MARY IMMACULATE SWEETHEART DINNER

Did you love the Sweetheart Dinner? We need a new coordinator to make it happen for 2024. Please contact the parish center if you would be willing to serve in this way.

Young at Heart

Parishioners 55+ are welcome to join us on Friday, October 6 at the parish center. Social hour starts at 10am, followed by Mass at 11am, and then we will have lunch together (sausage and kraut with mashed potatoes!) after Mass.

From the Pastor

Welcoming Fr. César Anicama: On Monday, September 11, 2023 in the Monday Morning Memo that the Diocese of Jefferson City publishes each week, there appeared an announcement that most likely would surprise any parishioner of Mary Immaculate and St. Rose: Bishop McKnight assigned an associate pastor, Father César Anicama, to our parishes.

Bishop McKnight had only called me the Wednesday before to give me the news, so it still was surprising to see it in print along with the other official appointments. First of all I would like to express my gratitude to Bishop McKnight and the priests personnel board of the Diocese for placing Father César here. The official announcement reads:

REVEREND CESAR ANICAMA, from Associate Pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Parish, Pettis County, to Associate Pastor of Mary Immaculate Parish, Kirksville, with sacramental ministry at St. Mary Parish, Milan and the Mission of St. Mary, Unionville, effective 16 October 2023.

This appointment indicates that Bishop McKnight is very concerned about the pastoral care of the folks up in the Northern Deanery and has noted the urgent need of another priest to assist with the sacramental and pastoral needs of Milan and Unionville. Since the departure of Fr. Pat Dolan, we have managed to provide Sunday Mass and the Sunday Vigil at Milan, but Unionville has not had Mass for almost three months.

It is especially significant that Fr. César is a native Spanish speaker, having been born in Peru. This will allow the return of a Spanish Mass at Milan which is especially important given the large Spanish-speaking congregation around Milan.

Fr. César (pronounce it like this and accent the first syllable: SAY-sar!) will also be a true associate at Mary Immaculate and our Mission of St. Rose. He will reside in Kirksville with me in our new rectory. Wow! I knew that having a larger house would make it more likely to have someone assigned here, but I was thinking of a transitional deacon or hosting a seminarian. To have an associate pastor will be a real blessing for all of us since there is so much potential for sacramental and pastoral ministry in our community. We will be able to share the sacramental duties to increase access to the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of the Sick and Confession, but also allow more opportunities for celebrating the Eucharist. Since the news of the appointment is so recent, I haven't formed too much of a plan. Many details will have to wait until Fr. César arrives and gets settled in. We should be able to have the 11:00 AM Mass back at Mary Immaculate as one of the first changes.

I can say that having an associate will allow us to increase our priestly presence in all the activities of the parish, such as during the school day for our Catholic school but also participation in the parish school of religion both here and in Milan. Having another priest on staff will also allow us to share some of the administrative and leadership responsibilities, especially in working with the various councils and commissions of the parishes.

One aspect of having an associate is the financial. The Diocese has agreed to provide us with an associate and to pay his salary and benefits. Our parish will be responsible for room and board, parish mileage, retreats and the yearly priest institute costs. So we will have to adjust our budget to accommodate another priest but it will be a major gift from the Diocese to not have to pay salary and benefits. I appreciate this arrangement.

So that's about all I can say for the time being. Fr. César will arrive around or on the 16th of October, when his appointment officially begins.

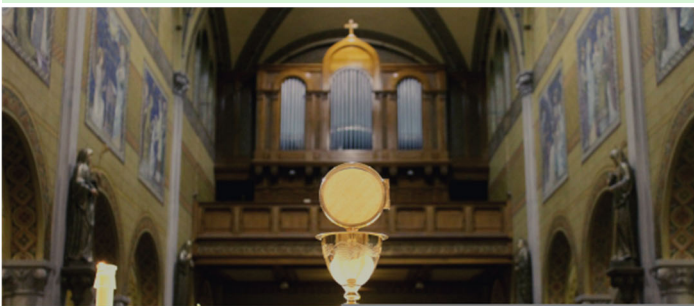

Moving into the New Rectory: We will have completed the purchase of the new rectory on September 20th but I have not begun preparations for my own move until, as they say, the deed is done! The new house is in excellent condition so I expect I will be able to move in quite soon. I would appreciate any or all help that can be offered to assist me in moving to the new rectory. A few vans, pickups and a trailer plus some willing and able hands should make short work of the move, especially since it is only a 3 mile trip and the new house has plenty of space to move in to.

A final word about furnishings. Nothing is needed in the kitchen as I have all the dinner ware, cooking utensils and pots and pans that you could want. I'll be glad to use the large fridge that is at the new house! The small house at 702 East Washington St. is rather sparse on furniture. We will need to get a few items. Folks might have some superfluous furniture in their house that we could use. One piece would be a queen size bed for the bedroom downstairs which Fr. César will use. I have my own bedroom set, so that's not needed. We have two twin beds that can go in the guest bedrooms upstairs. We have a good dining room table and another dining table that someone has offered that we can place in the downstairs. Plus we have two nice sectional recliners that will fit in someplace, but we have little in the way of living room furniture. Once we have moved in, we can begin looking at some of the other furnishing possibilities. I know that folks in Kirksville are used to all kinds of furniture swapping given the large university population so we should be able to equip the house with minimal expense.

I'm looking forward to settling in and having an open house for folks to come to and see the place. Not sure when that would be, but we certainly will have that in conjunction with a house blessing.

On Friday, October 6, Project NEMO Connect is hosting a service event for the homeless in the area. We have committed to providing 100 brown bag suppers for participants to take with them when they leave. If you are willing to donate supplies (bottled water/juice, protein, snacks, fresh fruit), spend some time assembling bags, or help with distribution at the event, please use contact the parish center or use this QR code to mark your choices on Sign Up Genius.

Come, let us Adore.

Prayer Before Shopping

Thank You, Lord, for all Your gifts. For bestowing upon us the necessary food and things of daily use. Free us from attachment to the things we possess and enable us to share sacrificially with those who have less than us. Teach us to be content with what is necessary. Protect us from greed, avarice and waste.

May our daily choices serve to achieve justice in the world, not exploitation of the planet and its poor. We ask for the needed wisdom, sensitive hearts, and the virtue of moderation, so that when we purchase goods we are guided not only by our own benefit, but by concern for the common good, the rights of workers, the proper treatment of animals, and the consequences for the environment.

Help us always to remember that You are our highest Good, and all that we have we owe to You. Amen

The Transitus of Saint Francis

On October 3rd of each year, members of the world-wide Franciscan Family and those with whom they live and minister gather to celebrate the "passing over" from this life to eternal life (in Latin, transitus) of Saint Francis of Assisi. The Franciscans of our parish invite everyone to join them for the Transitus on Tuesday, October 3rd, 2023 beginning after Mass at about 6:15 P.M. in the church. This traditional service of prayer, song, and readings typically lasts about forty-five minutes. All are welcome!

Mark your calendars! The next Women's Ministry fellowship night is Wednesday, September 27th at 6:30pm at St. Andrew's (500 S. Osteopathy, park behind the very back of the building and walk through any of the doors to the Community Room (bottom level). People will be everywhere to point you in the right direction). Please bring an appetizer to share and a beverage of choice. We will have a short meeting and will also be discussing the book A Biblical Walk Through the Mass. If you need a book, please let us know. There still should be some available copies in the back of church.

Meaningful Mondays Rosary Walk will be held on the 2nd and 4th Monday of every month at 5:30pm, starting at the church. We will meet on the 25th of September. No hills!

Please join our Private Facebook Group: MI Women's Ministry.

Quilt tickets are $10/ea, and last all year. Inquire at the parish center or see your favorite Piecemaker to purchase.

Our Parish School of Religion

(PSR) classes are for 4 year olds to 8th graders who are in the public school or homeschooled. Classes are held at Mary Immaculate School and are from 6:30-7:45 pm on Wednesday nights. If you have a child that you would like to attend, please contact me at chris.koch@miparish.org so I can send you the registration paperwork. It is also on the Mary Immaculate website under New to Our Church, with the parish registration packet.

Please contact the parish center to have a name added to or removed from the prayer list.

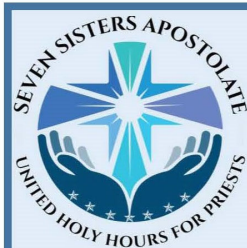

By decree of Bishop McKnight, we are delighted to welcome Fr. César Anicama as our Associate Pastor beginning on October 16! He will also help with sacramental ministry in Milan and Unionville.

Fr. César hails from Peru, and was most recently assigned to St. Vincent de Paul Parish in Pettis County (Sedalia).

The Seven Sisters Apostolate at Mary Immaculate invites any interested women to help form a set of seven intercessors for Fr. César. Each woman prays a holy hour once per week, on a designated day, solely for the intentions of a priest, and a full complement of seven women means that the priest is prayed for every single day. We have had a group here for about seven years, praying for the pastor, but we haven't had an associate in quite some time.

Please contact the parish center or email SevenSistersJeffCity@gmail.com with your questions or for more information about joining the new group.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest.

Seven Women

The coordinator of a group is known as the anchoress.

One Priest

The initial recipient of a Seven Sisters group should be their parish pastor.

One Hour, One Day

Each member commits to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week, thus covering a complete week.
