St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish
89 Arlington St. Acton, MA 01720

St. Isidore Parish
429 Great Rd. Stow, MA 01775

We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

God of Hope,

You journey with us through the desert. You challenge us to become more like Christ. During this Lenten season, may our prayers, fasting and almsgiving give us the courage to go forth and share our gifts with the world. May our encounter with you allow us to bring hope to our global family.

Amen

Forgiveness, Not Judgment

Many people hesitate to go to Confession because they fear judgment. Yet the heart of Reconciliation is not condemnation—it is mercy. God already knows our sins, our struggles, and our wounds, and He loves us still. In this sacrament, we do not meet an angry God, but a loving Father who runs to meet His children. Confession is a place of honesty and grace, where God’s mercy is always greater than our sin and His desire to forgive is stronger than our fear.

Second Sunday of Lent-March 1, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

In this Sunday's Gospel, we are taken with Peter, James, and John up the mountain to witness the Transfiguration of Jesus. There, in a moment of breathtaking grace, they see Jesus revealed in His glory. Overwhelmed by what he is experiencing, Peter says, "Lord, it is good that we are here." He wants to stay. He wants to build tents. He wants to hold on to that holy moment forever.

Who among us has not felt that way at times? Perhaps in prayer, at Mass, on retreat, or in a moment of deep peace, we sense God's closeness and think, "I wish this could last." We want to remain in those moments when faith feels strong and life feels clear. Like Peter, we want to set up our tents and stay where it feels safe, holy, and certain.

But Jesus does not allow the disciples to remain on the mountain. The Transfiguration was not meant to be an escape from life, but a preparation for it. Very soon, Jesus will lead them down the mountain and toward Jerusalem, the Cross, and ultimately the Resurrection. This moment of glory was meant to strengthen them for the journey ahead.

Then, from the bright cloud, comes the voice of the Father: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." These words are at the heart of our Lenten journey.

To "listen to Him" means more than simply hearing Jesus' words. It means allowing His voice to echo in our hearts long after Mass has ended. It means carrying His wisdom into our worries, our conversations, and our decisions, and letting His presence quietly guide our steps.

Lent invites us to climb the mountain with Jesus through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. We seek moments of renewal and grace. But Lent also reminds us that faith is lived in daily life, in our homes, workplaces, schools, and relationships. We cannot remain on the mountain. We are sent back into the world, strengthened by Christ's presence, to carry His light to others.

When Peter said, "Lord, it is good that we are here," he spoke a truth we all share. It is good to be with Jesus. It is good to be in His presence. It is good to belong to Him. And the beautiful truth is this: we do not need to build tents to remain with Him. Jesus walks with us down the mountain and into every part of our lives.

May this season of Lent help us listen more closely to Christ, trust Him more deeply, and follow Him more faithfully—wherever He leads.

Be assured of my prayers for you and your families.

May God bless you abundantly,
-Fr. Jeff

Thank You

Jesus Christ seeks to be in relationship with each and everyone one of us. To encounter Jesus is to experience his love in a meaningful and life transforming way. Your support of our parishes is a reflection of your faith that Jesus Christ is Lord, and your desire that our generation and following generations come to know this. Our faith in action is life changing for ourselves and for those who encounter us. Thank You for your continued engagement and support!
