A SURVEY OF THE BIBLE

The Book of First Chronicles cover the same period of Jewish history described in Second Samuel through Second Kings. The books are not a simple repetition of the same material, but rather a theological reinterpretation of that material in connection with the people's lives after the Exile. Their theological aim is to affirm the priority of the Davidic dynasty in God's plan for Israel and to reassert the centrality of Temple worship in the postexile period.

Chronicles retraces the whole story of Israel's history up to the return from captivity in order to give the returned remnant a divine perspective on the developments of their past. The whole Book of First Chronicles, like Second Samuel, is dedicated to the life of David. It begins with the royal line of David (Chs. 1 through 9) before surveying key events of the reign of David (Chs. 10 through 29).

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel passage we read of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. It seems peculiar that upon hearing of Lazarus' illness Jesus delays two days before going to him. They were friends. Jesus states that he is glad that he was not there when Lazarus died so the disciples may believe when Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. (My text in italics). This shows the importance Jesus places on belief. Allowing his friend to die so others may come to believe. Twice Jesus speaks to Martha about the importance of believing. And what is Jesus calling us to believe? That he is the resurrection and the life. This statement means nothing if it is not internalized, believed. But if it is believed then we shall have new life within us just as Lazarus was raised from the dead.

Grace & Peace,
Fr. Tom
