THE MONTH OF MARY

During the month of May, the Church has the ancient tradition of paying special honor to the Mother of God. There is the custom in many places of holding "May Crownings". Most of the month of May usually falls during the Easter Season. So, we are honoring the Mother of God while simultaneously rejoicing in the resurrection of her Son. We cannot even begin to imagine the joy in her heart when Jesus rose from the dead. In our Catholic tradition, there is a prayer that seeks to recall that joy. It is the Regina Caeli. Many of you are no doubt familiar with the Angelus Prayer. When church bells ring at 6 in the morning, at noon, and again at 6 in the evening, those are called the Angelus bells. It is a call to prayer to stop and pray, recalling the moment of the Incarnation, the moment when Mary gave her yes, her fiat to the angel and the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. In many parishes, this prayer is prayed either before or after Mass especially if it is around one of those traditional hours. There is the custom of the popes praying the angelus with the crowds in St. Peter's Square at noon on Sundays and Holy Days.

But during the fifty days of the Easter Season, the Angelus is replaced with another Marian anthem, the Regina Caeli.

Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

The Son whom you merited to bear, alleluia.

Has risen as he said, alleluia.

Pray for us to God, alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

Because the Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Regina caeli, laetare, alleluia.

Resurrexit, sicut dixit, alleluia.

Ora pro nobis Deum, alleluia.

EL MES DE MARIA

Durante el mes de mayo, la Iglesia tiene la antigua tradición de rendir un honor especial a la Madre de Dios. Existe la costumbre en muchos lugares de celebrar "Coronaciones de Mayo". La mayor parte del mes de mayo generalmente cae durante la temporada de Pascua. Por lo tanto, estamos honrando a la Madre de Dios mientras simultáneamente nos regocijamos en la resurrección de su Hijo. Ni siquiera podemos comenzar a imaginar el gozo en su corazón cuando Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos. En nuestra tradición católica, hay una oración que busca recordar esa alegría. Es el Regina Caeli. Muchos de ustedes están sin duda familiarizados con la Oración del Ángelus. Cuando las campanas de la iglesia suenan a las 6 de la mañana, al mediodía y nuevamente a las 6 de la tarde, se llaman las campanas del Ángelus. Es un llamado a la oración para detenerse y orar, recordando el momento de la Encarnación, el momento en que María dio su sí, su fiat al ángel y el Verbo se hizo carne y habitó entre nosotros. En muchas parroquias, esta oración se reza antes o después de la misa, especialmente si es alrededor de una de esas horas tradicionales. Existe la costumbre de que los papas recen el ángelus con las multitudes en la Plaza de San Pedro al mediodía los domingos y días santos. Pero durante los cincuenta días del tiempo de Pascua, el Ángelus es reemplazado por otro himno mariano, el Regina Caeli.

Reina del cielo, regocíjate, aleluya.

El Hijo que merecías tener, aleluya.

Ha resucitado como él dijo, aleluya.

Ruega por nosotros a Dios, aleluya.

Alégrate y alégrate, oh Virgen María, aleluya.

Porque el Señor ha resucitado verdaderamente, aleluya.

Regina caeli, laetare, aleluya.

Resurrexit, sicut dixit, aleluya. Ora pro nobis Deum, aleluya.

Gaudete et laetare, Virgo Maria, Aleluya.

Quia surrexit Dominus vere, Aleluya.
