We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

November - The Month of All Souls

Throughout November all are invited to write the names of deceased family members and friends in our Book of the Names of the Dead and place their pictures on the wall in the St. Elizabeth or St. Isidore Alcove. Please write your loved one's name on the back of the picture before placing it on the wall. At the end of November, you may either leave the picture with us to keep for next year or arrange to pick it up after Mass on one of the following weekends.

During this month we invite everyone to please make time to stop and read the names in the Book, look at the pictures in the Alcove, and say a prayer for those who have gone before us in faith.

Trivia Night at St Isidore

There will be a second collection on Nov 15-16 to benefit relief efforts to those areas hit by Hurricane Melissa.

Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - November 9, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Sunday's Gospel (John 2:13-22), Jesus offers a bold and puzzling statement: "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." Those who heard Him were confused. They thought only of the massive stone structure in Jerusalem—a building that took decades to construct. But Jesus was speaking of something far greater: the temple of His Body.

Jesus is revealing a profound truth: God's dwelling place is no longer confined to a building of stone. In Jesus, God dwells personally, fully, and visibly. Through His passion, death, and resurrection those, "three days", Jesus becomes the new and everlasting temple where humanity encounters God's mercy.

This means that our faith is not centered on walls, marble, or brick. Our buildings are sacred because they point us toward Jesus, but they are not God Himself. The true temple is Jesus. In Him, heaven and earth are joined. In Him, sacrifice and salvation meet. And through Baptism, we become members of His Body, temples of the Holy Spirit.

When the disciples witnessed the Resurrection, everything suddenly made sense. The Scriptures came alive. Their belief was strengthened. So too, when we reflect on the risen Christ, our faith deepens. We come to see that God is not distant or abstract—He dwells among us, walks with us, and desires to live within our hearts.

This Gospel invites us to ask:

- Do I welcome Jesus into the "temple" of my heart?
- Are there areas within me that need cleansing, healing, or renewal?
- Do I trust in the power of the Resurrection to transform my life?

Jesus overturns the tables of anything that keeps us from God doubt, hopelessness, and discouragement and rebuilds what is broken. The renovation He desires is interior: deeper faith, purer love, renewed hope.

As we continue to gather as a parish community, may we never forget that our worship is not simply about a building, but about encountering the living Christ who rises within us. Let us allow Him to cleanse our hearts, strengthen our faith, and rebuild our lives each day.

Be assured of my prayers for you and your families.

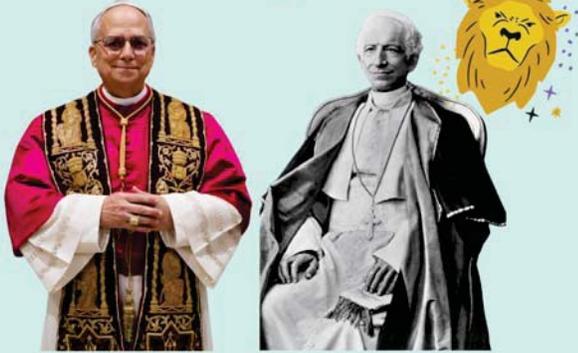

With peace in Christ,

-Fr. Jeff

Parish Finance Update

We are deeply grateful for your continued support of our parishes. Your generosity sustains our mission and allows us to serve our faith communities each day.

In the spirit of transparency, we believe it's important for you to know how your donation dollars are being used. Beginning this month, we'll share a monthly update highlighting a specific expense. This will give you a clearer picture of how your contributions make a difference and the scale of the costs we manage throughout the year.

Unless otherwise noted, the expenses referenced will come from our most recent fiscal year. The Archdiocese fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30; Fiscal Year (FY) 2025 covered the period from July 1, 2024, through June 30, 2025.

As we enter the heating season, here's a look at our FY2025 heating costs:

- St. Elizabeth Parish: $12,646 for heating the Church, Parish Center, and Residence (an average of $1,054 per month)
- St. Isidore Parish: $9,255 for heating the Church and Rectory (an average of $771 per month)

Thank you again for your faithful and generous support. Your contributions truly help keep our parishes warm—both physically and spiritually.
