ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

We Are Ambassadors for Christ – When reflecting on faith we often consider the importance of trust. This reflection is typically focused on our need to trust in God and not to worry or be anxious about anything. However, we cannot forget all that God has entrusted to us as his beloved children. He has given us life and gifts and talents and trusts that we will use them for the good of others in fulfillment of his will. In light of this, we should take to heart Saint Paul's words in today's second reading: "so we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us."

Aware of all that God has entrusted to us we become his representatives in the world, reflecting his light and love through our words and deeds. On Mission for The Church Alive! becomes our opportunities to be Christ's representatives in our parishes, our communities and beyond as he entrusts all of us with the task of building up the Church. As we work to have our hearts transformed and strengthened this Lent may the result be our ever-faithful witness to God's life at work in us. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

The Word at Home

Let's bring the family together.

Church Alive has brought us challenges for sure but now, more than ever, we need to come together as a family and celebrate the gifts that we have: wonderful priests, the freedom to attend Mass without persecution, and church communities that bring us closer to the side of Christ.

At the Parish Mission, we're launching our Bible study ministry called (The Word at Home) or homegroups. These are Bible Studies designed for you to share in fellowship while learning about the Word. For more information please call Bonnie: 412-563-3189 or email 210bpierce@gmail.com

WIDOWS/WIDOWERS

Our first meeting of the year will be at Durans, located at 12 E. Main Street, in Carnegie. Please join us on Monday, April 1, at 1:00 p.m., just to talk and eat. All are welcome! Please call Dorothy Montani with questions or to let her know you are coming: 412-279-5872.

If possible, please bring an item for our food pantry.

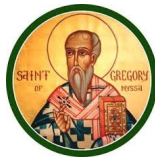

ROSARY MAKING WORKSHOP:

Sunday, March 31, from 12 Noon to 2:30 p.m., at the St. Margaret of Scotland School Cafeteria. Materials will be provided. Free will offering will be accepted. All are welcome. Call Karen at 412-921-0745, x13, to reserve a spot or for further information. Please join us to learn a lifelong skill to honor Mary and share with others.

THE CATHOLIC VISION OF LOVE (CVOL) PARENT MEETING

A CVOL meeting will take place on Tuesday, April 2, in the St. Margaret of Scotland School Cafeteria at 6:15 p.m. This meeting is for parents ONLY. Although CVOL is woven into the curriculum of all grade levels, it is particularly important for parents to attend if they have students in Grades Five through Eight. If you have not attended a CVOL meeting in the past, please consider joining us! Our presenter is Judene Indovina, Director of Family Ministry and Faith Formation in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Please RSVP today, Sunday, March 31, to Mary Kay Smith, 412-276-1011 ext. 222 or education@seascarnegie.org.

From Father Grecco regarding the celebration of the Sacred Triduum 2019

Friends, I present to you the schedule for the Holy Week services in our grouping. This decision was extremely difficult to make because of the attachment we still have to “our “church building and” our” Mass times. As with the preparation of the Christmas schedule, I am aware that I cannot please everyone. I assure you I made my best effort.

The Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil/Day) is ideally celebrated in one place. That is a practice toward which we will work. Although separate ceremonies, they are enmeshed and celebrate one reality--the passion, death, and resurrection of the Lord. The circumstances in which we now find ourselves make one location impossible without hurt feelings or presumed favoritism toward one church building.

Many aspects of the location selected for particular services are based on the benefits/unique aspects of a church building. Of course, the size of the building is always primary in the process. We need to be able to fit into the space all who want to attend for the holy days. Additionally, as we now have a combined traditional choir, there needs to be appropriate space for them as well as acoustics that will enhance the singers and instrumentalists. The ability for the participants to view what is happening (i.e. the washing of the feet; veneration of the cross; lighting of the Easter fire) is an important component when selecting a site. Additionally, the scheduling must keep in mind the availability of priests and organists and their ability to be available for the numerous Mass times required.

Some necessary information to review:

Seating capacity

SEAS 625

SMOS 650

SSJ 850

Total participants 2018

Holy Thursday 786 (219 SEAS + 358 SSJ + 209 SMOS)

Good Friday 775 (297 SEAS + 292 SSJ + 186 SMOS)

Easter Vigil 560 (212 SEAS + 158 SSJ + 190 SMOS)

Based on this information, there is only one site that could easily accommodate the numbers. What follows will be the plan, as a trial run, for this year's Triduum celebration. Next year, based on what we as priests experience, the schedule may be very different and we may concentrate services to fewer sites. In the coming year, we should make the effort to visit the other churches so as to become more comfortable, recognizing that we will not remain three separate parishes.

Thursday, April 18 Holy Thursday

(7:00 p.m.) Mass of the Lord's Supper (SSJ)

ALL churches decorated and open for visitation and Seven Church visitors until 11:00 p.m.

Friday, April 19 Good Friday

Stations of the Cross and Veneration of the Cross (12:00 noon) (SSJ)

Commemoration of the Lord's Passion/Veneration of the Cross/Holy Communion (SEAS) (2:00 p.m.)

Stations of the Cross and Veneration of the Cross (6:30 p.m.) (SMOS)

Tenebrae Service of Darkness and Veneration of the Cross (8:00 p.m.) (SEAS)

Saturday, April 20

Blessing of Easter Baskets

10:00 (SSJ)

12:00 NOON (SMOS/ SEAS)

Solemn Vigil of Easter 8:30 p.m. (SMOS)

Sunday, April 21 Easter Sunday

(NOTE that the schedule is different so that we can make up for one fewer Mass on Saturday evening and to accommodate the large numbers of those may who attend on Easter.)

7:30 a.m. SSJ

8:00 a.m. SMOS

8:30 a.m. SEAS

9:30 a.m. SSJ

10:00 a.m. SMOS

10:30 a.m. SEAS

11:30 a.m. SSJ

12:00 noon SMOS

12:15 p.m. SEAS

WE MAY FIND THAT THE NUMBER OF MASSES SCHEDULED THIS YEAR IS TOO MANY. 50% of the church is to be utilized for a Mass to continue to be scheduled. Please do not presume the permanence of this schedule.

I BELIEVE!

As we continue our weekly reflections about the beautiful gift of the Mass from the perspective of evangelization, we now come to the moment in the Mass when we stand as a community and profess the Creed. The Creed is a summary of our Catholic faith, and is the result of many years of prayer and study by Church Fathers, theologians, and the like. Not one single word in it is accidental. Some of the words in it are ones we don't use very often, but they have been carefully chosen by our ancestors in the faith to explain very deep truths. The Creed has the potential of being one of our most effective evangelization tools. Why? Because it's a concise, but very thorough, statement of what we, as Catholic Christians actually believe. It's a powerful statement of the Gospel message that we live by and live for. Dr. Edward Sri, theologian, author, and Catholic speaker, says that if we proclaim the truths of the Creed with our life, it becomes our story. So, if it's well understood and proclaimed with intention and meaning, it will help us to be able to talk about 'the reason(s) for our hope'. (1 Peter 3:15) St. Augustine preached about the importance of the Creed:

"You have received it and recited it, but in your minds and hearts you must keep it ever present, you must repeat it in your beds, recall it in the public squares and not forget it during meals: even when your body is asleep, you must watch over it with your hearts."

Knowing all of this, let's really pay attention to the words, understand their meaning, say them as a prayer, and be ready to share and explain them to others. Our faith, indeed our whole Catholic life, is based on these precious words!

"Man is the creature with a mystery in his heart that is bigger than himself." — Hans Urs Von Balthasar

WELCOME TO THE RCIA CATECHUMENATE

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation!

In their statutes for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (No. 6), the Bishops write:

the unbaptized who enter the period of the catechumenate should preferably begin before Lent in one year and extend until Easter of the following year.

The RCIA process welcomes those who desire to be created in Christ, to be baptized as His new creation. And those who have experienced this Baptism but were unable to complete their Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist may also join the process and be prepared to ratify their creation in Christ. Call the Office for Initiation (412-276-1011 ext. 225) now to begin. Sessions are on Tuesday evenings or Sunday mornings.

CHILDREN'S PENANCE SERVICE:

For all children of the parish. Monday, April 1, 6:30 p.m. Parents are welcome! Please pray for our Second Grade students as they receive the Sacrament for the very first time!

SEAS S.A.M. PODCAST RELEASED

If you or loved ones struggle with addiction or substance abuse, give a listen to the S.A.M (Substance Addiction Ministry) 13-minute podcast created by Carlynton students. It's informative and hope-filled! S.A.M. is a ministry which promotes awareness, education, and prayer around the topic of substance addiction, and invites users, addicts, loved ones, and anyone who deals with these types of issues to a place of strength, hope, and mutual support. To listen, go to www.SEASCarnegie.org, click on the Community tab, and then on the SAM tab.

SEAS S.A.M. meetings are usually held on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m., preceded by the rosary at 6:30 p.m. Call 412-276-1011, for more information.

REMEMBER!

SVdP Spring Bundle Drive will be held on Saturday only, April 13, from 3:00-6:00 p.m. That's coming up SOON! Bring your items for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and our SEAS SVdP Conference to distribute to those in need.

Remember what St. Basil teaches us:

"When someone steals another's clothes, we call them a thief. Should we not give the same name to one who could clothe the naked and does not? The bread in your cupboard belongs to the hungry; the coat unused in your closet belongs to the one who needs it; the shoes rotting in your closet belong to the one who has no shoes; the money which you hoard up belongs to the poor."

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

This week our second collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 46 million people in the United States live in poverty today. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address obstacles as they work to make permanent and positive changes for their communities.
