Bishop McKnight's Prayer Intention for March: "For a penitential spirit: that our observance of Lent may open our own hearts to greater sorrow for sins that offend our love of God and neighbor."

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for March: "That Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected. ."

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners of Mary Immaculate and St. Rose,

When you read this it will be the second week of Lent, but as I write it my mind is still filled with the events of Ash Wednesday. I am always, even after thirty-seven years as a priest, amazed by the number of people who attend Mass for Ash Wednesday. We had four Masses in Kirksville: two at Mary Immaculate and two at the Newman Center.

I began with the 8:00 a.m. Mass with the school children. The Mass was full and the kids were great. They are well prepared for the season of Lent. They understand well what Lent is about and the teachers in their school help them to observe it.

There was a noon Mass at Newman but I was not the celebrant. Father Franklin tells me it was well attended. I had both the 5:00 Mass at Newman and the 6:30 Mass at Mary Immaculate; these Masses were standing room only. The sacramental of having a cross of ashes placed on the forehead with the reminder, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return," is very powerful. It helps us to begin Lent with prayer and penance so as to celebrate the Easter sacraments with gratitude and joy!

I heard of other Christian groups giving out ashes in public places and even with a drive through so you wouldn't even have to get out of the car. I think that is missing the whole point of repenting in the midst of worship and community.

There was a story in the news regarding a fourth grade boy in a public school in Utah who showed up with ashes on his forehead. He was Catholic and had been to Mass before school. His teacher didn't think this appropriate so she had him wash the ashes off. The boy's grandmother found out and the teacher was corrected. There was a Catholic deacon who worked for the school system so he came to the school and reapplied blessed ashes to the boy's forehead. What an amazing witness this young boy is to all of us. It will make me even more proud to wear the ashes of repentance on my forehead.

But now all the ashes are washed away. The echo of the phrase, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return," still hangs in the air. Lent is a time to remember that Jesus came to save us. Let us keep that thought in our minds as we continue to make our way through this holy season of Lent.

Msgr. Cox

FROM THE BISHOP

Next January, I will be making a special trip to Rome, along with other bishops from Missouri and some adjoining states. We have been invited to make our "ad limina" visit to the Holy See. The Latin phrase refers to one of the primary reasons for the visit, to pray at the tombs (the "thresholds") of Saints Peter and Paul. The other primary purpose for the trip is to honor the Holy Father's responsibility of calling us to be in union with the Pope and the rest of the Church. To do that, we will be meeting with the heads of various offices in the Holy See and Pope Francis to report on the state of our dioceses. In preparation for those meetings, the Holy See asks me to provide a report on what has happened in our diocese since the last ad limina visit

Please Pray With Us During Lent

Throughout the country The Rite of Election was celebrated with Bishops at our Mother Church (Cathedral) of each diocese on the 1st Sunday of Lent. Our RCIA Community celebrated the Rite with Bishop McKnight on Mar. 10.

Our Catechumens (unbaptized) and Candidates (baptized in a Christian Faith) then entered the Period of Purification & Enlightenment as they anticipate their sacramental initiation at the Easter Vigil or during the Easter Season through Pentecost. They embraced the disciplines of Lent - an increase of prayer, fasting & giving alms - and celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time.

When you see these men, women & children at Mass or around town, please introduce yourself to them. YOU are members of their Faith Family too, not just the RCIA folks.

Sharing Your Time & Talents

More opportunities to serve behind-the-scenes.

Bulletin Board Assistant
We want to support everyone, young & older, preparing for Sacraments. Putting names & faces together helps the whole Faith Family grow. If you have artistic talent and love visual organization, please give Pat a call.

Photographers
We need folks with a good eye who are adept at cell phone photos or camera shots of parish events. We will assume costs of printing. We want to build community by posting photos on our new website www.miparish.org and new bulletin board in the back of church. Contact Pat for more info.

Join AM Housing Inc. for our 2nd Annual Fundraising Banquet featuring a silent auction, dinner, musical entertainment and special guest speaker, Dr. John S. Gaal on Thursday, April 11th at the Catholic Newman Center. Doors open at 6:00 pm Thursday night! Please join us to support AM Housing's goal to fund a homeless shelter in the community! For ticket information please contact us at amhousinginc@gmail.com or message us on Facebook at AM Housing INC. Tickets are available at Edna Campbell's and Take Root.

MUSIC for EASTER: Do you like to sing or play an instrument for special seasons of the church year? Please consider joining our MI musicians, especially for the Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil) and/or Easter Sunday morning. Practices for Triduum are scheduled for the last two Sundays in March and the first Sunday in April. For more information, contact Brian Degenhardt (bdegenhardt50@gmail.com). If you'd like to help on Easter Sunday, please contact Sarah Delaware (sdelawar@truman.edu or 349-0971).

which Bishop Emeritus John R. Gaydos made in 2010.

As we all know, much has happened in these past nine years! […] I ask you, as a member of the diocese, to assist me in writing the last section of the report by reflecting with me on how these past efforts are giving us a foundation for building the Church through the next decade.

Listening sessions on Bishop McKnight's Ad Limina Visit will be held at the following locations. Each session will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will include a facilitated session in which participants can provide information to Bishop McKnight and senior leadership.

March 28: Cathedral of St. Joseph, 2215 W. Main St., Jefferson City
March 29: Immaculate Conception Church, 402 N. Rollins, Macon

Reflection questions for preparation can be found on the last page of the bulletin.

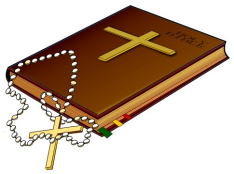
Another Lenten possibility for women who are looking for "something more:"

All women in Mary Immaculate/St. Rose parish are members of Altar and Rosary. Our group assists the parish by funding the purchase of altar linens, communion supplies and candles, coordinating priests' dinners for Lenten and Advent reconciliation, assisting at parish events, facilitating the Rosary prior to weekend Masses, and caring for communion linens. We welcome all to attend our quarterly meetings, where we pray the Rosary, hold a short business meeting, and have a short program or speaker. Annual dues of $15.00 support all of our projects and may be paid at any time via the collection basket, by mail to Mary Wolken, Parish bookkeeper, or by dropping at the Parish Center. Please email kristal205@gmail.com to be included in our email list.



Reflection Questions for the Bishop's Ad Limina Visit

1. What Church do you want your children and grandchildren to inherit? What are your dreams for their Church?
2. What does it mean to you for your parish to be a Center of Mercy and Charity?
3. How is your parish seen in the broader community?
4. What is your responsibility as a baptized Catholic to the parish?
5. What is your responsibility as a baptized Catholic to the broader community?
6. How could your parish or church help you be a better disciple of Christ?
7. How do the clergy and the laity share the responsibility for the life and mission of your parish? How does your parish effectively engage people in the life of your parish community? How can it do more?
