SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME

THE PARABLE OF THE TENANTS

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes.

St. Isidore Parish
429 Great Rd. Stow, MA 01775

We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

Social Justice Ministry Corner

This fall marks the 6th year of the AVCC Social Justice Ministry! With our loyal group, we've strived to build our understanding of Catholic Social Teaching, focusing each year on one of the 7 themes of CST. This year, we're ready to introduce the important theme of Life & Dignity of the Human Person.

We'll be offering a variety of activities throughout the ministry year to help us examine how all human life is sacred--in all stages and circumstances, within the context of God's creation. As Genesis teaches, we are, one and all, made in the image and likeness of God, and made for relationship with God. From the Gospels we learn that loving one another flows forth from our love of God, who first loved us and who extends us his grace when we fall short. How will our activities help us flesh out this important and complex theme in teaching, prayer, and action? We're inviting a special guest speaker to teach us about the Consistent Ethic of Life, a distinctly Catholic way to view and express the importance of all facets of human life in civic society. We're planning a unique Mass for and with persons with disabilities and special needs. To explore the history of Catholic Social Teaching, we'll host a fun workshop about our new Pope, Leo XIV, and his namesake, Pope Leo XIII. A prayer service for world peace, our ongoing partnership with our refugee family, and family-friendly tips for teaching little ones about how we can love others as Jesus did--these will round out our year.

Curious? Please stay tuned for more information about our events and activities, coming shortly. Want to help? Email socialjustice@avcatholic.org All are welcome!

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 5, 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear a short but powerful plea from the disciples: "Increase our faith." These are words we might find rising in our own hearts when life feels uncertain, when prayers seem unanswered, when we face challenges bigger than ourselves. The disciples knew that following Jesus would require more trust than they could muster on their own. So, they turned to the only One who could give what they lacked.

Jesus' answer might surprise us: "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." A mustard seed is tiny – almost invisible in the palm of your hand. Yet Jesus says that even the smallest spark of true faith has the power to move what seems immovable.

Faith is not about how much we have; it's about who we place it in. We sometimes imagine faith as something we must "build up" on our own, as if we could measure it by feelings or achievements. But real faith is a relationship of trust leaning on God's strength, not ours. It's choosing to believe that God is present, good, and at work even when life is confusing or hard.

So, what does it mean to ask Jesus to "increase our faith" today? It's inviting Him deeper into our ordinary lives:

- When we worry about a loved one's health, we whisper, "Lord, I trust You with this."
- When we face decisions or conflicts, we pray, "Jesus, guide me and give me courage."
- When we see suffering or injustice, we respond with love and hope, believing that God can work through us to bring healing.

Faith is not something we wait to "feel." It is something we choose and practice, step by step showing up to pray, forgiving, serving, and loving. And the more we practice, the more our faith grows, often quietly, like that tiny seed becoming a strong tree.

This week, I invite each of us to pray this prayer. Not a vague wish, but a conscious opening of our hearts to the One who can strengthen us.

Prayer for Increased Faith

Lord Jesus, increase my faith.

When I am uncertain, give me trust in Your plan.

When I am discouraged, remind me that even a mustard seed of faith can move mountains.

When I struggle to love or forgive, strengthen my heart with Your mercy.

Plant in me a faith that grows deep and steady – a faith that bears fruit in my words and actions.

May I follow You with courage and hope, believing that You are with me always.

With you in prayer and hope,

Thank You

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake; but bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." ~ 2 Timothy 1: 7-8

Jesus Christ seeks to be in relationship with each and everyone one of us. To encounter Jesus is to experience his love in a meaningful and life transforming way. Your support of our parishes is a reflection of your faith that Jesus Christ is Lord, and your desire that our generation and following generations come to know this. Our faith in action is life changing for ourselves and for those who encounter us. Thank You for your continued engagement and support!
