Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel reads like a story about the birth of faith within man. Jesus was just a passer-by for the Samaritan woman when they met by the well. You – the woman addressed Jesus. A few moments later, after a few exchanges, she referenced Jesus as Sir – out of courtesy. Sir is more meaningful than you. When Jesus unveils the shroud over her conscience, she realizes that the stranger in front of her is someone special: "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet," she said. Moments later, sensing that the stranger is more than a prophet, she talks about her and her generation's expectations for the coming of the Messiah. She does not have the courage to tell the stranger that, just maybe, He is the One. But Jesus understood. He confirms her premonitions saying: "I who speak to you am He." She believed and ran off to share her faith with others. After two days, many people had the same conviction and professed: we believe that He truly is the Savior.

They discovered their faith because faith in Jesus justifies man. Thanks to faith, man is no longer afraid of himself, of his sins, weakness, and often enough, of his stupidity. The path to faith is often long and winding. Is it because God is so remote, so far away? No. The biggest obstacles on the path of our faith are our own life's paths. We mutually complicate our life, pull one another from good and entice each other to sinful ways. The more emptiness, flimsiness and more indifference – the more difficult it is to accept God's gift, faith and absolution. Is man capable of making the path to faith so difficult that he'll not be able to accept the gift of faith and absolution? Perhaps that is what defines eternal damnation.

Faith and the absolution flowing from it are God's gifts. Everything in our life, the world and we ourselves are His gift. As the beneficiaries, we must be willing to accept the gift. The conversation in today's Gospel started with water: "Give me a drink," said Jesus to the woman. Yet He directs her mind to another kind of thirst, which is embedded in all of man. It is the desire of an internal peace, the need to be full of good and truth. The need to placate the desire of love – not only the ordinary kind, or the family kind, but the deep love which we miss, and afterwards, are afraid to admit to. With just a few sentences, but also with the difficulty to define the energy of this spirit, Jesus was able to wake up that desire of love in the Samaritan woman.

What is the lesson for our everyday life? We need open eyes, ears and minds, maybe even hearts. The Samaritan woman met Jesus during an ordinary activity, when she came to the well for water. We can meet God everywhere. He is waiting for us, not necessarily in the temple. God creates limitless number of opportunities in life where He can touch us with His presence when we're pondering life just like the woman by the well. We can then realize that even though many of our expectations and needs have already been fulfilled, we're waiting for something greater. Let's not forget that the water which Jesus gives us becomes the well needed for eternal life. This is why we need to change our way of thinking, why we need some time in our daily life for reflection and prayer. The type of prayer where we are not just directing our words to God, but one where we're intently listening to the people we meet, what we observe, or what we take away during what seems like life's trivial events when Jesus is talking to us, just like He did with the Samaritan woman by the well. May the time of Lenten reflection open us to God, who's waiting for each of us. May God once again surprise us, so that we notice His gift that's prepared for us, the gift of faith and absolution through which we are born again

Thank you for your support of our church and school and may God bless you and your loved ones,

Fr. Valdi

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to our 8th Graders, their families, and teachers. This weekend they joined with the Religious Education students and received the Sacrament of Confirmation. We hold them all in prayer!

We are continuing to journey together through the Lenten season. We are working with the Parish and using Operation Rice Bowls and attending the Stations of the Cross. Each week different grades are receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Also, each morning during our prayers the entire school is given a reflection for that day.

We had our second fish fry this past Friday. My thanks to Mr. John Tracy and all the wonderful volunteers who worked so hard to make the evening a great success!

If you are interested in finding out about our school and all we have to offer your child, please call the office at 630-257-6488, ext. 21 or email lazowski.jackie@stcyril.org. We would be happy to arrange a private tour along with answering all your questions.

Drodzy Parafianie,

Czytana dziś Ewangelia jest opowieścią o budzeniu się wiary w człowieku. Dla samarytańskiej kobiety Jezus najpierw jest zwykłym przechodniem spotkanym przy studni. Ty – zwraca się do Niego kobieta. Chwilę później, po kilku zaledwie zdaniach rozmowy, pada z jej ust słowo Panie – na razie tylko jako zwyczajny, grzecznościowy zwrot. Ale to już więcej, niż zwykle ty. Gdy odsłonił tajemnice jej sumienia, niewiasta zrozumiała, że Nieznajomy to ktoś wyjątkowy: “Panie, widzę, że jesteś prorokiem” – mówi do Niego. Chwilę później, przeczuwając, że Nieznajomy jest kimś więcej, niż prorokiem, mówi o oczekiwaniach swoich i swojego pokolenia na przyjście Mesjasza. Nie ma odwagi powiedzieć Nieznajomemu, że to chyba On jest tym Oczekiwany. Jezus rozumiał. Potwierdza jej przeczucia, mówiąc: Jestem Nim Ja, który z tobą mówię. Kobieta uwierzyła i biegnie dzielić się wiarą z innymi. Po dwóch dniach będzie to już przekonanie wielu ludzi, którzy wyznają: Wierzmy że On prawdziwie jest Zbawicielem.

Doszli do wiary, bo to wiara w Jezusa usprawiedliwia człowieka. Dzięki wierze grzeszny człowiek przestaje się bać samego siebie, swoich grzechów, swojej słabości, a niejednokrotnie swojej głupoty. Droga do wiary bywa długa i kręta. Czy dlatego, że Bóg jest tak odległy? Nie. Większą przeszkodą na drodze wiary są splątane drogi naszego życia. A płacemy je sami. Każdy z nas inaczej płacze drogi swego życia i żeby tylko swego. Wzajemnie komplikujemy życie, jedni drugich odwołując od dobra lub prowokując do złego. Im więcej bezmyślności, im więcej bylejakości, im więcej obojętności – tym trudniej przyjąć Boży dar – i wiary, i usprawiedliwienia. Czy człowiek może sobie tę drogę utrudnić do tego stopnia, że nie przyjmie daru wiary i usprawiedliwienia? Niestety, może i to właśnie jest wieczne potępienie.

Wiara i płynące z niej usprawiedliwienie jest darem Boga. Zresztą – wszystko w naszym życiu, cały świat i my sami jest Jego darem. Rzecz w tym, by obdarowany potrafił dar przyjąć. Rozmowa w Ewangelii zaczęła się od wody: “Daj Mi pić!” – mówi Jezus do niewiasty. I kieruje jej myśl ku innemu pragnieniu, które jest w każdym człowieku. Jest to pragnienie wewnętrzne, pokoju, potrzeba nasycenia się dobrem i prawdą. Chęć zaspokojenia pragnienia miłości – i to nie tylko tej zwyczajnej, rodzinnej, lecz głębi miłości, do której tęsknimy, często bojąc się do tego przyznać. Jezus kilkoma zdaniami, ale także jakimś trudnym do nazwania promieniowaniem siły swego ducha obudził w Samarytance to pragnienie.

A jaka z tego wszystkiego nauka dla naszej codzienności? Potrzebujemy otwartych oczu, uszu i umysłów, a może i serc? Samarytanka spotkała Jezusa w zwyczajnym miejscu przy banalnej czynności, gdy przyszła po wodę do studni. Boga możemy spotkać wszędzie. On na nas czeka niekoniecznie w świątyni. Tyle przecież zaskakujących sytuacji w życiu, które Bóg stwarza, byśmy musieli się otrzeć o Jego obecność i zamyślić, jak owa kobieta przy studni. I uświadomić sobie, że choć tyle naszych oczekiwań i potrzeb już jest zaspokojonych, to przecież czekamy na coś więcej. I nie zapomnieć, że jest woda, którą Jezus daje, a która staje się źródłem wody wytryskającej ku życiu wiecznemu. Dlatego potrzebny nam nawyk myślenia, potrzebna codzienna chwila wyciszenia na refleksję i modlitwę. Potrzebna modlitwa nie słów do Boga kierowanych, ale wsłuchiwanie się w to, co przez spotkanych ludzi, przez codzienne sprawy, przez błahe nieraz wydarzenia mówi do nas Jezus... Jak do Samarytanki przy studni. Czas Wielkiego Postu, czas rekolekcji, może nas na nowo otworzyć na Boga, czekającego na każdego i każdą z nas. Oby zaskoczył nas kolejny raz. Obyśmy dostrzegli wtedy dar, jaki dla nas przygotował. Dar wiary i usprawiedliwienia, dzięki któremu rodzimy się na nowo

Dziękuję za ciągłe wsparcie i hojność dla Parafii Św. Cyryla i Metodego. Życzę miłego tygodnia i niech Bóg błogosławi Was i Waszych najbliższych,

Ks. Waldemar

LENTEN
RETREAT*We Had a Fun and Holy Lenten Retreat at Sag Hall!

From laughter to silence, feeding to fasting, deep discussions and fun activities, the 35 people who attended our Lenten Sycamore Retreat on February 25 at St. James Sag Hall had an interesting and inspiring day. Surrounding the Sycamore videos of convert Fr. Stephen Wang teaching us how to pray better to connect with God, and how to live our Catholic Creed, our day was filled with wonderful conversations and enjoyable activities. We prayed in front of the Eucharist after learning about the 12 Levels of Silence. Our creativity was enhanced during group activities of writing a prayer based on random objects pulled from a lunch bag, and creating a poster/advertisement for living the Catholic Faith. We connected with the Body of Christ.
