"Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time"

Pastor's Notes/Notas del Pastor: Fr. Jacob Koether

Once we've responded to Jesus' call to follow Him — once we've made that personal act of faith, entrusting ourselves into His hands — we're invited to live to grow in healing. To grow in healing is to grow in freedom from sin, to develop Christian virtues, to establish habits of prayer, and to become more like Jesus. Of course, growth looks different for each person, depending on where they are in their spiritual life.

For some, this growth might mean entering a process of sacramental preparation like OCIA (the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) or our youth faith formation. For others, it might mean pursuing an annulment and receiving the Sacrament of Marriage in the Church. Still others might grow by joining a small group, attending a Bible study, or finding a community of believers who can encourage and challenge them. It's not enough to say, "I already got all my sacraments," or "I already finished CCD." Growth in faith is lifelong. The moment we stop growing, we start drifting. Every disciple is called to continual conversion — to keep learning, praying, and becoming more like Christ. This stage of discipleship is what the Church calls systematic and comprehensive catechesis. It's the time to dig deep-learning what we believe, why we believe it, and how to live it. Maybe that means picking up a good spiritual book or exploring a podcast that strengthens your faith.

Growth in healing doesn't happen all at once. It's the patient, steady work of grace in the soul of someone who keeps saying "yes" to Jesus. So — how are you growing?

In Christ, Fr. Jacob

Una vez que hemos respondido al llamado de Jesús a seguirlo — una vez que hemos hecho ese acto personal de fe, confiándonos en sus manos — somos invitados a crecer en la sanación. Crecer en la sanación significa crecer en libertad del pecado, desarrollar virtudes cristianas, establecer hábitos de oración y llegar a ser más como Jesús. Por supuesto, el crecimiento se ve diferente para cada persona, según el punto en que se encuentre en su vida espiritual.

Para algunos, este crecimiento puede significar comenzar un proceso de preparación sacramental como el RICA (Ritual de la Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos) o nuestra formación de fe para jóvenes. Para otros, puede significar buscar una anulación y recibir el Sacramento del Matrimonio en la Iglesia. Y para otros más, puede significar unirse a un grupo pequeño, participar en un estudio bíblico o encontrar una comunidad de creyentes que los anime y los rete a seguir creciendo.

No basta con decir: "Ya recibí todos mis sacramentos" o "Ya terminé el catecismo." El crecimiento en la fe dura toda la vida. En el momento en que dejamos de crecer, empezamos a desviarnos. Todo discípulo está llamado a una conversión continua: a seguir aprendiendo, orando y pareciéndose más a Cristo. Esta etapa del discipulado es lo que la Iglesia llama catequesis sistemática y completa. Es el momento de profundizar: aprender qué creemos, por qué lo creemos y cómo vivirlo. Tal vez eso signifique leer un buen libro espiritual o escuchar un podcast que fortalezca tu fe.

El crecimiento en la sanación no sucede de un día para otro. Es la obra paciente y constante de la gracia en el alma de quien sigue diciendo "sí" a Jesús. Entonces, te pregunto: ¿Cómo estás creciendo? En Cristo, P. Jacob

Prayer Intention Basket

We have a prayer intention basket in the entrance of OLS church and ST Capilla. You can place your prayer intentions in the basket. The basket will be taken to the Altar with the offertory gifts at every mass for prayer from the whole parish community.

"And whatever you ask in prayer, if you have faith, you will receive."

Matthew 21:22

Tenemos una canasta de intención de oración en la entrada de la iglesia OLS y ST Capilla. Puedes colocar tus intenciones de oración en la canasta. La cesta se llevará al altar con los regalos del ofertorio en cada misa para la oración de toda la comunidad parroquial.

"Y todo lo que pidieréis en oración, si tenéis fe, lo recibiréis".

Mateo 21:22
