Novena to Christ the King: for 9 days, recite one Our Father, one Hail Mary and one Glory Be per day followed by this prayer.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

like us that he might show us the way to love and reign in our hearts as he reigns in heaven. Our benevolent Lord and King, Jesus, has chosen to dwell with us and has promised to prepare a place for us to dwell with him in heaven. So, we must ask ourselves, what kingdom are we choosing to live for? Are we seeking to build up a kingdom for ourselves in this life that is bound to pass away? Or will we work hard now to store up for ourselves treasure in heaven and come to share in the glory of the kingdom to come. On Mission for The Church Alive! seeks to strengthen the Church and increase the opportunities for us and others to grow closer to God and share in the life of his kingdom here and now. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

MY KINGDOM DOES NOT BELONG TO THIS WORLD

As the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King this weekend, our hearts are fixed on heaven, from where our God reigns. For our King, born in the stable in Bethlehem, son of Mary and Joseph the carpenter, had no political power in the world. He did not command military troops nor consult with court official. Instead, he came as one

“The Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe, invites us to repeat with faith the prayer of the Our Father, which Jesus himself taught us: ‘Thy kingdom come’...Thy kingdom come, O Lord! — ‘A kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace’. (Pope St. John Paul II, November 23, 1997)

Friends, the “cry room” that is housed on the weekends in the Immaculate Conception chapel has become a renewed matter of concern. The room exists, first and foremost at that time, to allow parents with children too young to feel comfortable in a pew to attend Mass. The presence of the children is not only a joy, but also a reminder that in a parish with numerous funerals, there is new life on the horizon. Children raised in the Faith are the future of the Church. It seems that some parishioners have been critical of some parents that use the room. It is understandable that some of the elders of our community find that space better for hearing and participating. The ideal, toward which we should strive in charity, is the co-existence of all who find that room to be the best circumstance for their participation. The elders, in many cases, were parents of youngsters themselves. They, then, can understand and even appreciate the efforts younger parents are making to come to Mass and fulfill their commitment to raise their children as “Catholic”.

SEAS EVANGELIZES

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

LORD, GOD OF THE UNIVERSE

Origen, a prominent early Christian theologian, wrote about God's reign in our hearts and in our lives - and therefore in our world - this way:

...whoever prays for the coming of the kingdom of God within himself is praying rightly, praying for the kingdom to dawn in him, bear fruit and reach perfection. For God reigns in every saint... the Father is present in him and in his soul Christ reigns alongside the Father, as it is said: We will come to him and make our dwelling with him...for this reason let us pray without ceasing...hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come.

There is something important that we need to understand about the kingdom of God...the kingdom of God and a kingdom of sin cannot co-exist. So if we want God to reign within us, on no account may sin rule in our mortal body but let us mortify our earthly bodies and let us be made fruitful by the Spirit. Then we will be a spiritual garden of Eden for God to walk in. God will rule in us with Christ who will be seated in us on the right hand of God — God, the spiritual power that we pray to receive — until he makes his enemies (who are within us) into his footstool... (from Liturgy of the Hours).

And Katie Prejean McGrady, a contemporary Catholic speaker and author addresses this important conviction this way:

Everything we do, both on this feast and throughout the year, should be done in honor of Jesus as King. The way we wash the dishes, the way we read books to our children, the way we go to work, pay the bills, study for school — everything we do, from the loftiest to the most mundane of tasks can be a moment to trust and be confident in the power of Jesus Christ as King, to ask him to show us his power both in our life and in our world.

We are God's chosen instruments and ambassadors. By the way we pray, hope, and live we can show the world that the Christ we believe in and adore truly is the King of our lives, and the King of the Universe.

Lord, God of the Universe
You've loved us since before our birth
Your name rules heaven and earth!

THE CATECHUMENAL PROCESS

What is the Catechumenate? What is the RCIA? It is not simply a convert instruction class. It is not simply the rituals or rites by which converts are brought into the Church. It is not simply “another parish program.”

The Rite of Christian Initiation is the process through which adults and older children are brought into the fullness of the Catholic faith community.

One of the distinctive features of the RCIA, what sets it apart from other religious education and formation programs, is that the entire parish community must be the helpers for those who wish to join. It means a firm commitment on the part of the entire parish. One does not become a member of a community merely by learning its history or reading its bylaws. One becomes a member by truly experiencing the life and activities of the community itself.

For those who seek to learn more,

SEAS is offering the beginning “Inquiry” sessions of the RCIA process. The invitation is right now to join a few others who are interested in this process on Tuesday evening, November 27, 7:00 p.m. in the Maximilian Kolbe Room. Just come or call the Office for Initiation: 412-276-1011 ext. 225, for more information. On this Thanksgiving weekend, we especially thank God for the help of the entire parish community!

OPLATKI

Oplatki is now available after all weekend Masses or at the Parish Office, Monday – Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., for $3/package. Oplatki, pronounced o-pwaht-kee, is a Christmas tradition that originated in Poland. The word Oplatki means “Angel Bread”. There are 3 white wafers and 1 pink wafer, imprinted with beautiful Christmas images, in each package. The white are to be used by the humans in the family and the pink are for the family pet(s).

People from all nationalities have come to love this tradition. Just before the Christmas Eve meal, the entire family gathers to share the oplatki. Usually the eldest member will begin by breaking off a piece of the wafer and giving it to another family member along with a wish for good health, happiness, etc., whatever good blessing they desire for that person to receive. This continues from person to person until all have received a blessing and a piece of the wafer. You then can do the same with the family pet(s). Take a piece of the pink wafer for each pet and give it to them along with a blessing. Pets are remembered because of the animals that were present in the stable to greet the “Christ Child” on the “First Holy Night”.

So pick up a package, or two, for your family/friends and share this popular tradition with them. —Sandra Santillo

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Once again the Knights of Columbus will be handing out Bishop's Project Christmas Seals. These seals are a major part of our continuing support of the McGuire Memorial and St. Anthony's school programs. Providing holistic comprehensive care to persons with mental and physical disabilities, McGuire Memorial prepares each person to make the maximum use of their abilities. Saint Anthony's School Programs maximizes the individual student's potential for academic learning, fosters self-respect and confidence and develops confidence in employment and living skills through inclusive education. Distribution of Seals throughout the Diocese of Pittsburgh Catholic churches was the original fundraising method for these schools and about 100,000 seals will be distributed this year. Please take advantage of these beautiful seals and utilize them during this Christmas season. As always, your continued support and donations, especially with this project, are greatly appreciated. —Joe Uzar
