FROM FR. GRECCO

"It was necessary that she who preserved her virginity inviolate in childbirth should also have her body kept free from corruption after death. It was necessary that she who carried the Creator as a child on her breast should dwell in the tabernacles of God. It was necessary that the bride espoused by the Father should make her home in the bridal chambers of heaven. It was necessary that she, who had gazed on her crucified Son and been pierced in the heart by the sword of sorrow which she had escaped in giving him birth, should contemplate him seated with the Father. It was necessary that the Mother of God should share the possessions of her Son, and be venerated by every creature as the Mother and handmaid of God." —St John Damascene

The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is commemorated this Thursday, August 15. This is a holy day of obligation. Healthy Catholics who are not truly restricted from attending are expected to participate at Mass as on Sunday. Just as freely choosing to miss Mass on the weekend is a serious sin, so it is for absence from celebrations of the holy days that occur during the week.

In addition to last week's announcement of vocations from our parish grouping, I am happy to include Michael Healy from SSJ who recently entered the Marians of the Immaculate Conception. He has begun his year of postulancy in Steubenville, OH. Please pray for Mike and all who have accepted the call to priesthood, diaconate, and religious life.

We receive numerous requests for "authorization" for folks to act as sponsors and godparents. To fulfill that role one must be a registered "practicing Catholic", attending mass regularly on Sundays and holydays; be at least 16 years of age; if married, married in the Church by a Catholic priest or deacon; if unmarried, not in a cohabiting relationship. Ideally, the request for eligibility form comes three weeks before the event. I cannot assure that last minute requests will be honored as the caller expects. Registration in the parish must also take place in advance. We have to be able to authentically confirm that you have a "history of Faith".

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SOULS OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Laura Castelli
Donald Miller

Please pray for members of our parish and community who have asked for our prayers:

Brian Bishop, Stefani & Brendan Carroll, Elisa Carsia, Helen Cassidy, Tim Castello Jr., Anna Mae Conroy, Jean Conway, Katie Denke, Patty Drury, Kathi Dvorak, Jo-Ann Eller, Patti Eurich, Ron Ferrie, Edward M. Please call the Parish Office to be placed on our prayer list.

If you or a loved one are admitted to a hospital or nursing home, please let us know so we can get you the proper spiritual care. Because of the HIPAA law, treatment facilities are not permitted to release your information to us unless you or your family give them permission to do so.

MISSION AT SSJ

Rev. Mr. William Todd Church representing the Diocese of Gallup will be speaking at Ss. Simon and Jude this weekend, August 10-11, supplying us with information on ways that we might help further the mission works in his Diocese. The Diocese of Gallup covers over 55,000 square miles of Northeastern Arizona and Northwestern New Mexico, which encompasses seven Native American reservations and pueblos. It serves 58,000 Catholics and this makes it one of our Nation's largest and poorest Diocese.

ENTRANCE HYMN | FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

1. Faith of our fathers, living still In spite of dungeon, fire and sword;
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to you till death.
2. Faith of our mothers, daring faith,
Your work for Christ is love revealed,
Spreading God's word from pole to pole,
Making love known and freedom real.
Faith of our mothers, holy faith,
We will be true to you till death.
3. Faith of our sisters, brothers, too,
Who still must bear oppression's might,
Raising on high, in prisons dark,
The cross of Christ still burning bright.
Faith for today, O living faith,
We will be true to you till death.
4. Faith born of God, O call us yet;
Bind us with all who follow you,
Sharing the struggle of your cross
Until the world is made anew.
Faith born of God, O living faith,
We will be true to you till death.

FIRST READING | WIS 18:6-9

The night of the passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage. Your people awaited the salvation of the just and the destruction of their foes.

For when you punished our adversaries, in this you glorified us whom you had summoned. For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice and putting into effect with one accord the divine institution.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM | PSALM 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22

Bless-ed the peo-ple the Lord has cho - sen to be his own.

Ring out your joy to the LORD, O you just;
for praise is fitting for the upright.
Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people he has chosen as his heritage. R.

who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.
May your merciful love be upon us,
as we hope in you, O LORD. R.

Yes, the LORD's eyes are on those who fear him,

SECOND READING | HEB 11:1-2, 8-19 OR [HEB 11:1-2, 8-12]

[Brothers and sisters:
Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.
Because of it the ancients were well attested.
By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance;
he went out, not knowing where he was to go.
By faith he sojourned in the promised land as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs of the same promise; for he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and maker is God.
By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age—and Sarah herself was sterile—for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy.
So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore.]

All these died in faith.
They did not receive what had been promised but saw it and greeted it from afar and acknowledged themselves to be strangers and aliens on earth, for those who speak thus show that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land from which they had come, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better homeland, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.
By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, of whom it was said, "Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name." He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | MT 24: 42A, 44

Stay awake and be ready!
For you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

GOSPEL | LK 12:32-48 OR [LK 12:35-40]

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock,
for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.
Sell your belongings and give alms.
Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.
For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.
["Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.
Blessed are those servants
whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.
Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.
And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way,
blessed are those servants.
Be sure of this:
if the master of the house had known the hour
when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.
You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."] Then Peter said,
"Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?"

And the Lord replied,

"Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?
Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so.
Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property.
But if that servant says to himself,
'My master is delayed in coming,'
and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant's master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful.
That servant who knew his master's will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely; and the servant who was ignorant of his master's will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly.
Much will be required of the person entrusted with much,
and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, (All bow at the following bolder words)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Take and drink; take and drink: this is my blood giv - en up for you.

1. I am the Word that spoke and light was made; I am the seed that died to be reborn;

I am the morning star that never sets; Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.

I am the bridegroom, this my wedding song; You are my bride, come to the marriage feast.

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

—1 Corinthians 3:9

WE EVANGELIZE

Last week we talked about ministry opportunities and the connection between ministry and evangelization. But what qualities lend themselves to being the type of ministry volunteer who can be an effective agent of evangelization?

One quality would be to be a person of prayer, someone who is in 'constant contact' with the Father, learning His will and His desires for our life, through relationship with Him.

Another important quality of an evangelizing volunteer is to be a person who strives to understand the beautiful faith that has been taught and handed down to us by Jesus, so that we can better live it out in our daily lives, and so that we can explain the 'reason for our hope'.

Finally, evangelizing Catholics need to be reaching out to share with others the fruits of the Holy Spirit that come to us as a result of our prayer life and our study of the faith.

Ministry actually gives us a forum to practice our faith, hope, and charity with our sisters and brothers in the faith, and also to reach out to help those who don't yet know the real answer to what they need, and for what they are seeking.

To better learn about the many opportunities to grow in these three areas stay tuned to this bulletin as we explore some of what Grouping 210 has to offer.

"The Lord gives each of us a vocation, a challenge to discover the talents and abilities we possess and to put them at the service of others."

— Pope Francis

Temple Emanuel Synagogue is sponsoring an event that will help seniors become more familiar with the services which are available in the community as they age. The event addresses the needs of seniors, but it is very appropriate for their adult children who may someday become their parent's caretaker. The event is free, and open to the public.

Age Well will speak about the services available to help seniors stay in their homes as they age.

Senior Life Advisors will speak about the services when circumstances require an institutional facility.

SENIORS & CAREGIVERS

AgeWell helps seniors live a healthy and independent life at home.

Learn more about AgeWell services at a FREE presentation. Seniors will learn what services will help them stay in their home, and adult children will learn where they can get help when they suddenly become caregivers for their parents.

Where:

Temple Emanuel of South Hills
1250 Bower Hill Road

When:

Wednesday, September 25, 2019
7:30 PM

Admission is FREE, but please RSVP to be sure that we have enough seating at (412) 279 7600.

TEMPLE
EMANUEL
of SOUTH HILLS

AgeWell Pittsburgh services are provided without regard to race, sex, color, national origin, ancestry religious creed, disability or age.

We will also provide state and local brochures which explain about other services which are available.

After the presentations, there will be a meet and greet with the presenters as well as other organizations which provide services for seniors. For example, the Temple Emanuel Caring Community will explain what they do for seniors. Another group, Check Mates, will explain how they maintain contact with shut-ins.

One day Jesus will come back from heaven. He could come back any day now - nobody knows when. So, you and I need to be ready. Put God first in your life. Love God with your whole heart. Live every day in a way that will make Jesus smile. Be ready to go to heaven!

Prayer

Dear God, help me to stay close to Jesus.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus coming back in the clouds.

Mission for the Week

Every day I will read, play, and listen to things that make God happy.
