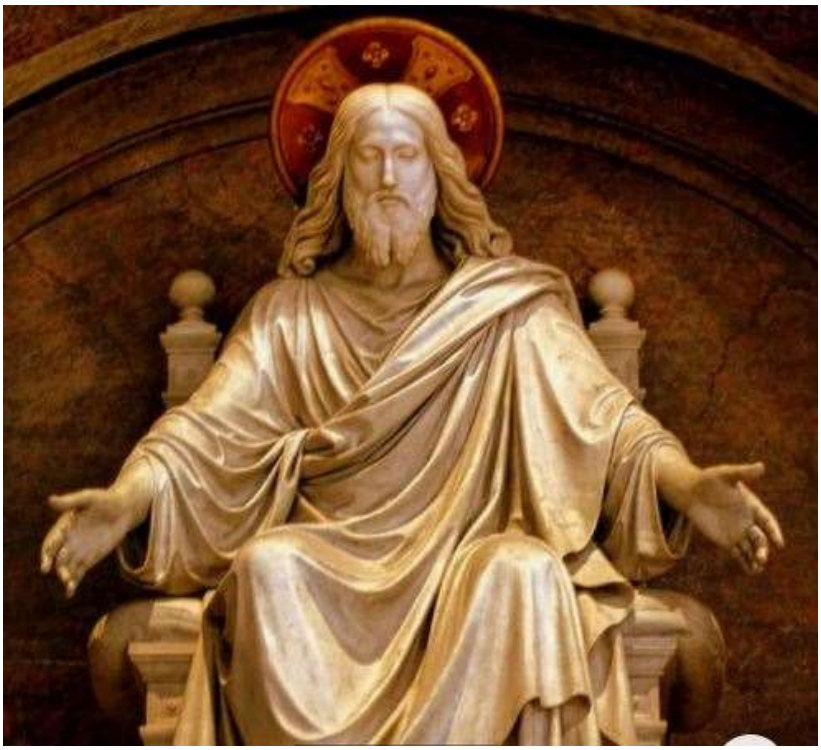
Week of November 22, 2020
Special Intention
Offered by Barb Williams

Dear Parishioners of Mary Immaculate and Saint Rose,

The last Sunday of every year is dedicated to Christ the King. It is a feast to crown the Church year. How fitting for us to begin each Advent with the longing for the birth of the Messiah and then to proceed through the annual commemorations of the events in the life of Jesus and then to complete the year with the triumphal acknowledgement that Jesus is our Lord and King.



Christ the King, detail from a monument to Pope Pius VIII by Pietro Tenerani (1830) in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

The full sculpture is here: https://www.walksinrome.com/monument-to-pope-pius-viii-st-peters-basilica.html

As Americans, we are fiercely jealous of our freedoms and so the idea of bending our knee and head to a king can be more than a little distasteful. But when we are speaking of Jesus, we are to surrender all to Him. We as Christians must fall on our knees before the mystery of our God who loves us so much. For it is only by taking on the yoke of the Cross of Jesus that we will find our true freedom, which lies not in the promises of this world, but in our life with God.

When we reflect on the humble life of Jesus from the moment of the Annunciation, through the hidden thirty years in Nazareth, to the three years of His ministry on Earth, to His death upon the Cross, His love becomes for us the most amazingly awesome reality in our frail existence! The shameful death on the Cross is not a tragic, senseless execution, but the ultimate expression and triumph of Divine Love! The Cross is no longer a humiliation but a glorification of Jesus, our Lord and King.

Jesus rises from the dead, and through the Resurrection opens the gates of Heaven for all of us who believe. So today we celebrate not only that Jesus is Lord and King, but that we, through our life in Christ, hope that we too shall enter into the glory of God. So it is with humble and grateful hearts that we bow before the glory of Jesus this day and proclaim Him our Lord and King!

> Though he was in the form of God, he did not deem equality with God something to be grasped at. Rather, he emptied himself and took on the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men. He was known to be of human estate, and it was thus that he humbled himself, obediently accepting even death, death on a cross! Because of this, God highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name above every other name, so that at Jesus' name every knee must bend in the heavens, on the earth, and under the earth, and every tongue proclaim to the glory of God the Father: Jesus Christ is Lord! Philippians 2:6-11

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for November: Artificial Intelligence
We pray that the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.

Bishop McKnight's Prayer Intention for November: For a greater sense of gratitude to God for all blessings received, and a greater sense of our responsibility for the mission of the Church in our parishes.

Our Drive Through Drop Off for the Christian Community Food Depot will be Monday, November 23, from 1pm until 2pm. Our designated food items are sugar and pancake mix, but all non-perishable items will be received with gratitude! The school is also accepting food donations from now through Friday, November 20th. You may drop off non-perishable food between the two sets of glass doors on the east side (next to the church) and they will pick it up and take it in. Thank you!

We know that for lots of MI families, taking a photo together in front of the crèche and the altar is a part of your Christmas tradition. Masks must be worn at all times inside the church and Newman Center when you come for Mass, which is probably not what you're hoping for in a family photo. So this year, for the week before Christmas and the week after, we will keep the lights on in the church all day during open hours, so that you may come in and get that photo together. If another family is already present, kindly wait outside. Thanks!

RCIA Inquiry Period

Meetings will be from 2:30pm-4pm on Sundays at the parish center. NEW INQUIRERS are eagerly welcomed. Must contact Deacon Chris at 660-342-1147 or chris.tsnewman@gmail.com prior to attendance.

Christmas Mass Schedule:

- Christmas Eve 3pm and 4:30pm at Newman
- Midnight & 9am Christmas morning at MI

Because of the pandemic, we have no idea what things will look like in another two months, but we have to plan for Masses in person, to manage distancing. This year, reservations will be required. We will do our very best to accommodate everyone's preferences, and we thank you in advance for your patience and flexibility.

Please RSVP with your first and second choice of Masses and the size of your group to secretary@miparish.org or call 660-665-2466 between 8am and 3pm Monday through Friday. If you email, expect a reply in confirmation by the next business day. Please don't use any other means to send in a reservation (ie no Facebook, text messages, etc.) as we might not see those.

Reservations will be first come, first served and the deadline is December 10th, though we would love to hear from you as soon as you know what your plans are. The seating charts will be finalized on December 11, and any further requests will be added wherever they fit at that point. Large groups might necessarily be split into two or more "pods," but again, we will do our very best to seat as many people as we can, with appropriate distancing, and we appreciate your patience and flexibility.

Thank you to all who have made reservations. If you know that you will NOT be coming in person, would you please let me know that as well? Thanks!

Thank you to all of you who faithfully support those in need in our community through Quarter Sunday. Lots more people are asking for lodging, now that the weather has turned cold, and there has been a surprising string of calls recently from people trying to avoid same-day water shutoffs. One extra thing this month is that we donated money to cover six of those Blessing Boxes for the Pantry for Adair County.

I've had an extra hard case in the last couple of weeks, a person who came to Kirksville from out of state, without solid plans for work or housing when they got here, poor relationships with family members, and then they were diagnosed with cancer. Mostly I was able to be a listening ear to help them process the avalanche that was overwhelming them, and to point out some agencies and services that would be available as they began planning to face a difficult and uncertain future. We paid for a few nights at the Budget Host, and they took the OATS bus to the cancer center in Columbia. There is Medicaid to help with treatment bills, but for a person who has no job and no home, there is no safety net here in Kirksville. I don't know how this case turned out, but one of the things Community Action sometimes does is pay for bus tickets so that people can go to a homeless shelter in a bigger city, and that was my suggestion to this person. At this point, all we can do is pray.

Sometimes, though, we can feel like we have contributed to an immediate solution, like providing temporary housing for a little family that has a place lined up, but the rental term doesn't start until December 1. My counterpart at the Salvation Army has them enrolled in their Pathway of Hope Program, which provides case management to families with small children, "to provide long-term solutions for unemployment, unstable housing, and lack of education, collaborating with the community (that's us!) to address the root causes of poverty." She was calling every church and agency to come up with enough pledges to keep a roof over the head of this mom and her two small children until they get over the hump, and the case manager will continue to work with them long-term. Those days are good days.

Thank you to all of your who make this possible by your generosity.

Lynn ofs
