Apple Valley Catholic Community Two Parishes - One Mission

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."

John 1:29

St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish
89 Arlington St. Acton, MA 01720

St. Isidore Parish
429 Great Rd. Stow, MA 01775

We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

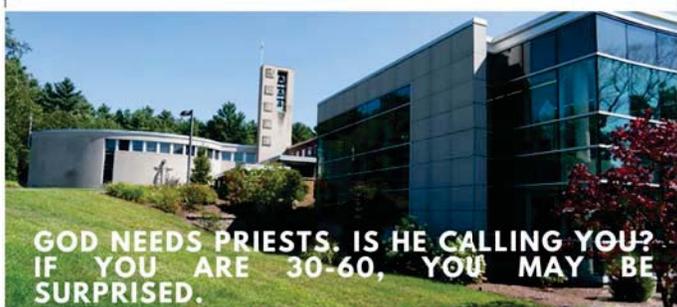

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time- January 18, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Gospel places before us one of the most powerful and surprising proclamations in all of Scripture. John the Baptist looks at Jesus and says, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.”

John does not say, “Behold the King,” or “Behold the powerful one,”. He says, “Behold the Lamb.” From the very beginning of Jesus’ public ministry, God reveals that salvation will not come through domination, force, or fear—but through humility, sacrifice, and love.

This tells us something essential about who God is. God does not stand at a distance from human pain, brokenness, or sin. God steps into it. In Jesus, God chooses closeness over control, mercy over might, love over power. The Lamb of God reveals a God who would rather suffer with us than rule over us from afar.

This Gospel speaks directly to our world today. We live in a culture that often prizes strength, influence, winning, and being right. We are taught, sometimes subtly, sometimes loudly, that power solves problems. Yet the Gospel reminds us that the deepest wounds of the human heart are not healed by force, but by love. Divisions are not mended by shouting louder, but by listening more deeply. Healing comes not through domination, but through compassion.

To behold the Lamb of God is to be invited to see power differently. It is to believe that kindness sin of the world not by crushing sinners, but by carrying the weight of our brokenness upon Himself.

This is also a deeply personal invitation. Each time we come to Mass and hear the words, “Behold the Lamb of God,” we are being asked not only to look at Christ, but to trust Him. To trust that He meets us in our weakness. To trust that no failure, no burden, no wound is beyond His redeeming love. To trust that God’s way, even when it seems gentle or slow, is the way that truly saves.

Ordinary Time reminds us that this Lamb walks with us in the ordinary moments of life: in family life, in our work, in our struggles, in our hopes. Discipleship means learning, day by day, to live with the heart of the Lamb.

As we continue this season, may we truly behold the Lamb of God, not just with our eyes, but with our lives. And may the way we love, serve, and forgive quietly point others to Him, who alone takes away the sin of the world.

With prayers and blessings,

Fr. Jeff

The AVCC Social Justice Ministry invites our community to join in two special January events during our holistic year of Life and Dignity of the Human Person.

Prayer Service for Peace through Justice

On Sunday January 25 at 6 pm, we invite you to join us for our Prayer Service for Peace through Justice. God's love not only gives us the amazing gift of life, but also the gift of life to the fullest in the Kingdom of God (John 10:10). In our conflict-driven world, peace most often seems defined as the absence of war, but God desires more than that for us.

In Christ, God desires for us love of neighbor, freedom, justice, and flourishing—the things that make for peace (Luke 19:42). God also invites our engagement as peacebuilders: as Pope Leo expressed this January 1, the World Day of Peace, “this is the peace of the risen Christ – a peace that is unarmed and disarming, humble and persevering. It comes from God who loves us all unconditionally.” This month's Sunday evening prayer service will feature inspiration from Catholic Social Teaching on peacebuilding, prayer with our Youth Ministry team, worship, music, a special message from Fr. Jeff, and an opportunity for prayerful reflection on putting faith into action. Please join us in prayer and practice for peace in our world on Sunday January 25 at 6 pm, at St. Elizabeth's!

Jesus Christ seeks to be in relationship with each and everyone one of us. To encounter Jesus is to experience his love in a meaningful and life transforming way. Your support of our parishes is a reflection of your faith that Jesus Christ is Lord, and your desire that our generation and following generations come to know this. Our faith in action is life changing for ourselves and for those who encounter us. Thank You for your continued engagement and support!
