We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said “Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

November ~ The Month of All Souls

Throughout November all are invited to write the names of deceased family members and friends in our Book of the Names of the Dead and place their pictures on the wall in the St. Elizabeth or St. Isidore Alcove. Please write your loved one's name on the back of the picture before placing it on the wall. At the end of November, you may either leave the picture with us to keep for next year or arrange to pick it up after Mass on one of the following weekends.

During this month we invite everyone to please make time to stop and read the names in the Book, look at the pictures in the Alcove, and say a prayer for those who have gone before us in faith.

Did you notice the stairs at St. Elizabeth this past weekend? We had the cracks repaired and the stairs re-skinned before the winter frost settles in.

All Souls Day

Dear Parish Family,

Each year on November 2nd, the Church pauses to celebrate the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, more commonly known as All Souls Day. It follows immediately after All Saints Day—and together, these two feasts remind us of a beautiful truth at the heart of our faith: that we are all united in the Communion of Saints—the Church on earth, the souls being purified in Purgatory, and the saints in Heaven.

On All Souls Day, we turn our hearts to those who have gone before us, our parents and grandparents, spouses, siblings, children, friends, and all who have touched our lives. We remember them not in sorrow alone, but in hope—the hope that flows from the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Jesus once said, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live.” (John 11:25) Those words are not just for Martha and Mary at the tomb of Lazarus; they are for each one of us. They tell us that death does not have the final word. Through Christ, life is changed, not ended.

All Souls Day gives us a chance to renew our love for those who have died and to entrust them once more to the mercy of God. The prayers we offer for them—at Mass, in the Rosary, in quiet moments of remembrance are powerful acts of love. The Church teaches that our prayers assist the souls of the faithful departed as they are purified and prepared to see God face-to-face. In turn, these souls, now close to the heart of God, pray for us. This beautiful exchange of love is what binds the living and the dead together in the mystery of faith.

For many of us, this day can stir tender memories. We think of empty chairs at our family tables, familiar voices now silent, and the ache of absence. But faith reminds us that love endures. Every tear we shed is seen by God, and every prayer whispered for a loved one draws us closer to that eternal reunion we long for.

So, as we gather this weekend and in the coming days, let us hold fast to the promise that in Christ, all are alive. Let us pray for our beloved dead with confidence and gratitude, trusting that God’s mercy is greater than we can ever imagine.

May this All-Souls Day bring peace to those who grieve, hope to those who wait, and the assurance that the bonds of love we share are never broken.

With prayer and remembrance,
Fr. Jeff
