to Maggie Jones Patterson and Pamela Walck, Ph.D., Professors of Journalism and Media at Duquesne University, for their very informative and engaging presentation titled “What does the Public Trust in Journalism and Media today,” as part of the St Jude Parish Speaker Series, *Sharing the Light! The presentation was amazingly timed on a day when every newspaper editor and TV producer wants to be the first to get the Breaking News, the “big story”. Our speakers took us thru the steps a journalist of integrity and ethics must abide by in accordance with their professional code, fact-checking sources and every detail of a story accurately, all in crunch time. It was a very provocative and informative presentation. The video of their presentation is posted on our website at: www.saintjudepgh.org/maggie-jones-patterson-and-pamela-e-walck

The Diocese has created a Financial Statement from the data we send them every month.
