The Seventeenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

From Father Zywan

Moving Forward – A Parish Update

Covid-19 Safety Team

In accord with diocesan policy, a Covid-19 Safety Team has been formed to learn, help put into place, and remain up-to-date regarding safety protocol established by state and Church officials in response to the pandemic. This group is made-up of parishioners who serve as greeters/ushers at the four worship sites, parish staff members, and medical professionals who are already familiar with what is being asked of us.

Some of the requirements have already been met at our churches, while others need to be introduced and implemented. We, as parish leaders, need to instruct our people on these best practices and requirements. It is my sincere hope that in a few weeks, we will be in a position to open all four of the churches for Sunday Mass in our parish. Praise God! It will entail a limited interim schedule until further notice. I trust you will see the glass as "half full" in recognizing the blessings that are ours in having the opportunity to come together, gather as a community of faith, and receive Jesus in the most Holy Eucharist. Forget about "what is convenient for me" and appreciate the new day that is ours. As always, stay close and keep your focus on Jesus.

Interim Pastoral and Finance Councils Convene

I am not sure when the last time members of the Pastoral and Finance Councils of the four former parishes of our grouping met. I have asked the membership of these advisory groups to meet with me next week in order to bring me up-to-date on where they have been as far as assisting former pastors, most recently Father Bob Cedolia and administrator Pro-tem, Father Cain, in advancing the mission of Jesus.

At some point later this Summer, I will be tasked with forming one new parish Pastoral Council and one new Finance Council to assist me and together set our hands to the plow and grow the Church. As members of Triumph of the Holy Cross Parish, you will be invited to participate in a parish-wide survey that will be helpful to me in recognizing the strengths of our community and identify our weaknesses, so that together, a vision for our new parish may begin to be formed.

I remain grateful to Father Bill and Father Ken, my predecessors, the parish staff, and you, the faithful for remaining committed to loving God and serving His people in public and countless private ways. In the spirit of the Holy Cross, let us continue to pray and work together in love of Jesus and furthering the kingdom.

God bless ...

In Jesus' love, Fr. Zywan

GOSPEL MEDITATION
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A single mother who has a child with special needs works two jobs and sacrifices much of her own pleasures in order to be available for her son. Being the best mother possible is important to her and brings her joy. We are willing to make great and often heroic sacrifices for those people and things that matter most to us. Unless there is something of obvious importance to us in our immediate path, we can easily approach life in a more haphazard and chaotic way. We jump from one thing to another, responding to whatever it is that is competing for our attention at that moment. When everything is important, nothing is important.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything, so that it can be obtained. Based on where I invest my time and energy each day, I really wonder whether I am serving God's kingdom or my own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following that timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside.

MASS SCHEDULE DURING COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS

Our public celebration of the Mass this weekend:
Saturday, July 25 at 4:00PM and
Sunday, July 26 at 9:00AM

Both Masses are celebrated at Saint Thomas à Becket in the Church.

The Saturday anticipated Mass is broadcast on YouTube at 6:00PM and available to view at any time afterwards.

Weekday Masses are at Saint Thomas à Becket from Monday through Friday at 8:00AM in the Church and available for viewing at home at 9:00AM.

Scheduling Mass Intentions ...

All Mass intentions that were scheduled in our four churches through July 1, 2020 were fulfilled by our priests. Until the coronavirus allows us to get back to a regular schedule using all four churches, we will continue to follow the schedule we have with daily and weekend Masses at Saint Thomas à Becket.

We have opened the Mass Book of Triumph of the Holy Cross Parish for you to schedule Masses for a specific date, but NOT A SPECIFIC CHURCH, from now until Dec. 31, 2020. ALL MASSES MUST BE SCHEDULED BY CALLING LYNETTE BALDWIN at 412-655-2885.

You may schedule one weekend Mass and two daily masses per family. The Masses will be said on the day you request either at the scheduled Mass or by one of our priests who will concelebrate or say mass privately. The Mass Book for 2021 will be opened sometime around November. Please look for further notice.

On the listing of Masses being said by each of our priests, there will be an asterisk next to the one that is being said publicly each weekday. So if you requested that intention, you may want to be present for that Mass at Saint Thomas à Becket Church. All Saturday and Sunday Mass Intentions are said by the concelebrating priests in church.

KEEP IN MIND THAT THIS WHOLE SCENARIO MAY CHANGE FROM WEEK TO WEEK AS WE MIGHT BE ABLE TO OPEN ANOTHER CHURCH(ES). Please pray that this may happen in the near future.

Since there are many dates open from now until December 31, 2020, there may be times when we have to fill in an intention from our book of reserve masses. This might mean seeing the same name appearing a number of times. Please be aware that that family has not been given more than the allotted number of masses that can be scheduled. Please be patient as we move forward!

USHERS AND GREETERS NEEDED!

The first Covid-19 Safety Team meeting was held on Tuesday evening, July 21. The purpose of this team is to: 1) be informed and educated as to the specific requirements and protocol outlined in the diocesan Moving Forward Together Reopening Guide; 2) develop a plan to ensure that these guidelines are being carried out; 3) remain up to date on any diocesan protocol changes related to CDC and EPA safety guidelines, which will be implemented and communicated to parishioners.

During our meeting, we determined that we are in need of more ushers and greeters, who will also sign-in those attending Mass. As we move forward in planning to reopen the other churches, this will be an essential part of the plan.
In next week's bulletin, we will have a sign-up for volunteers.

Thank you for your patience and remember we are in this together as the Body of Christ.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

What are you willing to give for the sake of the kingdom of God? Often, we begin a discussion like this with a story or a few leading thoughts. However, if we are to be serious about who we claim to be as Christians, there should be no beating around the bush. The question is not only important for each of us and our relationship with our God, but it should be important for the relationship each of us has with the entire Body of Christ. Like any good team or family, I need you to have my back, and I need to have yours. If one of us is going to lay it on the line and be all in for our faith, then we all need to be as well.

If only all the Christians of the world felt the same way. In some parts of the world, Christians are still being martyred for their faith. Others must worship underground and avoid the government-led police. Then there are those who seem to take faith for granted, and because little is asked by their friends or parish, they give nothing. It is quite a contrast of situations.

On this day, it may seem like little is being asked of you and I by God. Is that because we aren't being asked or because we aren't listening? If you are counting on me and I am on you, we should figure this out sooner than later. Of course, I suspect we actually do know the answer, don't we? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
