LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Every believer wonders about what the experience of heaven will be like. Popular images of people walking around in white robes, becoming like angels, and reunions with those who have gone before us all tickle human imagination. Jesus never got too specific about what heaven actually looks like. But he assures us that it exists and that all are alive in God. Clinging to the traditions of our faith, we persevere through life's challenges confident that God's promise of eternal life will come to be. We are told that we shall become like God and see God as He is. As God has made us, He also loves us and sustains us. Desiring to be with God above all other desires gives us the hope that when we close our eyes in death, we will fall into the arms of the One who will gently bring us where we need to be. Knowing ahead of time what we find when we arrive changes little. ©LPi

National VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

What is your vocation? When I started my theology degree, one of my professors asked, "What is your vocation?" My answer, a theology student. "Wrong!" was his thunderous response. He then began to explain the difference between vocation and avocation. Basically, that which you do for a living is your avocation, and that which you ARE at the most basic level of your being is your vocation. For us as Roman Catholics, our being, that which is part of our soul, is our vocation. Sacraments change and add something to our soul. At baptism, our very being is changed so that we now belong to Christ. During the sacrament of matrimony, we are wedding to another human being. Our soul is wedded, not just our person. When a man is ordained, his soul is changed. He becomes a part of Christ in his very being.

So, if someone asks what your vocation is, a more appropriate answer might be, I'm a baptized Christian, or I'm married, or I'm a deacon or priest.

Let us pray...

Good and gracious God, we became part of you when you claimed us in baptism.

*When two of us become married,
you wed us together with you as the third person.*

*When one of us is ordained,
you implant your very being into us, a part of your holy Paschal Mystery.*

Bless all of us as we live out our vocation to you with our lives and breath.

Bless all of us also as we work in the world in our avocation

so that we may honestly live our vocation in the Church.

We ask all this in Christ's name. Amen. ©LPI

You can be like an angel because you are a child of God. You can sing songs to honor
God. You can warn people to change their evil ways, or to help people who are in danger. God promises that those who do good will see God face to face.
You can sit on his lap in his big rocking chair and laugh and laugh together. It will be fun in heaven.

PRAYER

Lord, help me obey your commandments.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will pray for those who are in danger whenever I hear a siren.

ASCENSION OF OUR LORD CATHOLIC CHURCH

DEACON MEETS WORLD

EPISODE 1

By: Deacon Julius Laurent

EVENING PRAYER

St. Ignatius of Loyola developed The Daily Examen, a technique of prayerful reflection on the events of the day in order to detect God's presence and discern his will for us. It is comprised of 5 steps.

1. Become aware of God's presence.
2. Review your day with gratitude.
3. Pray about one aspect of the day.
4. Pay attention to your emotions.
5. Look forward to tomorrow.

Of course, there is an App for this process. It's called "Reimagining the Examen." It is based on Fr. Mark Thibodeaux's book by the same title. It is free of charge and ads. It walks you through the process and even has a variety of Examen's to choose from. Try it and let me know how you like it. Please share any fruits of this prayer.

St. Joseph, Terror of Demons, pray for us.

RESPONDING TO THE CALL

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

The God of the Living

"Sic transit gloria mundi," is what they used to say at papal coronations. "So passes earthly glory." Everything is fleeting. Nothing is here to stay. But in reality, some things are forever. Our actions on earth do have the potential to reverberate in eternity.

Everyday Stewardship is a lifestyle that embraces what will last. It is being aware of how our choices and our actions can be received by God, and through His grace, amplified to showcase His glory.

Your great-grandparents were married for 60 years. Maybe they shared the greatest love anyone in your family has ever seen, and maybe they raised up a whole family of kids. But they've been gone for a generation now, and no one living remembers the softness in their eyes when they looked at each other. And to read today's Gospel, you might even get the impression that their marriage was nothing more than an earthly whim. Gone. Fleeting. Temporal.

This week's readings invite us to contemplate the question: what exactly is immortal? What lasts beyond our earthly sojourn?

The seven brothers and their mothers whose martyrdom is told this weekend in Maccabees didn't die for the letter of the law, they died for the One who gave the law. In the same way, a marriage contract does not extend into eternity, but the fruits of a sacrificial love will live forever.

Good works, devotion, gratitude, selflessness, graciousness, accountability — these are all of God. He is not God of the dead; He is God of the living — and these are the things that last an eternity.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
