Dear Parishioners of Mary Immaculate and Saint Rose,

In the first chapters of Genesis, there is a very brief description of the life of Adam, the creation of Eve as his helpmate, and their fall from grace by eating of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. I often wonder what life was like in the days of original innocence when Adam and Eve were so aware of the presence of God that they “walked” with Him in the Garden of Eden.

My favorite painting in the Vatican museums hangs very near the entrance. It is one of the first works of art one sees upon entering. It is titled Adam and Eve in the Earthly Paradise. It is a painting by Johann Wentzel Peters. It shows a profusion of life in the Garden of Eden. Lions stroll past cattle without a glance. A tiger frolics near a camel. A leopard watches an ostrich without giving chase. The sky teems with flying birds. It is a painting filled with life and activity, yet with mountains in the background and a river running through it, it also gives one the sense of a pervading peacefulness.

Adam and Eve are at the center of this wonderful, beautiful earthly paradise. As you look a little more closely, Eve is handing something to Adam: it is the forbidden fruit. There is the realization that everything is about to change. The earthly paradise will be no more. Adam and Eve will fall from grace and sin will enter the world.

It is so easy to wonder why this original sin could have happened. Why would God put this tree in the garden and then tell Adam and Eve not to eat of it? God wants us to love Him. The only way to love is to have the choice not to love. Free will is necessary for love to exist. God, in love, created us with this true freedom.

From the time of the fall of Adam and Eve, God has worked to restore humanity to grace. He sent His Son Jesus as the Savior of us all. Jesus took on our humanity to live among us. Jesus showed the depth of God’s love when He offered Himself as the sacrifice for our sins.

Let us look forward to the day of the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God, when we will once again “walk” with God. Then all humanity, indeed all of creation, will be restored to our original innocence. True freedom is becoming all that God has created us to be.

Dear PSR Students at Mary Immaculate Church,

Thank you for your VERY generous donation of $240 to project Peanut Butter. 100% of your tax deductible donation goes to the feeding programs in sub-Saharan Africa.

We are incredibly grateful for your continued support in this frightening and trying time. Covid-19 has caused all of us to examine our giving patterns and we feel blessed that you stand with PPB and the children of Africa.

With the great trials we are facing, your willingness to stand with us is humbling.

Thank you for continuing this journey with Project Peanut Butter!
Mardi Manary

SHARE THE BURDEN "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). These words of our Savior seem to be in stark contrast to the previous chapter from the same Gospel, when we were told that if we do not take up our crosses, we are not worthy of Christ. Connecting these two messages might help us on our faith journeys. Being a follower of Christ surely means that we must embrace the cross, in its mystery of both suffering and triumph. This is something that we need not do alone, for the burden is often too heavy for us to carry by ourselves. Who, then, do we turn to? We can turn to the Body of Christ—the community of disciples gathered for worship. When we find the burden too heavy, let us remember that we can share that burden with our Christian sisters and brothers, who can help bring us rest.
