If you live in Carnegie or one of the nearby townships or boroughs, we'd like to know! Register as a member of the parish or get on our communication lists. Or you live farther away but visit us regularly, please consider registering as an interested non-member. Contact Fr. Dave or the parish office. You can also register online at www.seascarnegie.org/join-our-parish.

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Perhaps you're not Christian, not Catholic, or just curious. Our staff is here for you! Contact Fr. Dave Poecking or Dee Fitzsimmons to learn more. Adults interested in becoming Christian, adult Christians interested in becoming Catholic, and adult Catholics in need of First Communion or Confirmation, please call Fr. Dave or Dee for information about the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the holy sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God....the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man." Those are the words of Saint Jean Vianney, the 19th-century French priest who is the patron saint of all priests. At the heart of Catholic worship is the Mass. Never take the liturgy for granted. Think of ways to help you and your fellow parishioners experience the life-changing power of the Mass.

To read more, check out "On Mission for The Church Alive!" on page 5 of this week's Pittsburgh Catholic and visit www.OnMissionChurchAlive.org, or click on "The Church Alive" on our homepage. www.SEAScarnegie.org

ADVISORY COUNCILS

The Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh expects each parish to have a Pastoral Council and a Finance Council. The Pastoral Council helps the pastor create, manage, and evaluate a “pastoral plan”—something like a secular institution’s “strategic plan.” Pastoral councilors help by listening to the parish and pastor, praying and studying, and sustaining an extended dialogue with the pastor concerning the needs of the parish and the direction provided by him, the Bishop, and the Holy Spirit.

SEAS Parish has recently enjoyed the services of a Pastoral Council now retiring, and a new Council to be seated in January. The new councilors will be commissioned at the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, January 17. Meanwhile, please join me in thanking all the retiring members, whose work over the past several years has yielded profound impact on me and on the parish.

The Finance Council helps the pastor provide for the temporal welfare of the parish by advising him in matters of revenue and expense, security and loss control, maintenance and management. Because of changes in the diocesan accounting system, we’ve been delayed in producing SEAS Parish’s annual financial report, but the Finance Council and I expect to have one for you by the end of the month. Pat Riley now joins the Finance Council, bringing our total to seven.

Outgoing Pastoral Councilors	Incoming Pastoral Councilors	Finance Councilors

Please also remember other special events:

- Confessions: Advent Penance Service (for children) Monday, December 14, at 6:30 p.m.
Children & their families will have the opportunity for individual confession & absolution.
- Carnegie Community Choir Christmas Concert Sunday, December 20, at 4:00 p.m.
- Confessions: Advent Penance Service (for adults) Monday, December 21, at 7:00 p.m.
Bishop William Winter & several priests will be available for individual confession & absolution.

YOUTH, YOUNG ADULTS AND FAMILIES CAROLING

Next Sunday we'll meet at 12:30, right after Mass, to go caroling at Marian Manor! (We'll eat some pizza first to help us sing better.) Come along to have fun and share some Advent joy. Bring the whole family!

NOT A MEMBER OF SEAS? JOIN THE PARISH!

It takes less than two minutes! Get started at www.seascarnegie.org or call 412-276-1011

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

Many thanks to the families of our Parish Religious Education Program who participated in the Holy Day Anticipated Mass last Monday. A big thanks, too, to the other parishioners who were present and brought their patience and understanding as we tried to coordinate all of our "ministries in-training." A big "shout out" to Fr. Dave, Nick Will, Sandy Phillips, and our wonderful catechists for all of the extra help that was needed to celebrate this particular Liturgy. And finally, a very special thanks to the students who participated as readers, choir, ushers, and servers. It is wonderful to see you in these roles and we hope you (and your classmates) are inspired to continue to serve God with your talents throughout your life!

As mentioned in the Pastor's Page, our Advent Prayer and Penance Service is this Monday, December 14. All students of the Parish are invited! Parents are welcome to participate, too! It begins at 6:30 p.m. Each grade level in the Religious Education program will return to their classroom upon completion of the Prayer Service (grades 1, 2, 3) or after their class has completed their individual confessions. Dismissal will be as usual at 8:00 p.m. from the classrooms.

Students who do not attend our Religious Education Classes are also welcome to attend this event! Including teens! Pamphlets will be available for those who may need a little extra help going to confession! The Act of Contrition will be said at the communal Prayer Service prior to individual confession, so students will not be required to say it during confession.

If you have questions, contact the Religious Education Office: education@seascarnegie.org or 412-276-1011 x 222.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The preparations for Christmas include buying or making gifts for those whom we love. You can give no better gift than the gift that God has given to us: his Son, Jesus. Why not invite someone who is not Catholic to attend Mass with you at Christmas. And if that someone would be interested in further information about the Catholic Faith, please let them know about the RCIA. The weekly sessions are now being held on Tuesday evenings, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Maximilian Kolbe Room. New members are always welcome.

PIP THIS COMING THURSDAY, 12/17

This can be an extra stressful time of year, adding the expectations of the holidays onto our already long list of frustrations, concerns, and issues.

Our Partners In Prayer prayer ministers will be waiting for you in Holy Family Hall from 10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. this Thursday to pray with you, and for you and your needs. They've had a number of encounters where they've been "well-used" by God to connect people with Him, so that they can then lay their burdens at His feet, and come away refreshed and hopeful. Could you benefit from this kind of help? The power of prayer is awaiting you!

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

Our friend Kevin Cotter continues with the 6th of his "10 Things Pope Francis Wants You To Know...":

We Must Encounter People to Evangelize

Be servants of communion and of the culture of encounter! I would like you to be almost obsessed about this. Be so without being presumptuous, imposing “our truths,” but rather be guided by the humble yet joyful certainty of those who have been found, touched and transformed by the Truth who is Christ, ever to be proclaimed.—Homily, World Youth Day, July 27, 2013

Here we are, journeying through Advent, 2015; can you believe that it is already Gaudete Sunday, the 3rd Sunday of Advent? Today we light the rose-colored candle and begin to move from penitence and hope to joyous anticipation: It's almost time! He's almost here!

Let us be guided in our 'encountering' efforts as Advent teaches us...'by the humble yet joyful certainty'...that Christ is coming...into our midst, and into our hearts, to find us, touch us, transform us! Let us be ready to sing aloud to all of those who need to hear it: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near." (Phil 4: 4-5 ~ Entrance Antiphon for the 3rd Sunday of Advent) Let us also begin to think of who we might want to invite to Christmas Mass...someone who needs to be reminded that, in spite of how things may look to them, the Lord really IS near!

OPLATKI —GOING FAST! LIMITED QUANTITY LEFT!

Oplatki is now available after all weekend Masses or at the Parish Office, Monday – Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., for $3/package. Oplatki, pronounced o-pwaht-kee, is a Christmas tradition that originated in Poland. The word Oplatki means “Angel Bread”. There are 3 white wafers and 1 pink wafer, imprinted with beautiful Christmas images, in each package. The white are to be used by the humans in the family and the pink are for the family pet(s).

People from all nationalities have come to love this tradition. Just before the Christmas Eve meal, the entire family gathers to share the oplatki. Usually the eldest member will begin by breaking off a piece of the wafer and giving it to another family member along with a wish for good health, happiness, etc., whatever good blessing they desire for that person to receive. This continues from person to person until all have received a blessing and a piece of the wafer. You then can do the same with the family pet(s). Take a piece of the pink wafer for each pet and give it to them along with a blessing. Pets are remembered because of the animals that were present in the stable to greet the “Christ Child” on the “First Holy Night”.

So pick up a package, or two, for your family/friends and share this popular tradition with them.

Noon—6:00 p.m.

Plus a fabulous basket raffle!

Calling all bakers: We need your homemade Christmas Cookies!

Please take your yummy treats to St. Luke Hall on Friday, December 18. No need to wrap them in a specific way for the sale, the Christian Mothers & Guild will do that for you; they will create packages of various sizes with several varieties.

Tell your friends! Remind your family ! Notify your co-workers!

You do not want to miss this cookie sale!
