JULY 12, 2020
FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Welcome to St Anthony Catholic Parish

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." - Mt 13:23

"En cambio, lo sembrado en tierra buena representa a quienes oyen la palabra, la entienden y dan fruto: unos, el ciento por uno; otros, el sesenta; y otros, el treinta". - Mt 13, 23

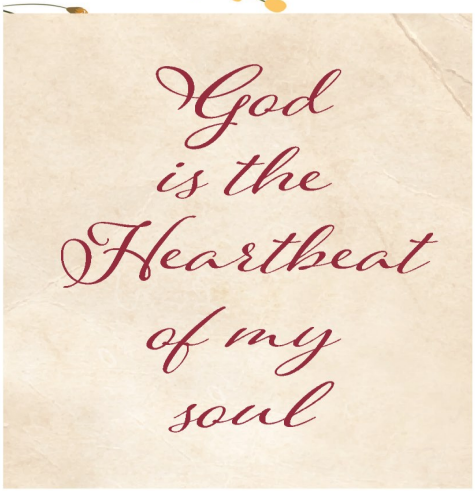
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Any good farmer will tell you that regardless of how good the quality of the seed, its sprouting and bearing of effective fruit is dependent upon the quality of the soil. Preparing the soil is one of the most essential components of farming. There is no doubt that the seed of God's Word will eventually achieve its purpose. God cannot and will not fail. When and how that seed bears fruit is, however, dependent upon us. What is the quality and condition of your soil? Life's concerns and preoccupations can cause us to become inattentive to our inner life. This sometimes unintentional neglect can result in our soil becoming hard, overgrown with weeds, rocky, parched, and lifeless. When God's seed is sown, it doesn't always take root because it struggles to establish roots and flourish. How can you more attentively attend to the soil of your heart so that it will be a fertile and vital place for the fruit of the Gospel to grow?



St. Anthony Community,

At this time, all masses have been cancelled until further notice due to the increase of COVID-19 cases, except daily masses.

I continue to ask for your patience as we do our best during these challenging times to implement responsible procedures for our public liturgies.

We will adjust as best we can in the coming weeks to accommodate all parishioners while following local and diocesan requirements and guidelines. I appreciate your understanding and cooperation as we negotiate all of this together.

I will publish attendance procedures a week prior to our start. As noted above, these procedures may require additional volunteers to help in the role of ushers and extraordinary ministers. If the call goes out, prayerfully consider assisting with one of these ministries.

Please know that all Catholics of the Diocese of Dallas remain dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass "on Sundays and other holy days of Obligation" (canon 1247) and remain dispensed until further notice, even after public Masses begin.

God's Blessings,
Fr. Tony

Comunidad de San Antonio,

En este momento, todas las misas han sido canceladas hasta nuevo aviso debido al aumento de los casos de COVID-19, excepto las misas diarias.

Sigo pidiendo su paciencia mientras hacemos nuestro mejor esfuerzo durante estos tiempos difíciles para implementar procedimientos responsables para nuestras liturgias públicas.

Nos ajustaremos lo mejor que podamos en las próximas semanas para acomodar a todos los feligreses mientras seguimos los requisitos y pautas locales y diocesanos. Agradezco su comprensión y cooperación mientras negociamos todo esto juntos.

Publicaré los procedimientos de asistencia una semana antes de nuestro inicio. Como se señaló anteriormente, estos procedimientos pueden requerir voluntarios adicionales para ayudar en el papel de ujieres (acomodadores) y ministros extraordinarios. Si recibe el llamado, considere ponerlo en oración y ayudar con uno de estos ministerios.

Tenga en cuenta que todos los católicos de la Diócesis de Dallas quedan eximidos de la obligación de asistir a misa “los domingos y otros días santos de obligación" (canon 1247) y permanecen dispensados hasta nuevo aviso, incluso después de que comiencen las misas públicas.

Bendiciones de Dios,
El p. Tony

A Note from the Diocese of Dallas on Children Sacraments and Faith Formation

Please be aware that only a parent or legal guardian may arrange for the sacraments, or faith formation, of a minor child. It must be confirmed that any person registering a minor child for continuing faith formation, or sacramental preparation, has the legal authority to do so. If that adult's name is not reflected on the child's birth certificate, or in the case of an already baptized minor child, on the baptismal certificate, the person must provide the proper documentation that shows he/she has the legal right to arrange for the spiritual needs of the child.

Una Nota de la Diócesis de Dallas sobre los Sacramentos para un menor de edad y la Formación de Fe

Tenga en cuenta que solo un padre o tutor legal puede organizar los sacramentos o la educación religiosa de un menor de edad. Debe confirmarse que cualquier persona que inscriba a un menor de edad para continuar su Formación de Fe, o preparación sacramental, tiene la autoridad legal para hacerlo. Si el nombre de ese adulto no está reflejado en el certificado de nacimiento del niño, o en el caso de un niño menor de edad bautizado, en el certificado de bautismo, la persona debe proporcionar la documentación adecuada que demuestre que tiene el derecho legal de organizar lo espiritual necesidades del niño.

Family Page

For small children, Mass can be a difficult experience. The readings are often over their heads, the homily is seldom geared to their age level, and the language of many prayers is unfamiliar. To make Mass come alive for them, try these five simple steps.

1 If your children are too young to read, buy them a child's illustrated book on the Mass. Show them in pictures what to watch for at Mass.

2 Visit your parish church sometime when services are not in progress and point out items used at Mass: where Blessed Sacrament is reserved, what the sanctuary lamp is for, and so forth.

3 Before you leave for Mass, look over the readings and discuss them with your children. Relate something from the readings to their own experiences.

4 Get to Mass early and sit where the children can see what is going on.

5 Later in the day, discuss the gospel again, fitting the message into their lives. Ask them to decide upon one thing they can do this week to act upon Jesus' words.

If you follow the preceding steps to introduce the children to the Mass, you will be preparing their hearts to accept the Word of God and act upon it.

How Does Your Garden Grow?

This could be a lovely garden, but the flowers have no blossoms. Read this bulletin and see how you can make the flowers bloom.

The Farmer and the Seed

Father Jim is reading this week's gospel story about a farmer who went out to plant his fields.

Tamara and Debbie are whispering and giggling in the back pew. They don't pay any attention to what Father Jim is reading. They don't understand it anyway.

(Some of the seed landed on a footpath, where the birds came and ate it.)

Lionel is standing in a pew with his parents. His hands are shoved in his pockets, and he looks very angry. Lionel thinks going to church is dumb.

(Some of the seed fell on rocky ground, where it has little soil.)

Two rows behind Lionel stands Carmen. Carmen has things on her mind. She isn't listening to the priest. She is going on a picnic after Mass and she can hardly wait. Carmen wishes Mass would be over.

(Some of the seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked it.)

Toward the front of church are Mark and Amanda. Their family always sits toward the front so they can see and hear everything. Mark and Amanda try to listen carefully because they want to know more about Jesus. Later, they'll ask their Dad or Mom to explain anything they didn't understand at Mass.

(Some of the seed landed on good soil....)

God is the farmer out planting the field, and the seed is Jesus' Word. Love grows from the seed that falls on good soil. When God plants the seed in your heart this week, how will your garden grow?

Seeds of Love

Here are some questions about this week's gospel story. For every one you can answer, add a lovely blossom to the garden on the cover of this bulletin.

1. What was today's gospel story about?
2. Who was the farmer out planting his field?
3. What is the seed?
4. What grows from the seed that falls on good soil?
5. How can you make the seed of God's Word grow in your heart?
