WELCOME, MAURA GOODWIN!

Maura Goodwin joins the staff of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish as assistant to Prof. Nick Will, our director of music. Maura will assist him principally by playing the organ for Masses at which Nick cannot be present, but she'll also take other leadership roles in music ministry.

Maura is a native of Long Island, New York. She began playing music at an early age, playing both violin and piano. Maura studied organ at Franciscan University of Steubenville, under Nick's direction. At Steubenville she received degrees in Theology, Catechetics, and Sacred Music. Maura previously served as director of music at St. Juan Diego Parish, and now continues her studies toward a Master's Degree in Sacred Music and Organ at Duquesne University, with Dr. Ann Labounsky. Maura says she feels very blessed to serve the parish community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, and is looking forward to her time here.

✠ The parish Finance Council advises me on matters temporal—revenue & expense, budgets, property management, loss control, and the like. Bob Greek has served on the council for eleven years; Jeff Hinds for eight. Their agreed-upon terms expire as of the end of September. Please take care to thank them for their service.

Meanwhile, I am reappointing John O'Keefe (who has already served nine years!) to another four-year term. I also appoint Annette Marodi, a newcomer, to the council. Therefore, as of October 1, our Finance Council will consist of:

Erin Kisak
Annette Marodi
John O'Keefe
Jeff Palastro, chairman
Pat Riley

Please be sure to thank them for their service and to convey to them any matters of common concern.

✠ Concerned about the health and safety of children and youth online? The USCCB sponsors a website www.faithandsafety.org with information about guiding minors, protecting them, dealing with pornography addiction, and related issues.

—Fr. Dave

The St. John Paul II homeschool co-op seeks anyone with a background and love for Art. The Co-op would love to offer an Art Class to the children. Please contact Melissa Cambest 412-492-0132 if you have knowledge or expertise in Art that you can share with enthusiastic children!

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

SEAS EVANGELIZES

HUMBLE EVANGELIZATION

Today's Mass readings from Holy Scripture teach us about humility. What does humility have to do with evangelization? Read on!

Dr. Jeff Mirus, Founder of CatholicCulture.org talks about humility as being one of the specific characteristics which will always make our efforts at evangelization more fruitful:

Humility...is the virtue by which we recognize who God is and who we are, that we are not God, and that in point of fact we depend entirely on God not only for our existence but for every good work. There are two sides to this virtue. The first is a radical reliance upon God...The second is the recognition and acceptance of our own inescapable inadequacy in sharing the Christian life with others...

...It takes humility to open ourselves to others, but humility is the mark of personal authenticity. It cannot be faked, and it is always attractive...An effective evangelizer will always be frank about his own deficiencies in both virtue and knowledge...Far better to be willing to engage another in the Christ life on terms of equal need than either to hide our light or be correctly perceived as a self-righteous know-it-all.

And from one of our non-Catholic friends, Wes Simmons, a campus minister:

"...what if evangelism is more about our weakness than our strength, more about humility than boldness? What if it's more about sharing why you need Jesus, inviting people into your brokenness, than it is about trying to convince them why they need Jesus?"

It has been said that friendship begins at the moment when one person looks at another and says, "What, you too? I thought I was the only one." What if this same principle applies to evangelism? What if inviting people into relationship with you, by sharing about your sinful brokenness, was more convincing than having the right answers to questions people aren't asking?"

It sounds like humility is a great virtue for us to be sure is in our toolbox for our evangelization efforts! Perhaps we can pray for the gift of humility...see the Litany of Humility on page 11 of this bulletin.

PRAY THE ROSARY

On Wednesday, September 7, we will gather in SEAS Immaculate Conception Chapel to pray the rosary after the noon Mass. Our intention is to pray for an end to the terrorism and violence that continues to plague our world.

Daily we awake to reports of terrorist attacks in concert halls, bars, airports, and on the city streets in our country and in Europe. These perpetrators leave a trail of innocent blood in the aftermath. Our military and intelligence have been unsuccessful in stopping these evil acts.

But we have another resource that is more powerful--PRAYER. Our Blessed Mother has promised on several occasions to intercede for us against the evil power in the world if we pray the rosary.

We hope to continue to pray the rosary every Wednesday at approximately 12:35 p.m. Please plan to join us in our quest to see an end to terrorism and violence, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and with the aid of our Blessed Mother.

"Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided..."

—The Memorare

9-11-01
WE REMEMBER

Please join us in prayer on the 15th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on our country.

We will be praying for the country, for soldiers/sailors/airmen/marines, for first responders (police/fire/EMTs), for churches & pastors, for politicians and government officials, and for political candidates.

Now, after serving you all of those delicious funnel cakes at the festival, we continue on with our annual food drive to benefit our own food pantry. This will be held at the end of September along with another delicious Pancake Breakfast.

October brings with it the Baby Bottle Campaign. There will be more information on these events as they approach.

This is also the perfect time for any man not currently a member to join our organization. Feel free to contact our membership director Walt Folcik or any other Knight for more information. You can even begin the process online at www.seascarnegie.org, just click on "Knights of Columbus" under the Community tab on the homepage.

LITANY OF HUMILITY

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, hear me.
 From the desire of being esteemed, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being loved, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being extolled, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being honored, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being praised, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being preferred to others,
 deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being consulted, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being approved, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being humiliated, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being despised, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of suffering rebukes, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being calumniated,
 deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being forgotten, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being ridiculed, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being wronged, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being suspected, deliver me, Jesus.

That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be chosen and I set aside, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be praised and I unnoticed, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be preferred to me in everything, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may become holier than I, provided that I become as holy as I should, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
