Apple Valley Catholic Community Two Parishes - One Mission

5th SUNDAY
OF LENT

"But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness." (Rom 8:10)

St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish
89 Arlington St. Acton, MA 01720

St. Isidore Parish
429 Great Rd. Stow, MA 01775

We Welcome YOU!

At the Apple Valley Catholic Community, we live out the commandment Jesus gave to His disciples when He said "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34). We live this commandment by acknowledging we are all, in one way or another, our sister's and brother's keepers.

We affirm the dignity and worth of each person regardless of your race, nationality or ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, age, socioeconomic class, married, single, divorced, Mass attendance, or anything else. We affirm that we are all God's children and part of the one family of God and that means We Welcome YOU.

Reconciliation and the Journey of Conversion

Confession is not meant to be a once-a-year obligation, but a regular part of our spiritual life. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we grow in self-awareness, humility, and trust in God. Reconciliation helps us recognize patterns in our lives and invites us to ongoing conversion, small, faithful steps toward becoming the people God calls us to be. It reminds us that holiness is not perfection, but a willingness to keep turning back to God.

Confession Schedule for Lent 2026

Every Sat. afternoon: 4:00p-4:45 – St. Elizabeth

Every 1st Wed. of the Month – 4:00p-6:00p – St. Isidore

*No Confessions on Wednesday April 1 OR Holy Saturday April 4

Catholic Appeal - How Your Gift Helps

Parish & Operational Support-
Helping our parishes do what they do best.

Nearly half of the funding received through the Catholic Appeal helps the Central Ministries of the Archdiocese support our parishes and ensure the Church in Greater Boston remains vibrant. This includes serving our 250 parishes, from offering support for wide-ranging operational needs to assisting with property damage and other maintenance. Below are a few examples:

RISK MANAGEMENT: offers constant pandemic updates, comprehensive guidance, and helpful advice so that parishes can ensure the safety of their parishioners, students, and communities.

HUMAN RESOURCES: assists parishes in finding and hiring employees, ensuring workplace accountability, and other employment consultation services.

HEALTH CARE ETHICS: provides expert guidance, support, and advice in regards to healthcare, safety, and best practices, especially during the pandemic.

Your support of the Catholic Appeal ensures there is always a team of experts to guide and assist our parishes so that they can continue helping us all live our faith together and serving those in need throughout our communities.

Fifth Sunday of Lent-March 22, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

As we draw closer to Holy Week, the Church places before us one of the most powerful moments in all of the Gospels: the raising of Lazarus. At the heart of this story is a deeply personal and moving conversation between Jesus and Martha, the sister of Lazarus.

Martha approaches Jesus carrying the weight of grief that so many of us know. She says to Him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” In those words, we hear both sorrow and faith. Martha is grieving the loss of someone she loves, yet even in the midst of her grief she still turns toward Jesus. She continues, “But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.”

Many of us have stood where Martha stood. We have experienced the pain of losing someone dear to us, a spouse, a parent, a sibling, a friend. In moments of loss, questions arise in our hearts: Why now? Why did this happen? Where is God in this? Martha gives voice to the very emotions that live within us. Her words remind us that faith does not mean the absence of grief. Rather, faith allows us to bring our grief honestly before the Lord.

Jesus responds to Martha with a statement that changes everything: “Your brother will rise.” Martha believes in the traditional Jewish teaching of the resurrection at the end of time, and she says, “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.”

Then Jesus reveals something extraordinary. He says to her: “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.”

With these words, Jesus is not simply speaking about something that will happen someday. He is revealing who He is. Resurrection is not just an event in the future, it is found in Him. Life itself flows from Him.

This exchange between Jesus and Martha gives us one of the clearest promises of our Catholic/Christian faith. Death is not the final word. Because of Jesus Christ, death has been transformed. Death becomes the doorway to eternal life.

This promise is not only about Lazarus. It is about every one of us. It is about our loved ones who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. When we stand beside a grave, when we pray at a funeral Mass, when we remember those we love who have died, we hold onto the very words Jesus spoke to Martha. Our loved ones are not lost forever. Through Christ, they are called to life.

Fifth Sunday of Lent-March 22, 2026

The conversation concludes with a question that Jesus asks Martha, but in truth it is a question He asks each one of us: “Do you believe this?” Martha’s response is one of the most beautiful professions of faith in the entire Gospel: “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God.”

As we continue our Lenten journey toward Easter, this same question echoes in our own hearts. Do we believe that Jesus is truly the resurrection and the life? Do we trust that the love of God is stronger than death?

In just a few weeks, we will gather to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus. The empty tomb will remind us that the promise spoken to Martha is true. Christ has conquered death, and through Him eternal life is offered to all who believe.

May the words of Jesus bring comfort to every heart that carries the memory of someone they love. And may we, like Martha, place our trust fully in Christ, the one who is our resurrection and our life.

With prayer and gratitude,
Fr. Jeff

ALPHA SERIES

The Apple Valley Catholic Collaborative is looking forward to hosting a seven-week Alpha series during the upcoming Easter Season.

If you, or someone you know is curious about Christianity, been away from church for years, no faith experience, or currently attending OCIA, the Alpha series is the place to start. Each week, members of the Alpha team and guests are served a complimentary dinner before they watch a video that explains the basic Christian faith. Following the video, Guests then have the opportunity to express their opinions, thoughts, ask questions, etc., in a safe environment. Alpha is a nondenominational series of talks, and everyone is welcome.

Check out the “come and see” session on Thursday evening, April 9. There is no commitment, but registration is required for dinner. The video begins at 7 PM.

Register: avcatholic.org/alpha
Date/Time: 7 Consecutive Thursdays:
Thursday, April 9 – Thursday, April 21
6:30 PM – 8:30 PM
St. Isidore’s Rectory, 429 Great Rd, Stow

Fundraiser Results

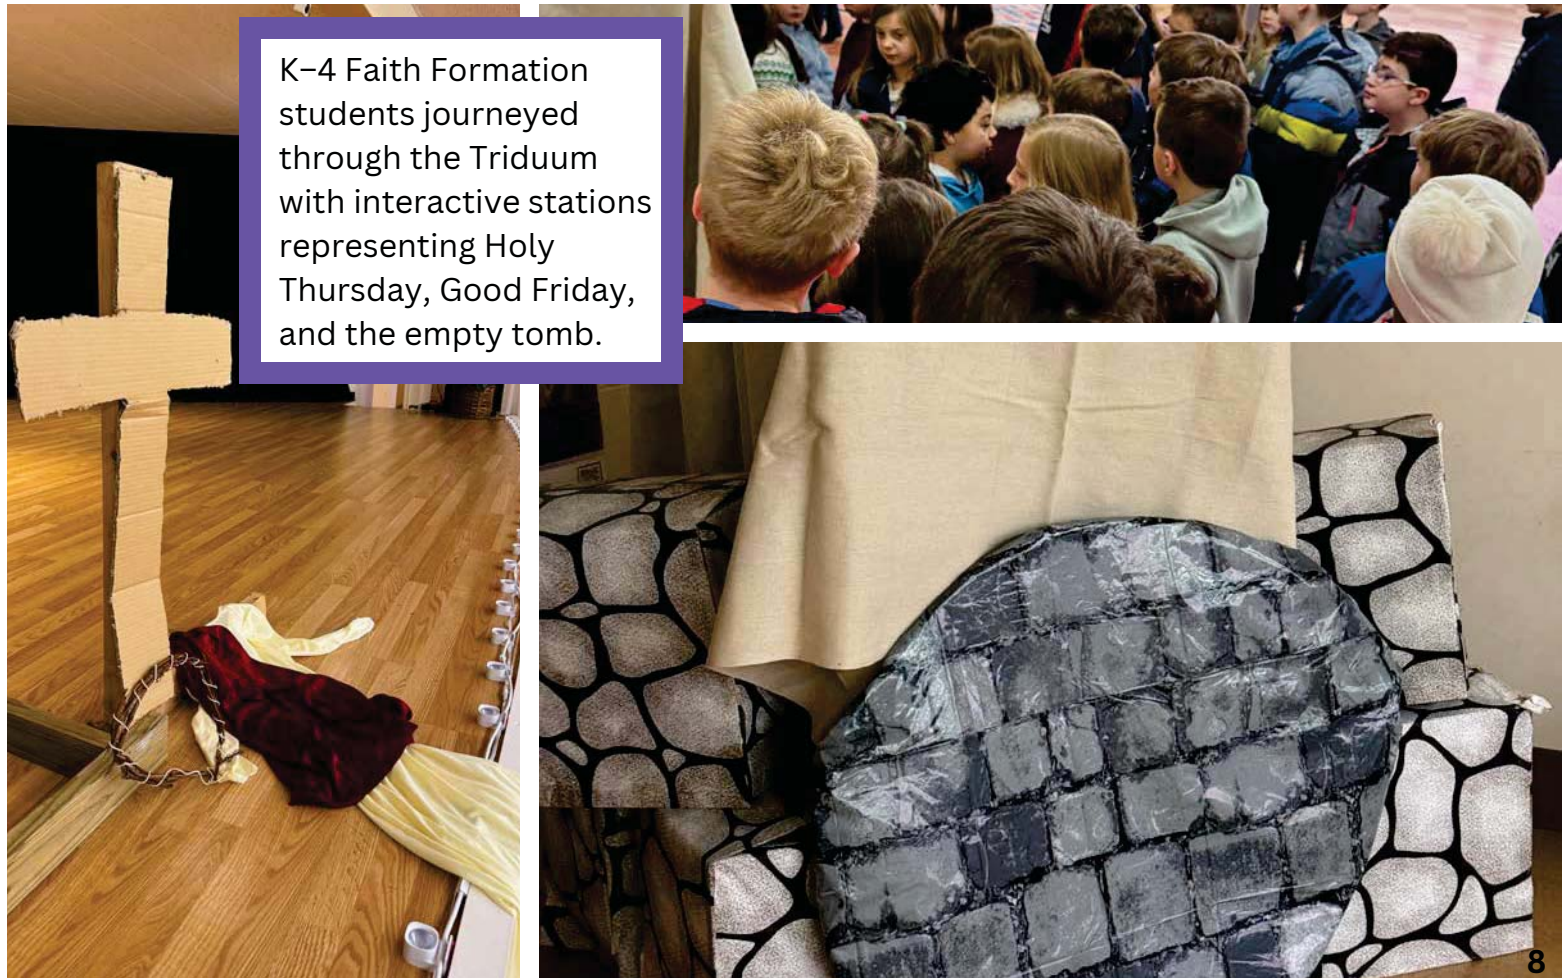

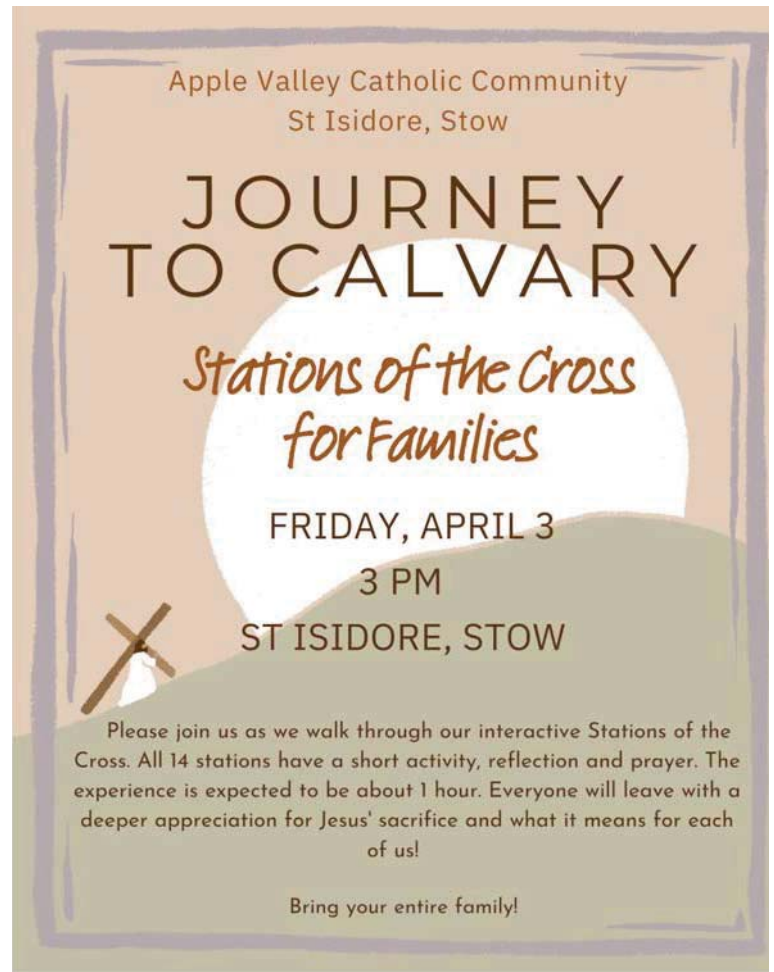

On Saturday evening, February 7, 2026, our community gathered for a wonderful evening in support of Household Goods. More than 75 people joined us for Trivia Night, and it proved to be a joyful event filled with friendly competition, great food, great music and plenty of laughter.

I am pleased to share that together we raised $2,168 for Household Goods' Fund a Bed and More program. Because of your generosity, 27 children will receive a new mattress.

On behalf of those children and their families, thank you to everyone who attended and contributed to this meaningful cause. A special word of gratitude also goes to the many volunteers whose time and effort helped make this fundraiser such a success.

Thank You

Jesus Christ seeks to be in relationship with each and everyone one of us. To encounter Jesus is to experience his love in a meaningful and life transforming way. Your support of our parishes is a reflection of your faith that Jesus Christ is Lord, and your desire that our generation and following generations come to know this. Our faith in action is life changing for ourselves and for those who encounter us. Thank You for your continued engagement and support!
