LIVE THE LITURGY

- INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To live with Christ, we must die with him. But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian? We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.

Pope Leo XIV's November Prayer Intention

For the prevention of suicide

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

The 2026 Mass Intentions Book will open on November 6th.

National Vocations Awareness Week
November 2 - 8, 2025

National Vocations Awareness Week is an annual celebration of the Catholic Church that is dedicated to promoting vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer, invitation, and education. We invite you to renew your prayers and support for those who are considering vocations and to those in formation to the priesthood, diaconate, and to religious life.

Will you commit to one hour of Eucharistic Adoration between November 2nd and 8th, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., to pray for the following:

- For an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life
- For those considering a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life
- For those in formation to become priests, deacons, and religious, especially AOL parishioner, Eve Anders who is now in formation to become a Religious Sister with the Sisters of St. Francis of the Martyr St. George in Alton, Illinois.

Prayer booklets and cards will be available in the Chapel for your use.

*Thank you for your time and consideration.
God bless you!*

Sign up sheets are in the back of Church.

KC COATS FOR KIDS CAMPAIGN

Nov. 1/2 & Nov. 8/9

Coats to be donated should be brought to Church at any Mass on these two weekends. These coats will be delivered to the needy children in our community. The coats should be clean and in good condition.

PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

ADORERS ARE NEEDED!!

Our Adoration Chapel is open
24 hrs/day, 7 days/week.
To commit to an hour,
visit aolparish.org
or call the Parish Office.

“Our lives change when our habits change.
Adopting the habit of Eucharistic Adoration will change every aspect of your life. We tend to emulate the people
we spend time with.
By spending time
in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist,
we become more like Him.”

Prayer

Thanks for being my friend, Jesus.

Help her find her way to Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Remember some people who have died. Say a prayer for them.

Sharing the Gospel

When you ask Jesus to play with you, he will say, "Which game do you want to play first?" If you ask him to the movies, he will go with you. When extra people show up for his party, he will say, "Come on in, there's always room for one more." If you need to talk with him, he will say, "Sit down right now and tell me all about it." Jesus Christ will never turn you away

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE - Father John Muir

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing. ©LPi

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Semicolon

My grave is in the corner of a cemetery in rural southeastern Wisconsin. For at least a mile in every direction, all you can see is farmland — cows, barns and quiet country roads. It's beautiful, serene. I imagine the hand of God writing me into existence — she lived, she died — using for ink the very dirt that fills this grave. The dust from which I was created.

Surrounding my grave are the burial plots of other family members — Rachel, Georgiana, Julian, Josephine. I visit the cemetery to pray for them, knowing they are there, but also not there. And when I visit their graves, I stand on my own. I look out at the tree-lined horizon and the farmland. I think of how, in a thousand years, none of this will be here. But I will be here, God's hand paused against the page, preparing to write the rest of the story not in dirt but in his own blood. For Christ does not lose anything of what the Father has given him.

Not a soul. Not a bone. Not a lock of hair.

She lived, she died; she lived again. No longer is there a period after the words she died but instead a semicolon. And the semicolon is the grave, that mystical place where the Blood mixes with the dust of the earth, where life meets death, and then meets life again. And the story continues. ©LPi
