THE MEASURE OF A MAN

This Monday, January 16, marks our national memorial of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. He was a man of many virtues, one of which was the ability to convey traditional Christian thought into language at once poetical, persuasive, and pastoral. I am fond of these excerpts from his sermon, “The Dimensions of a Complete Life,” later published in his book, The Measure of a Man.

—Fr. Dave

Every individual has a responsibility to be concerned about himself enough to discover what he is made for. After he discovers his calling he should set out to do it with all of the strength and power in his being. He should do it as if God Almighty called him at this particular moment in history to do it. He should seek to do his job so well that the living, the dead, or the unborn could not do it better. No matter how small one thinks his life's work is in terms of the norms of the world and the so-called big jobs, he must realize that his has cosmic significance if he is serving humanity and doing the will of God. To carry this to one extreme, if it falls your lot to be a street sweeper, sweep streets as Raphael painted pictures, sweep streets as Michelangelo carved marble, sweep streets as Beethoven composed music, sweep streets as Shakespeare wrote poetry. Sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will have to pause and say, "Here lived a great street sweeper who swept his job well."

But don't stop here; it is dangerous to stop here. There are some people who never get beyond this first dimension. They are brilliant people; often they do an excellent job in developing their inner powers; but they live as if nobody else lived in the world but themselves. There is nothing more tragic than to find an individual bogged down in the length of life, devoid of the breadth. The breadth of life is that dimension of life in which we are concerned about others. An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity. So John Donne placed it in graphic terms when he affirmed, "No man is an island entire of itself. Every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main." Then he goes on to say, "Any man's death diminishes me because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee." When we discover this, we master the second dimension of life.

Finally, there is a third dimension. Some people never get beyond the first two dimensions of life. They master the first two. They develop their inner powers; they love humanity; but they stop right here. They end up with the feeling that man is the end of all things and that humanity is God. Philosophically or theologically, many of them would call themselves humanists. They seek to live life without a sky. They find themselves bogged down on the horizontal plane without being integrated on the vertical plane. But if we are to live the complete life we must reach up and discover God. H.G. Wells was right: "The man who is not religious begins at nowhere and ends at nothing." Religion is like a mighty wind that breaks down doors and makes that possible and even easy which seems difficult and impossible. So I say to you, seek God and discover him and make him a power in your life. Without him all of our efforts turn to ashes and our sunrises into darkest nights. Without him, life is a meaningless drama with the decisive scenes missing. But with him we are able to rise from the fatigue of despair to the buoyancy of hope. With him we are able to rise from the midnight of desperation to the daybreak of joy. Saint Augustine was right—we were made for God and we will be restless until we find rest in him.

SUBSTANCE ADDICTION MINISTRY AT ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON

On Tuesday, January 17, 2017, The Substance Addiction Ministry will meet at 7p.m. in the Bayley Building at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 330 Third Ave., Carnegie, PA. The meeting will be preceded by the rosary at 6:30 p.m. in the Immaculate Conception Chapel, located off of the narthex. Signs will be posted.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton is one of several parishes in the diocese offering this opportunity to meet, pray and discuss issues about addiction. This is not only for the substance user or abuser, but also for friends and family of someone suffering with addiction issues.

The key to obtaining and maintaining sobriety lies in prayer and a strong relationship with God. This applies equally to drug addiction and alcoholism. S.A.M is not a cure for addiction; it is a diocesan, prayer based outreach offering prayer, education and support. Please feel free to come.

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

SEAS EVANGELIZES

MARCH! (IN JANUARY)

The readings for today's Mass all work together to give us our evangelizational marching orders:

Isaiah tells us: "The Lord said...I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."

We respond: "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

We hear St. Paul addressing us: "...to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ...Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

So, if we know that we have been made a light to the nations for the Lord's purposes, and we are ready and willing to do his will, and we know that we have been called to this holiness and are blessed with "grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" so that we can do it, then we have no reason NOT to testify that "...he is the Son of God." Think about how you can do that, effectively, in your life. When has he powerfully intervened in your life in a way that only the Son of God could have done? Share that story, that testimony, with someone today!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.

To those who accepted him,

he gave power to become children of God.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Tomorrow, Monday, January 16, only students in 7th and 8th grade attend classes.

All families are invited to join the Religious Education Program for our annual "Celebrate Life Night" on Monday, January 23, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (Early dismissal from the event is permitted for grades one through six. Parents must be present.)

As always, emergency cancellations will be posted on WPXI, and on the parish Facebook page: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish Carnegie.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Have you lost someone due to an addiction problem? A support group for those who have lost a loved one to the disease of addiction is now available. The group meets every first and third Monday of the month. It is held at St. Louise de Marillac Parish in Upper St. Clair (only a 20 minute drive from the Carnegie area), in Les Gras Hall conference room starting at 7:00 pm.

The group is facilitated by a certified counselor, Adrian Miller, MSCP, NCC. This opportunity provides those who have lost a loved one a safe place to share and listen to others who are experiencing this as well. If you have questions or would like more information please contact Adrian at 412-609-4437.

This grief support group is sponsored by the Substance Addiction Ministry (SAM) of the Pittsburgh Diocese. It is open to all persons regardless of their faith or religion.

POINT THE WAY —R.C.I.A.

Can we be the one to show the way to Jesus? John the Baptist showed others how their lives could be brought to a fullness just by following the "Lamb of God."

Through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults process, and its lead to the Sacraments, one meets Jesus and begins a life of discipleship to Him. Those who point and those who follow meet weekly on Tuesdays to walk the journey of faith. Join this gathering, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.! We promise friendship and support as we tread His way together.
