ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Rejoice and Be Glad; Your Reward Will Be Great in Heaven – What is it that we live for? What are the motivations of our thoughts, our words, our actions, our entire lives? Is it something in this life – accomplishment, knowledge, wealth, power, prestige? Or is it something else, like heaven and our eternal reward? As Christians, there are countless references in Sacred Scripture and in the teachings from every generation of the Church that remind us that we were not made for this world. For instance, in the First Book of Chronicles, King David prays, “For before you we are strangers and travelers, like all our ancestors. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without a future.” (1 Chr 29:15) That means that we are made for something more, the greatest thing, life for ever with God in heaven. However, it does not mean that we can just sit back and enjoy the ride here, as if heaven is a given. Rather, as Jesus reminds us in the Beatitudes in today’s Gospel, we must put ourselves and our wants aside and instead live for God and others. On Mission for The Church Alive! seeks to provide for the good of the Church so that, in building up the Kingdom of God here on earth, we can be welcomed home to God’s Kingdom in heaven. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Margaret of Scotland, Ss. Simon and Jude

Dear Friends,

As we complete our fourth month since the changes and transfers, Father Alek, Father Robin and I again thank you for your support. We are fully aware that, although some have been unkindly critical, the majority are accepting of what has been placed in our laps and are willing to move forward as the bishop expects. We are grateful also for the patience that some have shown toward us in these new circumstances.

In the past four months I have met with the Finance and Pastoral councils of the three parishes. It is my intention to schedule regular meetings with them. I assured them that the present INTERIM Mass schedule will be reviewed in March, with their assistance, and based upon the attendance numbers since October. These numbers have been presented to you in the bulletins at each parish. You will also be given the opportunity to comment through both electronic media and written paper.

It is necessary to remember that the overall plan of the Diocese is not for three priests to cover the pastoral needs of three parishes for the foreseeable future. This is a temporary fix. We will have serious considerations in the coming months with regard not only to a new Parish name and Mass schedule, but also the future of available clergy and buildings. Individual convenience cannot be the driving force behind comments and expectations.

The finances of each of the three parishes in this grouping are dire and may very well cause a merger sooner rather than later. Staffing in the parishes is now up for review to help determine which positions are needed and which we can afford to employ. A review of offertory for the past two years proves that there are many—TOO MANY--- families that have contributed NOTHING to the offertory in that time frame or more. I cannot stress enough that many are shirking their responsibilities to their parishes. Too much is being cared for by too few generous souls among us.

I am aware that the changes are difficult. It has been difficult for all involved, including the priests. We are in this together, and as such, must work together to see the viable future.

Sincerely in Christ,

Reverend Robert J. Grecco
Administrator

FROM OUR ADMINISTRATOR

"The entire life of a good Christian is in fact an exercise of holy desire. You do not yet see what you long for, but the very act of desiring prepares you, so that when he comes you may see and be utterly satisfied." --St. Augustine

I am proud to announce that seminarian Brian Hindt has received his assignment to continue his preparation for ordination to the Priesthood. Brian will be attending St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe for four years of theological studies and formation. Please continue to pray for Brian as he moves closer to fully discerning his vocation.

School families planning to apply for the "Bishop's Education Fund" scholarships MUST meet the following criteria for my signature on the application: 1) Child(ren) must be baptized Catholics; 2) the family must be registered in one of the three "210 parishes" 3) the family must be using the "envelope" offering system of the parish and practicing the Catholic faith regularly (Mass attendance should be weekly).
—Fr. Grecco

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

THE MASS AS AN EVANGELIZATION TOOL

Last week we talked about the evangelizational value of singing at Mass, and the week before we talked about how ALL are welcome, which means that we need to invite.

This week let's talk about the actual beginning of the ritual via our making, together, the Sign of the Cross. What a powerful moment that we so often don't give much attention to! Notice that our priest is the one who actually says the words, as he will continue to represent us, pray to God on our behalf, and lead us in prayer throughout the Mass. And notice that our communal "Amen" indicates that, yes, indeed, we agree and believe that we are joining together in this celebration in honor of, and in, the Triune God to whom we belong. (In other words, it's not all about us!)

Bishop Barron tells us: "In contradistinction to modernity, Catholics say 'your life is not about you,' and the Liturgy signals this at the very beginning of the Mass with the sign of the cross." Additionally, the fact that we are making the sign of the CROSS indicates that we know and believe IN the cross, and in its saving power, and in fact that we, sinners, are the ones who are being saved.

Let's do our best to somehow get our loved ones to Mass, or back to Mass! Tell them: 1) they are invited and welcome, 2) they'll enjoy (AND be touched by) the singing and the music (especially here in Grouping 210!), and 3) they need it as much as we do!

"None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself.
If we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."

~ Romans 14: 7-8
