FROM FR. GRECCO

Congratulations to staff Care Minister, Laura O'Keeffe who recently graduated from Duquesne University graduate program with a Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry!

The bishop recently provided priest administrators with the guidance needed to prepare for the re-opening of the churches for public services and prayer. The document in its entirety can be found on the diocesan website: https://d2y1pz2y630308.cloudfront.net/16469/documents/2020/5/DIOPITT MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER.pdf

Some highlights:

Immediate Preparation to Open Your Church

- Review guidelines and evaluate your church space. Keep in mind that social distancing of 6- feet is required and must be maintained for all services.
- Clean and sanitize a designated space before opening as well as before and after each use following the Cleaning and Sanitizing guidelines.
- Designate one entrance and a separate single exit in each church building, and clearly mark them as such.
- Make hand sanitizer stations available at key locations within the church including at the entrance.
- Mark off pews, floors, open church areas, and any guidance needed regarding access to bathrooms to fulfill 6-feet social distancing requirements.
- Communicate necessary guidelines and requirements to parishioners so they know what to expect.

Requirements for Attendees

- Number of attendees will be designated by state and federal guidelines, and enforced.
- Follow all CDC guidelines as posted, and stay home when sick.
- Must follow facility protocol in order to enter and remain in facility.
- Wear facial covering/mask
- Rostering of attendees – if an attendee becomes ill with COVID-19, attendees will be contacted to be alerted of the potential risk and symptoms of COVID-19.
- Most vulnerable (over 65, compromised immune or respiratory health, diabetes) encouraged to stay home.
- Must observe safety guidelines regarding the celebration of Mass including directives regarding Holy Communion and the Sign of Peace

As the obligation to attend Mass will be suspended for the foreseeable future, I encourage those who are retired and are of the particular demographic for the illness to "Keep Sunday throughout the week". I will provide more information about my plan on the parish website and in next weekend's bulletin.

Please pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

PENITENTIAL ACT | KYRIE

Ky - ri-e e - le - i - son. Lord, have mer-cy. Chri - ste e - le - i - son, Christ, have mer-cy. Ky - ri-e e - le - i - son, Lord, have mer-cy.

GLORIA

Glo - ry to God in the high - est, — glo - ry to God, and on earth peace to peo - ple, peo - ple of good will!

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE ORDER OF MASS

FIRST READING | ACTS 1:12-14

After Jesus had been taken up to heaven the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they entered the city they went to the upper room where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew,

Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 27:1, 4, 7-8

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life;
whom should I dread?

There is one thing I ask of the LORD, only this do I seek: to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD, to inquire at his temple.

O LORD, hear my voice when I call;
have mercy and answer me.
Of you my heart has spoken,
"seek his face."

Text: Psalm 27: The Revised Grail, Conception Abbey © 2010 GIA Publications, Inc. Tune: Michel Guimont, ©1994, 2011

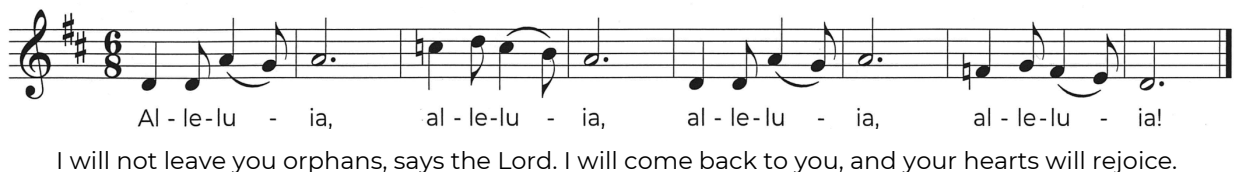

SECOND READING | 1 PETER 4:13-16

Beloved:
Rejoice to the extent that you share in the sufferings of Christ, so that when his glory is revealed you may also rejoice exultantly. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.

But let no one among you be made to suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as an intriguer. But whoever is made to suffer as a Christian should not be ashamed but glorify God because of the name.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | JOHN 14:18

GOSPEL | JOHN 17:1-11

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that your son may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work that you gave me to do. Now glorify me, Father, with you, with the glory that I had with you before the world began. I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you gave me is from you, because the words you gave to me I have given to them, and they accepted them and truly understood that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for the ones you have given me, because they are yours, and everything of mine is yours and everything of yours is mine, and I have been glorified in them. And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE ORDER OF MASS

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

all bow at the following bolder words and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come as least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen.

A EUCCHARISTIC BLESSING ON PENTECOST SUNDAY

Sunday, May 31
1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

At all churches in the
210 Grouping

The priests and deacons will be stationed at each of the churches between 1:00-2:00 p.m. to bless with the Blessed Sacrament any cars that stop for this purpose. You are not permitted to leave your car. The churches will not be opened for visits. The minister will maintain the six-foot social distancing. All you need to do is pull-up and a Eucharistic blessing will be given to those in the vehicle. Following the blessing, participants are to immediately depart the property.

Directions to access the churches and the Eucharistic blessing:

SSJ

Enter from Greentree Rd as usual. Stay in the travel lane along the curb where the Stations of the Cross are located. Follow the travel lane along the curb lane passing the administration building and stopping at the designated location for the blessing (indicated by traffic cones). Proceed out of the campus as you would usually on to Greentree road.

SMOS

Enter off of Greentree Road at the School sign (school sign indicates this procedure). Follow the curb lane and pass IN FRONT of the school to arrive at the church car port. (Do NOT proceed down the hill behind the school.) You will receive your blessing and then exit FOR THIS INSTANCE ONLY on to Mansfield Avenue.

SEAS

Proceed to the Third Avenue entrance of the church from Third Street toward Forth Street. Pull up into the curb lane so as to allow traffic to continue to move.

At all locations there will be an altar and members of the clergy. You are welcomed to visit all three if your wish, being attentive to the entrance and exit procedure of each location.

We're looking forward to seeing you!

Join us for a Virtual May Crowning

Thursday, May 28, at 1:00 p.m.

BLESSED ARE THEY WHO MOURN, FOR THEY WILL BE COMFORTED.

-MATTHEW 5: 4

As we celebrate Memorial Day on May 25, our thoughts and prayers are with our dearly departed loved ones, especially those who sacrificed their lives in military service. We pray for the repose of their souls and treasure our precious memories of the gift of their lives.

The pandemic situation which we are in has caused unprecedented disruption of our lives, and more sadly, in the way we part with those we love. Families are not able to be at the bedside of those who are dying, and we have not been able to celebrate any funerals for the past two months. Pray for God's mercy and comfort for the members of our community who are approaching the end of their earthly lives and those who are grieving, as their burdens are especially heavy at this time.

As we are transitioning into the "yellow" phase of the state of emergency in Pennsylvania, the Church is now able to have funerals on a limited basis. Because we are still at risk for spread of the coronavirus, many precautions are in place for funeral Masses. We are making every attempt to comfort the grieving as the sacrifice of the Mass is offered for their loved one and prioritizing the health and safety of all present. Some of our current procedures include:

- A total of 25 people can gather in the church (clergy, staff, and funeral home staff are included in this number).
- All attendees must wear a mask.
- Attendees must sit in designated pews.
- Family members and friends of the deceased cannot have liturgical roles (no readers or gift bearers) or deliver remarks of remembrance (eulogy) at this time.
- Church restrooms are not open.
- Committal prayers will be offered in church and clergy will not go to the cemetery.

These and other measures will be taken to minimize exposure to, and spread of, infection. In the future, we are working to be able to schedule Memorial Masses for those who died when we were completely unable to celebrate funeral Masses. Please know that all of our beloved deceased members are in the prayers of our community, and our clergy and pastoral care staff are available by phone if we can be of any service to those in need of consolation and prayer.

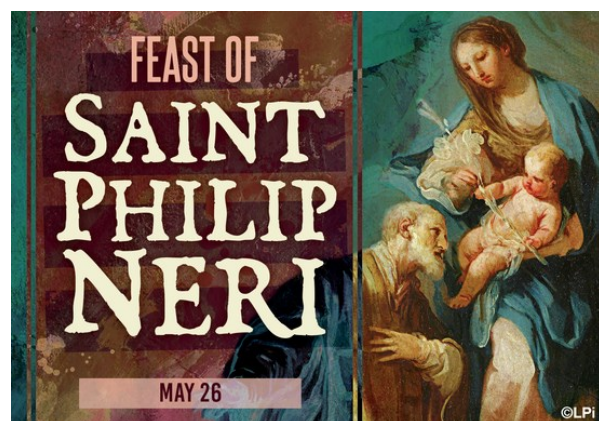

'TIS THE MONTH OF OUR MOTHER

'Tis the month of our Mother,
The blessed and beautiful days,
When our lips and our spirits
Are glowing with love and with praise.

All hail to dear Mary,
The Guardian of our way.
To the fairest of all Queens
Be the fairest of seasons, sweet May.

Oh what peace to Her children
'Mid sorrows and trials to know,
That the love of their Mother
Hath ever a solace for woe.

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

"ONE-ANOTHERING"

WE EVANGELIZE

As a Catholic Community, we care about each other, AND we care about all of the others who aren't yet of one and the same Spirit.

As we begin gradually to return to the Church building, to 'live and in-person' Mass and Eucharist (as opposed to 'live-streamed Masses and Spiritual Communion'), in smaller numbers than before due to imposed health and safety limitations, let's look around and pray in spirit with, and for, those who AREN'T here...maybe because they can't, or shouldn't, or don't want to be here.

Let's remember and appreciate, as fully as possible, the amazing gift and privilege that we've been given in our faith, and recognize the responsibility that comes with it. Let's make a conscious effort to pray for, and then accompany, those 'missing in action', so that they will persevere in the faith, or join us in this beautiful Church.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations... teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

— Matthew 28: 19-20

Since our graduates are missing the opportunity to celebrate with a big commencement exercise, a baccalaureate ceremony, or a large group blessing at Mass, we would like to celebrate them in the pages of the bulletin!

All students who are graduating from High School or College are invited to send us a photo! Tell us who you are, what school you attended, and what you're planning for the future! Let us know which of our three churches was your home parish. Feel free to include your parent and siblings names, too!

If you are 18 or older, this is also a great opportunity to join the parish grouping on your own, as a young adult!

Send information to: bulletin@cgscatholic.org

ABOUT

*Eucharistic Adoration
Liturgy of the Hours
Lectio Divina*

Do you sense a need for an increase in any of these in your life: Joy, Peace, Patience, Self-control, Goodness, Gentleness, Faithfulness, Kindness, Charity? The Holy Spirit does, and is ready to give us these and more. All we need do is pray, and ask.

Adoration can help because it opens us up to the Holy Spirit. Lectio Divina can help because it teaches us to listen better. Liturgy of the Hours can help because it immerses us in the Word of God. Come, Holy Spirit!

We have wonderful parishioners who take the time each week to pray for those on our prayer request column on page 3. When we add a new name to that list, it is in bold print so you can easily see the new name. Thank you for your prayers!

There is one name that has been there for several months. It belongs to one of our youngest students in the Faith Formation Program: First Grade student, Teresa Stacy. Teresa was born with congenital heart disease and needed three extensive surgeries before age 3.

Most recently, Teresa, now 7, was diagnosed with Stage 4 thyroid cancer. She underwent a 10-hour surgery to remove as much of the disease as possible.

This week she endured multiple tests so she could begin iodine treatments in the hopes of shrinking any remaining cancer cells. This procedure requires her to be in isolation for 4 to 6 days. Imagine being just seven years old in isolation!

If you would like to send some love by way of cards and letters, it would be such a nice gesture from her parish family! Wouldn't it be great to keep her busy for weeks opening all the mail? She is such a faith-filled, kind, and loving little girl! Let's flood her with faith and love and prayers!

Join us! Display a cross, a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or a statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus! Illuminate it with an electric candle!

We would love to see your window! Send a picture to bulletin@CGScatholic.org

If you do not have the ability to take and send a photo, we would gladly stop by the outside of your home and snap a picture! Let us know! email: bulletin@cgscatholic.org or call: 412-857-5356 press 1 then extension 422. Make sure you leave your address including the zip code so we can find your house!

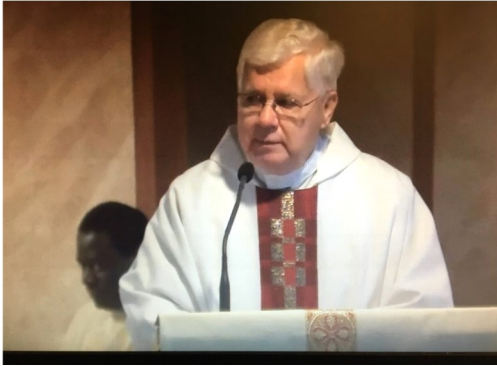

Thanks to all who are participating in this unique way to evangelize and give hope to our neighbors!

ST. MARGARET OF SCOTLAND SCHOOL

As part of a Religion assignment last week, the 2nd Grade students designed May Altars. They did a fantastic job creating their altars to honor our Blessed Mother. Here are pictures of a few of them.

After celebrating 50 years in the priesthood by presiding at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, Fr. John was surprised by parishioners who waited in the parking lot until the Mass ended, and surprised him with a chorus of honking horns! Congratulations, Fr. Gudewicz!

LEAVEN INITIATIVE - Alpha Catholic Online to be offered Diocesan-Wide

To provide greater spiritual support to adults during COVID restrictions, Alpha Catholic will be available online at the end of May for a 10-week Christian video series. Alpha provides a safe-space for small groups where those who may be unsure about Christianity can explore the "big questions" of life and also be a powerful experience for those already engaged in faith to re-ignite their relationship with the Lord. Alpha focuses on relationships - especially having a meaningful connection with God. Alpha is for anyone and everyone, at any point in their faith journey - from non-believers to regular active participants in church.

Alpha

Online Alpha begins with social time in your small group, followed by a short video, and then a small group discussion occurs about topics set forth in the videos. The small groups allow for wonderful sharing. There isn't an obligation to say anything, and there is nothing you cannot say. Alpha is not about "preaching or teaching". It is an opportunity to hear from others and contribute your own perspective in a friendly and open environment.

Three tracks will be available: Young Adult, Adult and Spanish. The cost is free. (Sponsored by the Leaven Initiative of the Diocese of Pittsburgh with the support of St. Mary's in Glenshaw.)

Beginning Tuesday, May 26: Ages 40 and Over

Beginning Wednesday, May 27: Under 40 Ages

For more information, please visit: <https://www.stmaryglenshaw.org/alpha>
