THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TRIGESIMO TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
NOVEMBER 13TH, 2022

THE END OF DAYS

As we prepare for next Sunday's feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns them prophetically against succumbing to "The End Is Near" syndrome—indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life—healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmastime, helps us to rejoice for the King who is coming to rule with justice. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

EL FIN DE LOS DÍAS

Mientras nos preparamos para el próximo domingo para la fiesta de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo, escuchamos descripciones de acontecimientos funestos y catastróficos. A veces parece que nosotros mismos estamos viviendo el final de los tiempos, cuando la vida, así como actualmente la conocemos terminará para todos. En respuesta a lo que debe haber sido una pregunta temerosa, Jesús no endulza su predicción para los días futuros. Ni el profeta Malaquías del Antiguo Testamento flaquea de sus declaraciones sobre un mundo malvado. San Pablo, todavía escribiendo a los tesalonicenses, les advierte proféticamente en contra de caer en el síndrome de "El final se acerca", es decir, a la pereza ante los últimos días. Sin embargo, tanto Jesús como Malaquías hablan de la recompensa por llevar una vida justa, curación y reivindicación. Nuestro salmo 98, típicamente asociado con la Navidad, nos ayuda a alegrarnos por el Rey que ya viene a gobernar con justicia. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PAROCHIAL VICAR'S MESSAGE — FR. JOSEPH CARAWAY

Liturgy of the Word

[Last week's bulletin article was supposed to be on the Liturgy of the Word, but I jumped ahead and skipped some parts of the Mass. I made a mistake reading the calendar.]

Today, we will be discussing the Liturgy of the Word with a focus on the first reading, responsorial psalm, the second reading, gospel acclimation, and the gospel. These all include the Word of the Lord and should be held with great respect and honor.

In the language of Mother Church, there are two Latin terms she uses to refer to "word." The two terms are "scriptum" and "verbum." When Mother Church refers to the Word of the Lord in Latin, she never uses the term "Scriptum." Scriptum pertains to the words that are written on a page, but the Word of the Lord is not stagnant on a page. The Word of the Lord is living and moving in the world, and it travels as if it has wings.

No matter what language a person speaks, every language has verbs, and they are associated with an action or movement. The word "verb" comes from the Latin word "verbum" because verbum is active, moving, and most importantly, living. This is why the Church uses the Latin term "verbum" when it refers to the Word of the Lord because it is active. Therefore, the readings are proclaimed by a lector instead of everyone reading them in silence. The Word of the Lord is living through the voice of the lector and is carried through the Church to every ear and space. The Word of the Lord is living and if we think the Word of the Lord is only something written on a page, we do not understand the true Word of God.

The Word of God has always been shared orally through the body of Christ, its members. The written words on a page are there to help guide the believer on how to live. If the Word of the Lord is not active and moving in our life, we are no longer living but slowly deteriorating. The world is full of people who feel as if they have no purpose, and some will go so far as to take their own life. This is because they have lost the true movement in their life. If a person does not have the Word of the Lord, they do not have life within them.

MENSAJE DEL VICARIO PARROQUIAL– P. JOSEPH CARAWAY

Litúrgia de la Palabra

[Se suponía que el artículo del boletín de la semana pasada era sobre la Liturgia de la Palabra, pero me adelanté y me salté algunas partes de la Misa. Cometí un error al leer el calendario.]

Hoy, discutiremos la Liturgia de la Palabra con un enfoque en la primera lectura, el salmo responsorial, la segunda lectura, la aclimatación al evangelio y el evangelio. Todos estos incluyen la Palabra del Señor y deben celebrarse con gran respeto y honor.

En el lenguaje de la Madre Iglesia, hay dos términos latinos que ella usa para referirse a "palabra". Los dos términos son "scriptum" y "verbum". Cuando la Madre Iglesia se refiere a la Palabra del Señor en latín, nunca usa el término "Scriptum". Scriptum se refiere a las palabras que están escritas en una página, pero la Palabra del Señor no está estancada en una página. La Palabra del Señor vive y se mueve en el mundo, y viaja como si tuviera alas.

No importa qué idioma hable una persona, cada idioma tiene verbos y están asociados con una acción o movimiento. La palabra "verbo" proviene de la palabra latina "verbum" porque verbum es activo, en movimiento y, lo más importante, vivo. Es por eso que la Iglesia usa el término en Latín "verbum" cuando se refiere a la Palabra del Señor porque es activa. Por lo tanto, las lecturas son proclamadas por un lector en lugar de que todos las lean en silencio. La Palabra del Señor vive a través de la voz del lector y se lleva a través de la Iglesia a todos los oídos y espacios. La Palabra del Señor está viva y si pensamos que la Palabra del Señor es sólo algo escrito en una página, no entendemos la verdadera Palabra de Dios.

La Palabra de Dios siempre ha sido compartida oralmente a través del cuerpo de Cristo, sus miembros. Las palabras escritas en una página están ahí para ayudar a guiar al creyente sobre cómo vivir. Si la Palabra del Señor no está activa y se mueve en nuestra vida, ya no estamos viviendo, sino deteriorándonos lentamente. El mundo está lleno de personas que sienten que no tienen ningún propósito, y algunos irán tan lejos como para quitarse la vida. Esto se debe a que han perdido el verdadero movimiento en su vida. Si una persona no tiene la Palabra del Señor, no tiene vida dentro de ella.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of the land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy and overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we may walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
