PASTORAL COUNCIL ELECTION RESULTS

We would like to welcome these dedicated parishioners to the Pastoral Council.

Anthony Coniglio: Anthony is an active parishioner of AOL Church and is married to Rachel, a Perpetual Adoration Adorer. He is a very active member of the Bereavement Ministry, St. Joseph Altar, Christmas Remembrance Mass and reception, and other Church parish activities and events. He is an usher when needed and is always willing to help.

Michael L. Layton: Michael is an active parishioner of AOL Church and is married to Gwen. They are both committed Adoration Adorers. Michael is retired from Waterford 3. He is an usher at Mass, an RSVP volunteer, active Trustee in the Knights of Columbus Council 9623, and Fourth Degree Member. He also helps in various ministries of our parish.

Darlene McDonald: Darlene has accepted to serve another two-year term on the Pastoral Council. She is also a committed Adoration Adorer with her husband Bob. We appreciated her service on the Council and involvement in other parish activities.

ASCENSION OF OUR LORD CATHOLIC CHURCH

NOVEMBER 10, 2019
32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He is not God of the dead, but of the living."
Luke 20:27-38

Are you afraid of dying? Death should not instill fear to those who believe in a loving and just God. After all, death does not exist in heaven. Jesus points that out in today's gospel. The Sadducees do not believe in a resurrection. So they use an argument meant to ridicule the notion of a life after death. What happens to a woman married seven times on earth to seven men who have died? When she dies who will she be married to in heaven?

Jesus rebukes their argument by showing that the reason people get married on earth is to have children in order to procreate the species. Why? Because we die. We need to keep bringing new life into the world because all life will die. On the other hand in heaven there is no death. We live forever in the presence of God. Therefore, no one needs to marry and procreate. Likewise Jesus uses a Scripture passage to point out that those who have died and were holy in God's eyes, continue to live after they die to this world. God is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, these men who are dead to this world are still alive in the heaven.

While all of us will face mortal death, those who have chosen to follow Christ as His disciples will see eternal life with God in heaven. The only death that last forever comes when we allow mortal sin to rule our lives on earth. Christ offers eternal life to all those who follow Him on earth. Do our lives reflect that commitment?

Fr. Walter Austin

Thanksgiving Day Is Coming!

Thanksgiving will be here before you know it, and you will soon be saying, "Pass me the mashed potatoes, please." This November holiday has its roots in American history and has grown into a day where we remember all the things for which we are thankful: country, family, friends, health, etc. Unfortunately, we can find ourselves so caught up with travel plans and buying the perfect turkey or ham that we let the day pass us by, and all we can focus on is how much we ate and who won the day's football games. That's why it is time NOW to begin reflecting daily of all things, great and small, that we are thankful for in life.

Gratitude is a key characteristic of a good Everyday Steward, but it does not develop in us without effort. In the coming days, we can contemplate all those things God has given us. If it helps, we can create a written list and bring it with us to the Thanksgiving dinner table. The point is that too often we take so many gifts for granted, and unless we pause and purposely reflect, we miss the chance to give thanks. A healthy and hearty heart filled with gratitude can make the highs in life that much higher and the lows easier to bear. Increased gratitude will also bring us closer to the source of all those good gifts, our God.

So, what will Thanksgiving be like for you this year? You have some time to make it something more than it has been in the past. The choice is yours.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
