PRAYER & WORSHIP

FROM THE PASTOR

"[Work] is not only good in the sense that it is useful or something to enjoy; it is also good as being something worthy...something that corresponds to man's dignity, that expresses this dignity and increases it. If one wishes to define more clearly the ethical meaning of work, it is this truth that one must particularly keep in mind. Work is a good thing for man—a good thing for his humanity—because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes "more a human being".

—Pope St. John Paul II, Laborem Exercens (On Human Work) #9, 1981.

I look forward to seeing many of you at the first parish picnic next weekend at Scott Park. Our community benefits greatly (and firstly) from our gatherings at Mass; we continue to bond in the social activities which we enjoy. Even though the "On Mission" has made us much bigger than we were before, we can still get to know each other and (based upon that knowledge) care about and for each other as a parish family.

Special thanks to the Alfonso & Sons Landscaping and Lawn Service for the annual beautification of the Guardian Angel Academy property!

NEW FEATURE

Today we begin, as promised, a new listing in our bulletin. It is our Military Prayer Remembrance column. We will be listing our loved ones who are currently in active duty (or reserves) in one of the branches of our military. The men and women listed here are willing to give their lives for our freedom. Let us pray for them regularly, and let us pray for peace on earth. See page 12.

LABOR DAY!

In the Catholic tradition, work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continued participation in God's creative action. We pray for the men and women whose jobs have been impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic.

The Parish Offices will be closed on Labor Day. There will be one Mass celebrated at Ss. Simon and Jude Church at 9:00 a.m.

Please pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

PENITENTIAL RITE / KYRIE

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, (all strike their breast as they say;)
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Ky - ri - e,____ e - le - i - son. Chri - ste,____ e - le - i - son. Ky - ri - e,____ e - le - i - son.

GLORIA

Glo - ri - a!____ Glo - ri - a! Glo - ry to God in the high² - est, and on earth peace to peo - ple, to peo - ple of good will!

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE ORDER OF MASS

FIRST READING | ISAIAH 35:4-7

Thus says the LORD:

Say to those whose hearts are frightened:

Be strong, fear not!

Here is your God,

he comes with vindication;

with divine recompense

he comes to save you.

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,

the ears of the deaf be cleared;

then will the lame leap like a stag,

then the tongue of the mute will sing.

Streams will burst forth in the desert, and rivers in the steppe.

The burning sands will become pools, and the thirsty ground, springs of water.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 146:6-10

It is the LORD who preserves fidelity for ever, who does justice to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the LORD who sets prisoners free.

The LORD who opens the eyes of the blind, the LORD who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the LORD who loves the just, the LORD who protects the stranger.

The LORD upholds the orphan and the widow, but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The LORD will reign for ever, the God of Sion from age to age.

Text: Psalm 15 The Revised Grail, Conception Abbey © 2010 GIA Publications, Inc. Tune: Michel Guimont, © 2011

SECOND READING | JAMES 2:1-5

My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.
For if a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in,
and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Sit here, please," while you say to the poor one, "Stand there," or "Sit at my feet,"

have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil designs?
Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters.
Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | MATTHEW 4:23

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

GOSPEL | MARK 7:31-37

Again Jesus left the district of Tyre and went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the district of the Decapolis. And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"— that is, "Be opened!" —

And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. He ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it. They were exceedingly astonished and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

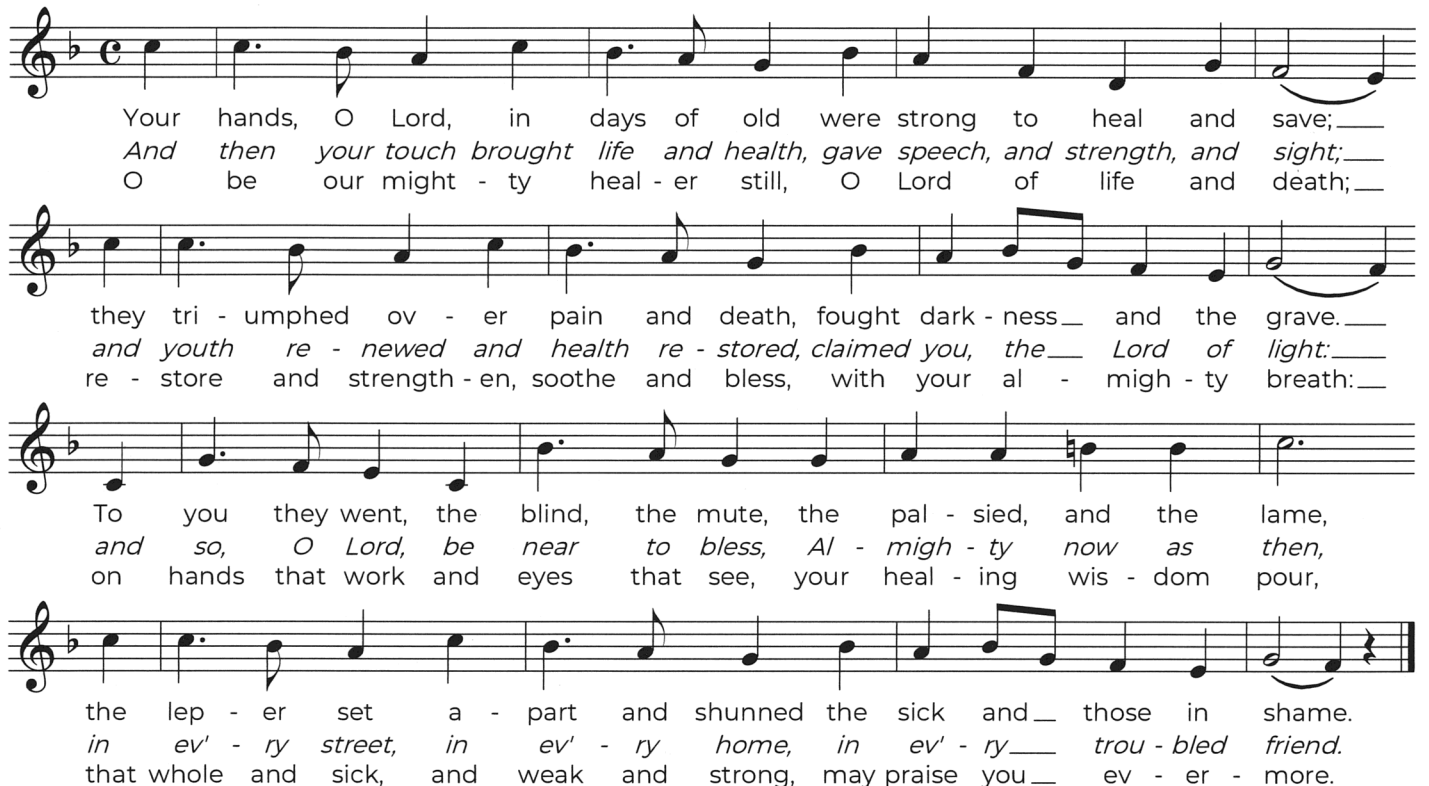

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow at the following bold words)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN | BREAD OF LIFE FROM HEAVEN

1. Break now the bread of Christ's sacrifice; Giving thanks, hungry ones gather round.
Eat, all of you, and be satisfied; In Christ's presence the loaves will abound.
2. Seek not the food that will pass away; Set your hearts on the food that endures.
Come, learn the true and the living way, That the fullness of life may be yours.
3. Love as the One who, in love for you, Gave himself for the life of the world.
Come to the One who is food for you, That your hunger and thirst be no more.
4. Take in the light that will never dim, Taste the life that is stronger than death.
Live in the One who will come and then Raise you up at the last with the blest.
5. Dwell in the One who now dwells in you; Make your home in the life-giving Word.
Know only Christ, Holy One of God, And believe in the truth you have heard.
6. Drink of this cup and declare his death; Eat this bread and believe Easter morn;
Trust his return and, with ev'ry breath, Praise the One in whom you are reborn.

Celebrating the Sacraments

Baptism

Brigitte

Born again by water and the Holy Spirit, we welcome two beautiful baby girls into the Church.

Last Sunday, at St. Margaret of Scotland Church, Deacon Paul celebrated the Baptisms of Brigitte Mercedes Frank, and Amelia Margaret Neely.

We offer our congratulations and ask for God's continued blessings to both families, especially to Brigitte's parents, Ruth and Jude Frank; and Amelia's parents, Alexandra and Ryan Neely.

May Jesus, who loves all children, bless these precious little ones with His love and grace, and grant them a lifetime of faith, happiness, and love.

CARING + GIVING + SERVING

"My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ."

—James 2: 1

Recently, a small group scripture study at St. Raphael was reflecting on St. Paul's approach to leading people of other cultures to faith in the Acts of the Apostles. They noticed that Paul was complimentary and sought common ground with the Corinthians. Rather than being critical of their lifestyle and false Gods, he took time to observe and listen before sharing his own experience of Jesus Christ with them. The discussion group contrasted this with the negative attacks on others who look, act, and think differently from ourselves today, and how the pervasiveness of social media fuels division. One person astutely observed that personal contact and relationship with someone who is "different" is key to transforming our fears, prejudices, and misconceptions into respect and understanding of the other.

Today's Gospel contains the description of a personal encounter of Jesus with a man who was deaf. Jesus takes the man to a private place away from the crowd. Scripture scholars will say that this quiet healing episode is characteristic of the Messianic Secret theme in Mark whereby Jesus did not want to reveal his identity as the Messiah before the time was right. It is possible that there is another reason Jesus took the deaf man away from the crowd. Perhaps Jesus was being sensitive to the specific needs of this person. If the man was suddenly able to hear and the crowd reacted in a loud and dramatic manner, that could have been very frightening to him. Instead, Jesus calmly and quietly heals him, and the first voice the man hears is that of Jesus. Imagine that!

The impact of personal encounter cannot be overemphasized. This week, seek the opportunity to greet someone you don't know; ask someone about their beliefs and values and just listen and learn about them; and be open and sensitive to the needs of others. Challenge yourself to call or visit a person rather than interacting superficially and narcissistically via social media. Try to see others as God sees them.

AN INVITATION

to Women of the Parish

A new year begins for the Christian Mothers & Women's Guild. You are invited to come and be a part of our newly-formed St. Raphael the Archangel chapter. In addition to praying together, the CM&WG support one another, and support our parish. Through fundraising, outreach, and volunteering, this group strives to share the fruits of our labors with our parish and our community. There is also much laughter and fun shared among these women of faith. Come and see what it is all about. The Installation Mass for the new officers begins at 6:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church. Please take the time to begin this year the BEST way possible: at the table of the Lord. We will then meander downstairs to St. Luke Hall for light refreshments and dessert. We have some business to address (our Cash Bash is less than a month away!) and then we can spend some time getting to know one another. It will be fun! We hope you will join us!

FAITH FORMATION PARENT MEETING

A meeting for parents who have enrolled a child into the faith formation program will be held on Tuesday, September 7, at 6:30 p.m. at Ss. Please contact Sharon Smoller for more information at ssmoller@straphaelcgs.org or 412-857-5356.

Recently, there was a devastating fire at the Knights of Columbus facility in Crafton. The destruction included a large quantity of goods that had been stored there by the St. Vincent de Paul Society, destined to help the poor in Appalachia.

The parish of St. Raphael the Archangel will hold a clothing drive to replenish that supply. You are asked to gather clothing, shoes, small appliances, and housewares to donate for this cause.

OF PARTICULAR NEED IS CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

There will be people from the St. Vincent de Paul Society to accept your donations at the upper parking lot of St. Margaret of Scotland Church, between 8:00 a.m. and Noon, on Saturday, September 18.

These items will be taken directly to the people of Appalachia. We thank you in advance for your generosity in this matter.

We are continuing our Tuesday evening walks as long as we have daylight. Anyone can come along for the fun on Tuesday evening, September 7, at 7:00 p.m. We meet at the Blessed Mother shrine in the SSJ parking lot for opening prayer. We walk at whatever pace people are comfortable and chat along the way for 45-60 minutes, then close with prayer. It's a great way to meet other St. Raphael parishioners. In case of thunderstorms or heavy rain, we will cancel. If you have any questions, please contact Laura at (412) 857-5356 or laura@straphaelcgs.org.

THIS WEEKEND:

The Outdoor Rosary for An End to the Pandemic

JOIN OUR ST. RAPHAEL PARISH FAMILY TODAY, Sunday, September 5, in the Ss. Simon and Jude Church parking lot in front of the Blessed Mother statue to pray the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary and a Divine Mercy Chaplet for an end to the coronavirus and its effects on our Church, nation, and world.

—WE WILL GATHER AT 2:00 P.M. —

We will pray for the intercession of our patron, Saint Raphael, "the Medicine of God" and our Blessed Mother for the end to the pandemic that is in its second year. We will also ask our Merciful Lord to bring peace and healing from the death, illness, social and economic hardship, and division brought on by the pandemic. Come, and lift your voice and heart with others in prayer for healing and peace. In the case of rain, we will move into the church. Invite friends and family to this special parish event.

BACK TO SCHOOL FOR OUR VOLUNTEERS

Hello, Volunteers,

It is back to school time for all of us. A new online course has been added to your profile and everyone (employees, volunteers, clergy) has to complete it. It is entitled, "Protecting God's Children Maltreatment 3.2 and Vulnerable Adults Training." It is very informative and relevant to our work in the church and especially as it pertains to all volunteers. It is online and takes about an hour to complete. There is no need to print out a certificate at the end of the course; I will be able to see that you completed it and I can print the certificate for your file. To get started, click the link on our homepage at straphaelcgs.org. If you have forgotten your username, password, or can't seem to access this course, please call me, Karen Maurer, at 412-857-5356, or email me at karen@straphaelcgs.org and I will be glad to help you. If you do not have a computer, please set up an appointment with me to complete it in my office. This is a re-certification training which is a follow-up from Protecting God's Children Class. Every 3 years everyone will be required to re-certify. Thank you so much for Going Back to School with us this Fall.

CHOOSING DEAFNESS

If you're a parent, you know that hearing evaluations are usually done at a child's annual physical exam starting around age four. The little person gets hoisted up onto the exam table, fitted with a pair of special headphones, and then they need raise their hand when they hear a sound.

I bet all of us parents who have sat through one of these tests with a preschooler — especially a particularly strong-willed one — have experienced a moment where we ask ourselves: I wonder if there's something wrong with her hearing. Is that why she doesn't listen to me? 'Come here, put on your shoes, pick up your toys, finish your carrots, don't touch that' — she isn't being naughty, she just can't hear it!

And then that moment, for those of us whose kids passed the hearing test with flying colors, comes crashing down into a realization that, yep, they can hear just fine. They're just choosing deafness.

But how can we really get mad when we remember that we do the same thing to God day in and day out? I often wonder if God, sitting in His Heaven, tires of calling to us in the same way young parents tire of calling out unheeded directions to their small children. Help that person. Hear My voice. Open your heart. Give of yourself here. Talk to Me.

What is the call He wishes you to hear today? Can you hear it? Are you listening?
