COMO LA TERNURA DE UN PADRE CON SUS HIJOS,

Pastor's Note Nota del Párroco

In the Gospel today, Jesus uses the image of sheep without a shepherd to instruct his disciples. Not only is Jesus their shepherd but the disciples themselves are shepherds as they go out. So, let's go forth and make disciples for Jesus.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús usa la imagen de ovejas sin pastor para instruir a sus discípulos. No sólo Jesús es su pastor, sino que los discípulos mismos son pastores cuando salen. Entonces, salgamos y hagamos discípulos para Jesús.

Lectura de la carta del apóstol san Pablo a los romanos

Gospel: Mathew 9:36-10:8
Santo Evangelio: Mateo 9:36 - 10:8

If the earthly father has encountered God the Father in an intimate, personal, filial, and convincing way then he will be able to transmit this fatherhood to those whom God will place under his care.

A prime example can be found in the life of Karol Woytyla—the future Holy Father, Pope John Paul II. He lost his mother at 9 years of age and then spent much of his time with his father; they even shared the same bedroom at night.

Young Karol recalls waking up in the early hours, way before dawn, and seeing the figure of his father kneeling, deeply absorbed in prayer. This example of his father left an indelible impression on the young Karol. His earthly Father had a deep and intimate relationship to God the Father and transmitted this to his son.

Then Karol would become the great “Holy Father”—Pope John Paul II, one of the greatest and clearest reflections of true fatherhood in the history of the world.

After placing primary emphasis on his relationship with God the Father, a true father should love his wife. The love and friendship that he has with his wife should be indispensable. This love should not stagnate, or worse yet, fizzle out. On the contrary this human love blessed supernaturally by the sacrament of Holy Matrimony should blossom, grow, and flourish until the moment of death.

The father should love his children and see them as a precious treasure that God has given to him with the primary purpose of bringing these little ones to their ultimate destiny which is heaven. A child is a gift given to father and mother but with the primary purpose of the parents being ladders by which the children can climb to heaven.

Let us turn to the best of earthly fathers, the good Saint Joseph, and beg for his powerful intercession. St. Joseph, ornament of the domestic life, patron of families, patron of fathers, pray for us!

This is an insert from an article in the “The Catholic Gentleman,” an online apostolates. I wasn’t sure if it was a coincidence or simply meant to be shared with you. To read the complete article, check it out online. God bless all the fathers abundantly and we lift up in prayer all those who have gone before us. May they rest in peace and the perpetual light shine upon them.

Si el padre terrenal ha encontrado a Dios Padre de manera íntima, personal, filial y convincente, entonces podrá transmitir esta paternidad a aquellos a quienes Dios pondrá bajo su cuidado.

Un buen ejemplo se puede encontrar en la vida de Karol Woytyla, el futuro Santo Padre, el Papa Juan Pablo II. Perdió a su madre a los 9 años de edad y luego pasó gran parte de su tiempo con su padre; Incluso compartían la misma habitación por la noche.

El joven Karol recuerda despertarse en las primeras horas, mucho antes del amanecer, y ver la figura de su padre arrodillado, profundamente absorto en la oración. Este ejemplo de su padre dejó una impresión indeleble en el joven Karol. Su Padre terrenal tenía una relación profunda e íntima con Dios Padre y la transmitió a su hijo.

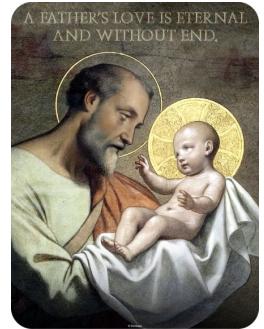

Entonces Karol se convertiría en el gran "Santo Padre", el Papa Juan Pablo II, uno de los reflejos más grandes y claros de la verdadera paternidad en la historia del mundo.

Después de poner énfasis primordial en su relación con Dios el Padre, un verdadero padre debe amar a su esposa. El amor y la amistad que tiene con su esposa deben ser indispensables. Este amor no debe estancarse, o peor aún, desvanecerse. Por el contrario, este amor humano bendecido sobrenaturalmente por el sacramento del Santo Matrimonio debe florecer, crecer y florecer hasta el momento de la muerte.

El padre debe amar a sus hijos y verlos como un tesoro precioso que Dios le ha dado con el propósito principal de llevar a estos pequeños a su destino final, que es el cielo. Un niño es un regalo dado al padre y a la madre, pero con el propósito principal de que los padres sean escaleras por las cuales los niños puedan subir al cielo.

Dirijámonos al mejor de los padres terrenales, el buen San José, y supliquemos su poderosa intercesión. San José, ornamento de la vida doméstica, patrón de las familias, patrón de los padres, ¡ruega por nosotros!

Para leer el artículo completo, échale un vistazo en línea. Dios bendiga abundantemente a todos los padres y elevamos en oración a todos los que nos han precedido. Que descansen en paz y que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos.
