ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Leadership is critical to the success of our diocesan-wide program, "On Mission for The Church Alive!" Every parish needs to bring out – and invite – leaders committed to the Church, to the Good News of the Gospel, and to enthusiastic evangelization. Our goal in everything we do is to welcome all to the friendship of Jesus that lives in every Catholic parish, every Catholic institution in the Church of Pittsburgh. Look around you and see what is needed. What can you be doing to help provide and support the parish leaders of today and tomorrow?

To read more, check out "On Mission for The Church Alive!" on page 5 of this week's Pittsburgh Catholic and visit www.OnMissionChurchAlive.org. There's a link on our homepage! Follow On Mission for The Church Alive on Twitter at @PghChurchAlive. Have something to share about how your parish is "On Mission"? Use the hashtags #ChurchAlive and #OnMissionPgh.

MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ." In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology. "The Eucharist is the heart and the summit of the Church's life."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1407)

The weekly celebration of the Eucharist defines who we are as Catholics—in our parishes, in our households of faith, in our neighborhoods, and in our world.

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day, Monday, May 30 is a traditional day to honor deceased veterans and to visit cemeteries.

- Say a prayer for deceased veterans named elsewhere in this bulletin.
- Visit St. Joseph Cemetery with me after the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Memorial Day.
- Check out the relocated monument to Fr. Anthony Muszynski and other former priests of St. Ignatius Church, now re-erected at St. Ignatius Cemetery.
- Sign up for our Wine Tasting Party on June 4—$45 for a pleasant meal, good company, and eight wines—with benefits going to the much-needed care and improvement of our parish cemeteries.

Please also pray for the youth and others who will receive the sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop David Zubik this Tuesday at SEAS Church!

Next Sunday, June 5, is our annual “mission co-operative” appeal, by which all parishes in the Church of Pittsburgh participate in the international missions. Our guest preacher will be Fr. Jefferies Foale, CP, speaking on behalf of the Passionist Mission in Vietnam. There’s no Faith Direct transaction: To donate, you’ll need to prepare a special check payable to SEAS, or if you still get envelopes, use the yellow one in May’s packet.

—Fr. Dave

The Passionist Mission in Vietnam

Passionists learn to stand by the Cross of Jesus with his mother. They came to Vietnam in 2005 because they recognize the crucifixion of Vietnam, the heroic suffering of the people, and are drawn to stand with them. The cross overcomes suffering, and lifts people up in their daily struggle.

The Passionist community numbers four foreign priests, eight theology students, five novices, five philosophy students and 25 college students.

Many ask us how can missionaries survive in a Communist society? We remember that Jesus lived in a dangerous political environment where he encouraged all to render unto Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s. So we preach the gospel without hesitation, make friends with everyone, stay away from politics. You would be surprised what good we find in unexpected places, just as Jesus did. We are building! Or, to be honest, we hope to build. We have exhausted our funds, generously donated from four continents, just buying a very small piece of land suitable for a seminary. We must double our student accommodation to avoid turning away the generous young men who are knocking on the door, wanting to dedicate their lives to God’s service.

Since our foundation from Rome in 2005 we have been in a hurry. Four missionaries from four nations are working with eight young Vietnamese religious, who are soon to be ordained, to advance our Congregation’s mission of uplifting the poor by the power of God’s love revealed in Jesus’ journey to the Cross. We need to reach the people in greatest need of the gospel, and that means training and ordaining local missionaries, leading them in service to the poor.

Celebrating the Sacraments

After years of attending Catholic Mass with his wife and daughter, Brandon made the joyful decision to become a member of the Catholic Church. Brandon's daughter, Ana, is a freshman at Oakland Catholic High School, and previously attended St. Philip's Catholic School. Brandon's sponsor is his wife, Sylvia, who has been a lifelong Catholic and attended Catholic School from Kindergarten through 12th Grade. These family members have been most influential in bringing Brandon to the Catholic Faith.

We welcome Brandon into the SEAS community as he made a profession of faith and then celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist during the 11:30 a.m. Mass last Sunday, May 22, 2016. Our prayers are with the Bergstedt Family as they continue their significant faith life in the Catholic Church.

ADORATION

Please join us Thursday, June 2, for a Day of Adoration, starting after the 8:00 a.m. Mass, until benediction around 6:30 p.m.

If you can dedicate a specific time, we would love to know! Please use the sign-up sheet in Holy Family Hall. You may also see the link on our homepage and sign up online.

All are welcome!

Thank you to our Christian Mothers & Guild for your help in organizing this Day of Adoration.

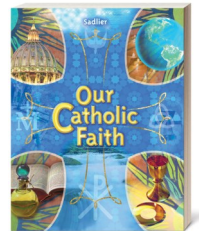

CONFIRMATION

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated in our Parish on Tuesday, May 31, at 7:00 p.m. with Bishop David Zubik. All are welcome!

CATCH- UP CLASSES

Has your child missed some years of Faith Formation Classes? Does he/she need some catching up? Were Sacraments missed somehow along the way? SEAS offers some summertime lessons to bring your child up to par with his/her peers. Call the Office for Sacrament Prep and begin him/her on their faith journey! 412-276-1011 ext. 225 or email rcia@seascarnegie.org.

FAITH FORMATION CLASSES

Registrations are now being accepted for the 2016-2017 school year for students in grades 1 – 8. THAT'S WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT!

In this day, sadly, the denial of the True Presence still exists. “Do you sense the mystery and power of receiving and consuming Christ in the Eucharist? Do you marvel at the fact? If we believe that Christ is truly present in the Eucharist, then the power unleashed within us by the consumption of the Eucharist is immeasurable” (Matthew Kelly).

Do you know how to explain this belief to those who don't seem to value it?

- ❖ It was Jesus himself who said: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven...Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him”. (John 6)
- ❖ The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that the Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life...For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself...” (Source...think: basis, foundation, starting point, cause, supply. Summit...think: peak, pinnacle, apex, high point.)
- ❖ In the Mass we use the term “transubstantiation”, meaning that the bread and wine is changed into Christ’s Body and Blood.

In our receiving of Holy Eucharist, in our "Amen!", may we too undergo a change, a transformation, becoming more and more like Christ, and spreading the love he gives us to all of those in our path...because "that's what it's all about!"

Every 5th Sunday (which happens four times a year), the 2nd Collection is for the good works of our SVdP Conference. Since the last 5th Sunday (at the end of January, 2016), through your gifts, our SEAS St. Vincent de Paul Conference was able to bring the love of God to the poor by assisting 800 people with food through the SVdP food pantry, 13 households with utilities, 11 households with rent, and 9 households with furniture. May God bless you richly for your generosity!

Vacation deadlines: The June 12 bulletin deadline is Monday, June 6, at noon. The June 19 bulletin deadline is Wednesday, June 8, at noon. Please be sure to submit your Father's Day Memorials before June 8.

Thank you to those who submitted names and donated to our Memorial Day Tribute to our fallen Parishioners. See page 16 for the remarkable list, and keep these men and their families in your prayers.

Fr. Dave received a letter from Genesis of Pittsburgh thanking our Parish for the generous donation of $625 that was collected on Mother's Day. "We hope you know how grateful we are and that your gift will make a difference in the lives of women & families in our community." from Carole McMahon, Executive Director

CONNECTION

On this Memorial Day Weekend we pay tribute to our Parishioners who lost their lives while serving our country.

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:13

Jack "Jackie" Adragna a well-known boxer who lived on Cubbage Street was killed in Belgium on January 16, 1945. His funeral was held at Holy Souls Church on February 23, 1945. He left behind a wife and a 1½ year-old daughter.

James L. Boyce graduated from St. Luke High School. He was a sergeant in a rifle platoon with the 24th Infantry Division in 1949. Reported missing in action on August 15.

Peter C. Chaido was killed in World War II in 1943. He was stationed on the USS Denver in the South Pacific, when his ship was hit by a Japanese torpedo. He was 21 years old. He was one of 20 sailors killed in the attack. He and his shipmates were buried after the war in Hawaii in the National Cemetery. Peter was a graduate of St. Luke High School (1940). Peter C. Chaido. March 30, 1922 —November 13, 1943

Frank Cyprowski was born on March 21, 1923, and was killed in action in the New Britain Campaign; part of the Pacific Theater of World War II. He was in the United States Army and was 20 years-old when he died on March 17, 1943.

PFC Alfred W. Diloreto was born February 27, 1926. He was in the Army Infantry and was killed in action on January 27, 1945, at the Battle of the Bulge in Germany. His brother Nick (a current parishioner) was fighting a quarter of a mile away in the artillery when he received the news that his brother had died. Nick was unable to go to him. Alfred was buried in Luxembourg, Germany. He was a month away from his 19th birthday.

Frank A. Dornenberg died of wounds received in action in the Argonne Forest, World War I. He died October 8, 1918, at the age of 25, from the effects of a piece of German shrapnel.

Theodore Kaszalowicz, from Glendale, died during World War II in a head-on collision as he was returning to his camp. Interment: St. Ignatius Cemetery.

August Klinkner died in World War I. He was the first Carnegie resident to die in that war. He would be 1st cousin once removed to Ruth Simpson and Bob Greek. At age 23, he was a member of Company A, 5th Machine Gun Battalion and was killed in action in France on June 12, 1918.

John F. Manion was killed in action on November 3, 1919 in France. In his last letter home, dated October 13, he wrote: "War is hell. I was over the top twice. I have seen many men lying dead on the battlefield." He was 23 years-old.

Cpl. Carl Marchese was killed in the Southwest Pacific on July 19, 1943. Three of his comrades from Carnegie sent a request to Fr. Dominicus at Holy Souls Church, along with a $5 money order, to request a mass on his behalf. The letter was signed by Metro Kuncho, Carl Gabig, and Vic Maksa. On January 26, 1944, Fr. Dominicus sang the requiem high mass for Carl Marchese.

James L. McCabe was killed in Vietnam on January 8, 1970. He was stationed 10 miles outside of Saigon. He attended St. Luke Grade School and Carnegie High School. He was survived by two daughters, ages 3 and 4, at the time of his death. He was 23 years-old.

Joseph V. McGrogan was killed in action on August 13, 1918, at the age of 29. In his last letter to his mother he wrote: "Mother, I am going to be prepared. Am going to confession and Holy Communion tonight. We can hear the big guns roar."

Paul Mente, age 24, was accidentally killed in France during World War I while working on a machine gun.

John M. Moore drowned in 1957 at the age of 18 in Guam. He was on a classified mission with the Strategic Air Command's 341st Bomber Wing at Andersen Air Force Base. He graduated from St. Luke High School and was a member of the St. Luke Men's Choir and Holy Name Society.

Jack W. Phillips, was killed as a passenger in a car accident one month before he was scheduled for discharge from the Army in 1971. He was 21 years-old. Interment: Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

PFC Frank Salerno was born in 1915. Died in Germany on April 10, 1945. He served in France, Belgium, England, and Germany.

John A. Stripp was born on April 15, 1918. A member of St. Luke Parish, he was the 9th of 12 children of Andrew and Laura Belle Stripp, six of whom served in the military during WWII. John enlisted on July 15, 1941 and achieved the rank of Staff Sergeant. He was killed in action at Battle of the Bulge on January 29, 1945.

Prayer is a Tricky Thing ...Our Partners In Prayer, Prayer Ministers know this. They also know and believe what Jesus says in Matthew 18:20: For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

So, they 'show up' for you, every 1st and 3rd Thursday, from 10:00-1:00 in Holy Family Hall, to pray with you and for you and your intentions.

They know, and believe that God, our always-loving Father, is always listening, always interested, always caring ... but they also know that He has His own plan, His own way of shaping, molding, conforming us to be more Christlike ... and He has wisdom, knowing what really IS best for us, in spite of what we may think!

We'll never know (at least in this life) how, or how frequently, our prayers make a difference in the outcome of important life issues ... but these Ministers are willing to continue standing in the breach, with you and for you. Come down on a 1st or 3rd Thursday and share your prayer needs. Remember, God always listens!

IN APPRECIATION

To my friends and family at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton; words cannot express my deepest gratitude for all of your love, prayers, and support through the years, especially at this past weekend's Masses. I am continually humbled by the outpouring of your love for me in my vocation. Please know that the all of you will be in my prayers as I begin studies at St. Vincent Seminary.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Joe Uzar

THE DEFENDERS OF THE EUCHARIST

*Peter Paul Rubens c.1625-27 Oil on Canvas
14'3" by 14'7" Ringling Museum of Art, Sarasota, Florida.*

Beginning on the right side of the canvas, Rubens pictures St. Jerome, dressed as a cardinal receiving Communion. Next to him stands St. Norbert, clothed in his white habit and carrying the Eucharist beneath his robes. St. Thomas Aquinas stands in the center holding a book and extending his other hand to heaven, a gesture proclaiming his defense of the Eucharist. Beside him is St. Clare of Assisi, holding a monstrance that displays the sacred Eucharistic host. To her left is St. Gregory the Great, the pope who wrote so many works contained in the Mass. Then comes St. Ambrose, who wrote about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Rubens finishes his gathering of defenders of the Eucharist with St. Augustine, who included his reflections on this sacrament in his famous treatise on the Holy Trinity. Rubens produced this painting during the Church's Counter - Reformation efforts to defend and reclaim the authentic teachings about the Eucharist and the devotions that assisted believers to deepen their commitment to this mystery of faith.
