11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This is how it is with the kingdom of God;
it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land...
and the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how.

Mt 4:26-27

El Reino de Dios se parece a lo que sucede
cuando un hombre siembra la semilla en la tierra;
y sin que él sepa cómo, la semilla germina y crece.

Mt 4, 26-27

11° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesus, the bread of Life.

The Church teaches that the Eucharist is the "source and summit of the Christian life." A close reading of Scripture will teach us the same thing. In it we see that all of the Old Testament builds to what Jesus did at the end of His public ministry, not only in His death and resurrection but also in the Last Supper. And we find that the culmination of the life of Christ and all of time, our purpose in the great story of salvation, is to be seated at the same banquet table as God, enjoying a reconciled relationship with Him forever. Perhaps that is why Jesus told us to remember His death and resurrection through the ritual He established at the Last Supper and which we continue in the Mass. He wants us never to forget that our lives are directed to the great feast of Heaven and that as we journey there, we are nourished with its anticipation. Perhaps that is why meals are so important to life and family and community. We connect deeply to others around food because that's how we are designed, not just for natural food but most especially for Jesus, the Bread of Life. So, every time we share meals together as a parish, think of the Mass. And every time we are at Mass, think of the final banquet of Heaven. May our parish family be a deeply connected community of disciples, nourished with Jesus and open to inviting all to come share at our table.

Jesús, el pan de vida.

La Iglesia enseña que la Eucaristía es la "fuente y cumbre de la vida cristiana". Una lectura atenta de las Escrituras nos enseñará lo mismo. En él vemos que todo el Antiguo Testamento se basa en lo que Jesús hizo al final de Su ministerio público, no sólo en Su muerte y resurrección, sino también en la Última Cena. Y encontramos que la culminación de la vida de Cristo y de todo el tiempo, nuestro propósito en la gran historia de la salvación, es estar sentados en la misma mesa de banquete que Dios, disfrutando de una relación reconciliada con Él para siempre. Tal vez por eso Jesús nos dijo que recordáramos Su muerte y resurrección a través del ritual que Él estableció en la Última Cena y que continuamos en la Misa. Él quiere que nunca olvidemos que nuestras vidas están dirigidas a la gran fiesta del Cielo y que a medida que viajamos allí, nos alimentamos con su anticipación. Tal vez por eso las comidas son tan importantes para la vida, la familia y la comunidad. Nos conectamos profundamente con los demás en torno a la comida porque así es como estamos diseñados, no solo para la comida natural, sino especialmente para Jesús, el Pan de Vida. Así que, cada vez que compartimos comidas juntos como parroquia, piensen en la Misa. Y cada vez que estemos en misa, piensa en el banquete final del Cielo. Que nuestra familia parroquial sea una comunidad de discípulos profundamente conectada, alimentada con Jesús y abierta a invitar a todos a venir a compartir a nuestra mesa.

Reflection (Reflexión)

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seeds on the land... and the seeds would sprout and grow, he knows not how." Mark 4:26-27

The kingdom of God cannot be explained simply and fully, but many aspects of it are revealed. In this gospel the emphasis is on the quiet but certain ways in which God goes about the divine Project of the world's salvation. We may be worried about the state of world affairs, but God takes everything into account and does not panic. We pray that we may have the faith and focus on our relationship with Jesus daily. Then we can accept the task of mainly to sow seeds and to trust that they will grow at their own rhythm and come to harvest in God's time. Let us sow with love, since only love endures into eternity. May the extraordinary diversity of people that we encounter everyday see God's love in us and the seeds we sow.

Así es como es con el reino de Dios; es como si un hombre dispersó semillas en la tierra... y la semilla brotaría y crecería, él no sabe cómo". Marcos 4:26-27

El reino de Dios no puede ser explicado simple y completamente, pero muchos aspectos de él son revelados. En este evangelio, la énfasis está en la tranquilidad pero ciertas maneras en que Dios va sobre el proyecto divino de la salvación del mundo. Podemos estar preocupados por el estado de los asuntos mundiales, pero Dios toma todo en cuenta y no entra en pánico. Oramos para que podamos tener la fe y enfocarnos en nuestra relación con Jesús diariamente. Entonces podemos aceptar la tarea de sembrar principalmente semillas y confiar en que crecerán a sus propios ritmos y vendrán a cosechar en el tiempo de Dios. Siembremos con amor, ya que sólo el amor perdura en la eternidad. Que la extraordinaria diversidad de personas que encontramos todos los días vea el amor de Dios en nosotros y las semillas que sembramos.

God and the child have a unique relationship with one another particularly before the age of six. The growth of this relationship should be assisted by the adult, but is directed by the Spirit of God within the child. Children need their own place to foster the growth of that relationship. This spiritual growth is best served through tangible but indirect means. "If we want to help the child grow near to God, we should, with patience and courage...seek to go always closer to the vital nucleus of things. This requires study and prayer. The child himself will be our teacher if we know how to observe him." Sofia Cavalletti
