Do you want to be a saint?

"O when the saints! O when the saints go marching in! O how I want to be in that number! O when the saints go marching in!"

Do you want to be a saint? Do you think that you can be a saint? The communion of the Saints is a gift of our Catholic Faith. Each of us is called to be in that number of saints.

The saints were normal people. They lived normal lives and did normal jobs and activities. They were even sinners as well, but repentant sinners. They all were docile and attentive to the voice of God. Through this docility, their normal activities were transformed into saintly activities.

A few years ago, I visited the tomb of St. Therese of Lisieux in France. I was praying, about how she showers down the love of God by roses, and how close to Christ she is in heaven. But then I realized that she is not God and therefore she can't read my mind. So, I introduced myself to her in my prayer; what if she would like to get to know me? What if, just like in our relationships and friendships on earth, we can form heavenly friendships with the saints in asking for their help and prayers?

I then asked her to bring my little prayers before the throne of God in heaven. And I sensed that she truly heard my prayer. This is known as intercession of the saints. These people who lived holy lives on earth are now closely united to Christ in heaven. They can support the church by their prayers. They can ceaselessly plead before the Father on behalf of the souls on earth.

The communion of saints refers to the fraternal unity of these saints in heaven to Christ so that the whole church may be strengthened (Catechism of the Catholic Church 957). Just like the Christian community on earth can build up each other closer to the Lord, the communion of the saints in heaven joins our prayers to Christ, the source and summit of all grace, uniting all people to God.

Therefore, the saints that were ordinary people who lived God's will in their lives are now building up the kingdom of God in heaven. They are witnesses of the power of Christ that holiness is possible for everyone. Their examples show that all are called to holiness, that all can be saints, and that even here at St. Henry's parish, we are called to be saints! There are thousands of souls and saints that have shown us the ways to holiness in Christ Jesus. That is why we celebrated the solemnity of All Saints this past week. I encourage you to meet a new saint this week. Ask him or her to bring you closer to their communion with God in heaven. And keep praying and walking with the saints, that one day we may all be in that number in heaven.

Fr. Levi Thompson.

¿Quieres ser santo?

"¡Oh, cuando los santos! ¡Oh, cuando los santos entran marchando! ¡Oh, cómo quiero estar en ese número! ¡Oh, cuando los santos entran marchando!"

¿Quieres ser santo? ¿Crees que puedes ser un santo? La comunión de los santos es un don de nuestra fe católica. Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a estar en ese número de santos.

Los santos eran personas normales. Llevaban una vida normal y realizaban trabajos y actividades normales. Incluso eran pecadores también, pero pecadores arrepentidos. Todos eran dóciles y atentos a la voz de Dios. A través de esta docilidad, sus actividades normales se transformaron en actividades santas.

Hace unos años, visité la tumba de Santa Teresa de Lisieux en Francia. Estaba orando, acerca de cómo ella derrama el amor de Dios por medio de rosas, y cuán cerca de Cristo está en el cielo. Pero luego me di cuenta de que ella no es Dios y, por lo tanto, no puede leer mi mente. Así que me presenté a ella en mi oración; ¿Y si le gustaría conocerme? ¿Qué pasaría si, al igual que en nuestras relaciones y amistades en la tierra, pudiéramos formar amistades celestiales con los santos al pedirles ayuda y oraciones?

Entonces le pedí que trajera mis pequeñas oraciones ante el trono de Dios en el cielo. Y sentí que ella realmente escuchó mi oración. Esto se conoce como intercesión de los santos. Estas personas que vivieron vidas santas en la tierra ahora están estrechamente unidas a Cristo en el cielo. Pueden apoyar a la iglesia con sus oraciones. Pueden suplicar incesantemente ante el Padre en nombre de las almas de la tierra.

La comunión de los santos se refiere a la unidad fraterna de estos santos en el cielo con Cristo para que toda la Iglesia se fortalezca (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica 957). Al igual que la comunidad cristiana en la tierra puede edificarse mutuamente más cerca del Señor, la comunión de los santos en el cielo une nuestras oraciones a Cristo, la fuente y la cumbre de toda gracia, uniendo a todas las personas con Dios.

Por lo tanto, los santos que eran personas comunes que vivieron la voluntad de Dios en sus vidas, ahora están edificando el reino de Dios en el cielo. Son testigos del poder de Cristo de que la santidad es posible para todos. Sus ejemplos muestran que todos están llamados a la santidad, que todos pueden ser santos, y que incluso aquí en la parroquia de St. Henry, ¡estamos llamados a ser santos!

Hay miles de almas y santos que nos han mostrado los caminos a la santidad en Cristo Jesús. Por eso celebramos la solemnidad de Todos los Santos la semana pasada. Te animo a que conozcas a un nuevo santo esta semana. Pídele que te acerque a su comunión con Dios en el cielo. Y sigan orando y caminando con los santos, para que un día todos podamos estar en ese número en el cielo.

Padre Levi Thompson.
