From the Desk of Fr. Russ Roide, SJ, Priest in Residence.....

Dear friends,

I am writing this Fathers' Day remembrance as I am away in June, but wanted to remember Fathers everywhere (even though in early July).

A LITANY OF FATHERS EVERYWHERE

Pause after each group of fathers. United with the ones who are mentioned, remembering we are one in spirit; draw forth loving kindness from your heart and send it for to these fathers. After each segment of named father, pray the following:

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

STEWARDSHIP IN SCRIPTURE

BY DEACON RICK HAECKEL

Today's Gospel reading is only six verses. The first three are subtitled, "The conditions for discipleship" and the second, "Rewards." Without those hints Matthew's Jesus sounds a bit harsh, if we love our parents and children more than Jesus ... we are not worthy of him. We must take up our cross to follow him to be worthy of him and it is by losing our life for Jesus' sake that we will find it. Phew, being a disciple of Jesus is not a walk in the park. Our love for him is to be so central that human relations take second place. If we seek only joy and pleasure and avoid the difficulty that comes from professing Jesus as our savior we miss the message that love of Jesus transcends human struggle. Finally by living as Jesus asks we find essential life, life in Christ. The early disciples needed instruction and so do we today. Our journey of faith asks that we continue to seek and open ourselves to the meaning of Jesus in our life. Like the first disciples we will fail at times, but we must always return to the truth of Jesus' message. We are to "lose our life for Jesus' sake" by regularly taking time to review our aims in life. By hard work and prayer we grow in rooting ourselves in placing Jesus at the center of our decisions. That can be as complicated as deciding our goal in life or as simple as discovering that in giving we really do receive. The last three "reward" verses assure us that being Christ for one another yields blessings which sustain us in our pilgrim journey. It's not a quid pro quo game, Jesus' presence to and within us is always present, we need only remind ourselves of that gift. It's not by our virtue or talent that Jesus is made present, it's by recognizing what is already truly with us. Some of the words in Scripture reflect the time when they were written and the audience that would hear them. Our challenge is not to be too literal in our understanding but to ponder how they have meaning for us today, in a world most different that in Jesus' time. Living as a disciple is to continually be surprised by the many ways Jesus is with us. Take a moment to sit with that.

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK

One of the fundamentals of being green is to live in the realization that we are to seek what we need rather than what we want. Most have found that truth in dieting, it really applies to everything we consume. Remember "less is more" means everyone benefits.

THE RICHNESS OF LIFE IN CHRIST

Today we have the beautiful story of the woman promised a child, the wonderful exhortation about life in Christ, and a powerful instruction from Jesus. An embarrassment of riches? Not if we take Jesus' words about "welcome" to heart. The many challenges and blessings offered to us today by Elisha, Paul, and Jesus should be cause for rejoicing, and welcomed heartily into our lives. And, like the great treat that they are, they should be enjoyed and shared generously with others.

Today's reading from Romans was chosen very early in the liturgical life of the Church to be the sole apostolic instruction received by candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil. This illustrates its importance as a core belief, and as a means of comprehending the story of the Resurrection. Christ's resurrection is not merely a story about something that he underwent once upon a time, but it is our story, the story of how we joined the other members of the one Body of Christ, the church. We were not only dead, but we were buried; not ultimately buried, but raised to eternal life with Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" postscript aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791 he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hace algunos años, el cantante de rock Carlos Santana y el grupo roquero Maná ganaron un premio en los "Latin Grammys" por su canción: "Corazón espinado". Esta bella canción es de un hombre que lamenta el dolor que una mujer le ha causado. No la puede olvidar, porque ella le ha dejado el corazón espinado. Esta canción siempre me recuerda al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, corazón rodeado por una corona de espinas e inflamado por el amor que le tiene a su mujer, la Iglesia, es decir, nosotros.

La devoción al Sagrado Corazón proviene de una monja francesa, santa Margarita María Alacoque a quien Jesús le mostró su corazón en junio de 1675. Jesús le dijo que su corazón arde de amor por los seres humanos, pero los cristianos sólo lo ofendemos con insultos, ingratitud e indiferencias.

¿Cuántas veces, como Iglesia o como individuos, le hemos espinado el corazón al Señor? Y aun así, la imagen del corazón espinado e inflamado de Jesús nos sigue cantando y llamando para que seamos suyos. Si regresamos a él, Jesucristo nos promete doce bendiciones de paz, consolación, fervor y otras gracias.

“Summertime and the living is easy.”

That’s what the favorite old song says.

The living may be easy, but often the giving is not. Summer collections often drop significantly in our parish because of vacation travel, sports schedules and other activities that cause parishioners to attend Mass in other parishes. Our budget has been impacted. Of course we are always grateful for your gifts, but if you were unable to make a gift while you were away, please consider making it now. We appreciate all you do to make it up, If you would like to make your giving easy and consistent, please consider our electronic giving option. Currently many of our parish families are using this simple and secure way to make and track their parish giving.

If you would like to learn more, please contact Anna Quinones at aquinones@dsj.org or check out our website at www.stca.org and click on give via parish pay.

I'm Out

I know this has happened in the past, but it's still somewhat odd to not work for an extended period of time, yet still be at the parish for Mass. Youth Ministry has become such a huge part of my life, that it's challenging to not think about it even when I'm not working (note to many: there are rarely any true off days in youth ministry. If a teen is struggling or in need and wants to talk, you don't tell them, "Sorry, I'm not working right now, hold that off til I'm back at work"). When I'm at Mass, it's hard to tell someone not to talk to me about ministry until after I'm back. And yet, the time off is important. Focusing my time and energy on my family, stepping away from work and appreciating and enjoying this time is something I don't want to take for granted (although I've probably gotten angry and frustrated at my kids more than once already, and I'm only a week into this thing). But I will try to remember to appreciate this time, and take full advantage of it.

Today's Gospel can be challenging to really take in. Jesus basically says that He comes first (which we already know) - that not parents, not even your children, should come before Him. It makes sense, but when I look at my children (pictured below), it can sometimes be tough to love Jesus more, especially when I can see my children, hold them, talk to them in a way that feels more real. I can easily say that I love Jesus more than my children, but do my actions and lifestyle reflect that? If I love Jesus more than anything, then that love should pour out to my children...which means I'm not getting as angry, frustrated, or impatient with them. That I'm able to continuously forgive them for making the same mistake over and over again (no Joshua, pushing your sister is still not okay!).

I pray that my children grow up to love Jesus more than they love me. I pray that they grow up to love Jesus, period. And I pray that Jesus floods me with His love and patience to deal with these three beautiful, stubborn, wonderful, somewhat annoying people for the next 6 weeks...and beyond.

Please phone the Parish Office or email Office@stca.org.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL "COMMUNITY CLOSET"

REPAIR and RENOVATION FUNDS NEEDED!

The parish and SVdP work together to keep a free supply of adult and children's clothing for use by those in need. An average of 200 people come every month to shop, thanks to your generous donations. BUT the building is old, the roof leaky, the bathroom crumbling. Thanks to Knights of Columbus, and a couple of grants, the parish and SVdP are on the way to completing the needed repairs. We are still short of the needed funds to make the building safe and secure for our volunteers and guests. Please consider making a donation directly for this project: checks should be written out to St. Catherine Church. Write "Community Closet Project" in the memo line. Bring your check to the parish office, or drop it in the collection any Sunday. You can also contribute online at the parish website: www.stca.org. Contact Carol Lillig if you have any questions (408-857-4516).

JOB OPPORTUNITY

St. Catherine Parish has an opening for an evening administrative assistant (Monday to Friday, 4:00-7:00pm). The evening administrative assistant is the first contact that many have with the Parish and needs to portray a hospitable, welcoming and caring face to the wide variety of people that approach the office.

The candidate should be a practicing Catholic, have great written and verbal communication skills in both English and Spanish, have a professional demeanor, be computer literate in several office and database applications, detail orientated, can multi-task and be able to prioritize effectively. Must be fully Bilingual (English/Spanish and Bi-literate (Read & Write in English & Spanish).

Employment applications are available on the Diocesan website (dsj.org) or at the parish office.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THANK YOU from the Handmades

The Handmades of St. Catherine would like to thank the parish community for their generosity and support of our first Diocesan Layette Collection! Eileen from the Layette Program also extends a heartfelt thank you. She was very touched by the generosity of St. Catherine parishioners.

We chose the month of May because it is the month we honor our heavenly Mother Mary and our earthly mothers. The donations from our parish community will help support mothers in need with a layette for their newborn baby.

Here is a brief list of new items collected: 80 pairs of socks/booties, 27 Receiving Blankets, 124 Onesies, 45 play sets, over 3,000 diapers & wipes and more.

We also received many beautiful, handmade items: 45 blankets, 32 quilts, 16 hats and several bibs and burp clothes. A BIG Thank You to our wonderful, crafty parishioners! We also received $130 in monetary contributions that went directly to the Layette Program to help when their needs are great and donations are low.

Hand-made items are gladly accepted and most appreciated throughout the year. Please contact Marianne Shallal at mcshallal@gmail.com to arrange a pick up of your beautiful hand-made items.

In October, Respect Life Month, Fr. Jeronimo will bless the many more handmade items our group makes as well as any that are donated during one of the Sunday masses, watch the bulletin for details. Keep an eye out also for information regarding the Annual Tea the Diocesan Layette Program holds the first Sunday of December, all are invited! Thank you once again for your generosity and we look forward to another collection next May, the month of our Blessed Mother Mary.

MASS INTENTION BOOK

The new 2018 Mass intention book has arrived. If you are interested in booking your mass intentions for next year please visit the Parish Office during business hours.

KEEPING PRIMARY GRADE STUDENTS SHARP WITH MATH

While developing number sense is critical, memorizing basic facts can make solving problems much easier and quicker. Parents can help in a variety of ways by taking a few minutes a day to review the math facts your child has already learned. Here are a few suggestions:

*Use flash cards to review daily. It only takes a few minutes and can even be done in the car on the way to day camp or sports practice.

*For younger children make the review a game: have the child roll two dice and add or multiply them together. How many can they do in 60 seconds? As their skills grow increase the number of dice and do the same thing (2+5+4 or 2x5x4).

*Buy some sheets of math fact problems at the educational store and have races with your child as to who can complete a section with the most correct. Start with a small number of facts and increase it as your child becomes more confident and proficient.

*St. Catherine School students can be working with their Mathletics or ScootPad assignments. These interactive programs review basic skills and connect our students with students all over the world to compete with short math quizzes requiring fast and accurate responses. They are highly motivational and lots of fun.

Additionally, keeping children active through cooking, board games or card games really pays off. Children love to spend these little bits of time doing silly math things and getting lots of encouragement from mom or dad. Three to five minutes of math review a day maintains skills and builds confidence and interest in math. Have fun!
