LIVE WITH JESUS: FASTING, PRAYER, ALMSGIVING

Jesus was sometimes criticized for not being too strict about fasting. But Jesus did indeed fast, and made many other less obvious sacrifices of his time and comfort. Want to think more about what Jesus is doing with us? Our Lenten renewal program, Live Jesus: Live with Jesus, Live for Jesus, Live like Jesus continues each week of Lent, from today through March 23. Join us Sundays 10:35 to 11:20, or Mondays either at 1:00 or 7:00 p.m.

We all know the Lenten basics: Catholics ages 18-59 must fast at the beginning of Lent, Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of Easter, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, as far as possible up to the Easter Vigil. Catholics over 14 years must abstain from meat on Fridays in Lent, and again on Good Friday and Holy Saturday as far as possible up to the Easter Vigil. These basic disciplines are meant to redirect us in following Jesus through self-denial, devotion, and charity. If you haven't already committed yourself to Lenten sacrifices, consider these:

- Give up your favorite food, or condiments/salt/sugar/ketchup/milk, or ice.
- Set yourself a strict bedtime. Take only cool or cold showers. Don't use mirrors.
- Use your least favorite household chairs. Away from home, take the least popular seats and parking places.
- Give up television, either for all of Lent or for certain days. Don't use the car radio.
- Set aside time for spiritual or educational reading.
- Use the internet only for specific purposes; don't surf.
- Set smaller budget limits for groceries or other expenses.
- Don't talk about yourself. Take care to ask questions about others.
- Consult your spouse and other family members. Call or visit someone you've neglected.

My thanks to Ron Astfalk and the dozen or so volunteers who helped stuff and mail nearly 20,000 envelopes last week!

My thanks also to those of you who participated in the diocesan Church Alive! campaign. We now have a building permit, and $40,000 of the parish's 40% share of your gifts will go toward building our maintenance facility. The remainder of what we have received thus far—another $16,000—will go toward paying down our mortgage.

—Fr. Dave

Computer literacy and access are preferred, OR, easy contact with someone in your life who DOES have frequent access to a computer.

"IT'S BEEN A LOOOOOOOOONG TIME SINCE MY LAST CONFESSION"

This Lent each Catholic parish in the Diocese of Pittsburgh will have their doors open and lights on Wednesday, March 18 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. If you have been reluctant to come to the sacrament, have been away for some time or just found it difficult to get to a regularly scheduled confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Christ and His Church. "The Light is Still On for You!" especially if you haven't been to confession in a while. Visit www.diopitt.org/lightstillon for more information.

RCIA: LENT PURIFICATION

Those to be baptized and those to be brought into the full communion with the Catholic Church at Easter are celebrating the Rites of Election and Recognition at St. Paul Cathedral with Bishop Zubik this Sunday afternoon, March 1. They will then continue their formation each week throughout Lent in this Period of Purification and Enlightenment.

It is a period for all the Elect, the Candidates, the RCIA team, and the whole community to have this time of repentance, reflection on new insights, and preparation for the great feast of the Resurrection.

During the Rite of Sending this weekend at the 9:30 a.m. Mass, we acknowledge our candidates with their sponsors in the reserved pews in the front of the church.

May we pray daily for Michele Burek with her sponsor, Douglas Burek, and Edward McLean, Jr. with his sponsor, Erin Kisak, as we respectfully send them to the Bishop.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NOTES

Many thanks to all who helped make the Eighth Grade retreat a success, especially: Catechists Sharon Falcioni and Rose Marie Baloh; Steve Gietgey; Lori Dedola; the Contemporary Choir; Fr. Robin; and Fr. Dave.

Left: The students at the closing prayer service, after the Signing of the Senses with their parents. They created candles during the retreat which are to remind them of their Baptism and symbolize their upcoming Confirmation.

Below: Confirmation Jeopardy! Using basic facts about our faith, the students had to answer in question form! What is Confirmation trivia fun?

CONFIRMATION MEETING

There is a meeting for parents of the Eighth Grade class on Monday, February 23, at 7:00 p.m. We will not be meeting in the church as previously stated. Please gather in Holy Family Hall for instructions. Interview appointments will be made at this meeting, so please bring your family and/or work calendar! All Eighth Grade students, and at least one parent (or guardian) are required to attend an interview. Please see your Parent Folder for complete details. There are a few other details about Confirmation that we will also discuss. Please do not miss this meeting!

COMMUNION MEETING

There is a parent meeting for First Holy Communion on Thursday, March 5, in the Maximilian Kolbe Room, at 7:00 p.m. The First Penance Service is on Monday, March 16 at 7:00 p.m. There will be a dinner at 6:00 p.m. for all Second Grade Families. First Communion is on Sunday, May 3, at the 11:30 a.m. Mass.

LENT

All parents (especially those with Monday night students) should consider attending our Lenten Program: Live with Jesus, Live for Jesus, Live like Jesus. There is an opportunity to attend while your children are in class! Learn more, pray more, and be a wonderful example for your children! You are already coming here anyway! You will not regret it.

MAKE UP SNOW DAYS

Right now we are still well within our required hours of catechesis even though we have missed a few days of class. Even so, some catechists may not be able to complete their curriculum goals and may need to add homework assignments. Please check your child's folder for this work, and call the RE office if you have questions.

WHAT IS happening?

A glimpse into a Faith Formation Classroom...

"He will call upon me and I will answer." Ps 91:15

"I am the Lord your God. You shall not have other gods beside me."
Teens today often place too much importance on material possessions and know more about the latest gadgets than they do about their faith.

When the new iPhone 6 hit the market, a creative Eighth Grade catechist took advantage of a full-page newspaper advertisement to teach her students about something that they should be excited about: God! (She called it "iGod.") By changing a few words in the ad, she taught them that we have always had the greatest, fastest connection since the beginning of time. We can call upon God with free and unlimited wireless connection services —also known as prayer. Calls can be made direct from any place and at any time. The catechist also introduced helpful apps that are available to guide us and bring us grace; these are the Commandments and the Sacraments. Kudos to this catechist for the creative way to grab the attention of teens and teach a valuable lesson — iGod: so awesome and never needs an upgrade. Call upon Him!

LENT AT ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON

The season of Lent begins Ash Wednesday, February 18. The season begins and ends with days of *fasting. (Others are encouraged to make alternative personal sacrifices for those days.) Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence from eating meat. The fasting and abstinence set the rhythm for the community. Called to continuing conversion, to a deeper spiritual life, and to prepare for Easter, all Christians are encouraged to undertake works of:

- prayer, i.e., special devotions such as Stations of the Cross, a Bible study, a daily rosary, etc.;
- self-denial, i.e., to “give something up for Lent,” usually some lawful pleasure such as a kind or quantity of food, drink, entertainment, or any other satisfaction;
