"Twenty - Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time"

Pastor's Notes/Notas del Pastor: Fr. Jacob Koether

As we continue reflecting on what it means to Grow in Healing, it's good to remember that Christian growth isn't just about learning new information or mastering doctrine. It's about transformation—letting the grace of Christ shape who we are, how we think, and how we live.

According to the Directory for Catechesis, true conversion shows itself in concrete ways. A mature Christian life is marked by regular prayer, participation in the sacraments, love for God's Word, active charity toward others, moral integrity, and a willingness to share the faith. These are not boxes to check—they are signs that the life of Christ is taking root and bearing fruit in us.

Systematic catechesis helps us form these habits and virtues. It gives depth and direction to our faith, so that what we profess on Sunday becomes how we live on Monday. Whether through study, service, or daily prayer, growth in healing means cooperating with the grace that makes us whole.

Let's ask the Holy Spirit to renew in us the desire to grow—not just in knowledge, but in holiness.

In Christ,
Fr. Jacob

Al seguir reflexionando sobre lo que significa Crecer en la Sanación, conviene recordar que el crecimiento cristiano no se trata solo de aprender nueva información o de dominar la doctrina. Se trata de una transformación interior: dejar que la gracia de Cristo moldee quiénes somos, cómo pensamos y cómo vivimos.

Según el Directorio para la Catequesis, la verdadera conversión se manifiesta de manera concreta. Una vida cristiana madura se caracteriza por la oración constante, la participación en los sacramentos, el amor a la Palabra de Dios, la caridad activa hacia los demás, la integridad moral y la disposición para compartir la fe. No son casillas que marcamos, sino señales de que la vida de Cristo está echando raíces y dando fruto en nosotros.

La catequesis sistemática nos ayuda a formar estos hábitos y virtudes. Da profundidad y dirección a nuestra fe, para que lo que profesamos el domingo se convierta en la forma en que vivimos el lunes. Ya sea por medio del estudio, del servicio o de la oración diaria, crecer en la sanación significa cooperar con la gracia que nos hace plenamente humanos y santos.

Pidamos al Espíritu Santo que renueve en nosotros el deseo de crecer, no solo en conocimiento, sino en santidad.

En Cristo,
P. Jacob
