

THE PARISH OF SAINT RAPHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

NOVEMBER 2, 2025

Welcome!

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Raphael the Archangel in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, established in 2021, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of the communities of Carnegie, Green Tree, and Scott. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and, in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy, and Eternal Life.

FROM THE PASTOR

Who we proclaim is Jesus Christ—how we are to do it is energetically! What we proclaim is the Kingdom of God—how we are to do it is vivaciously! If we believe that we hold a message of salvation for the world to share, we must be vibrant, energetic, and vivacious in proclaiming it! We are to fulfill the mandate of Jesus that, as a result of enthusiasm, we become responsive to the needs of others. We experience first the joy of life in Christ and then share it with others!

"In full consciousness of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honored with great respect the memory of the dead... Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercession for us effective." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 958) Don't forget to include the names of your deceased family members and friends in the "Book of Remembrance" located in each church. The deceased will be remembered at prayer during Masses celebrated here throughout the month of November.

Many thanks to those who planned and worked to make possible the recent Food Truck Fridays.

Thanks also to the parish Christian Mothers and Women's Guild who worked so very hard to make last weekend's "Cash Bash" not only fiscally successful, but also a great social evening.

For those who are required before the end of the calendar year to take a "Required Minimum Distribution" from investments, please consider applying the "RMD" to the parish Capital Campaign to benefit the reduction of the parish debt. Remember that the Diocese of Pittsburgh will match dollar-for-dollar contributions up to one half of our goal of $1.1 million dollars. Soon envelopes will be included in your Offertory Envelope delivery specifically indicating "Capital Campaign." Those envelopes will be happily received as soon as you are ready to make use of them. Please do not use them as a replacement of your regular Offertory gift.

Please pray those who have asked for our prayers:

At the 11:00 a.m. Mass at Ss. Simon and Jude Church, to commemorate those who have passed away in the last year, the names of the deceased will be read aloud. As each name is mentioned, a candle will be lit in their memory, symbolizing the light they brought into the world, the enduring legacy they leave behind, and the faith we share in Christ our Light. This tradition offers a moment for the community to come together in remembrance and reflection.

For those in attendance, the list of names can be found on pages 14 and 15 of this bulletin.

PENITENTIAL RITE / KYRIE

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE ORDER OF MASS

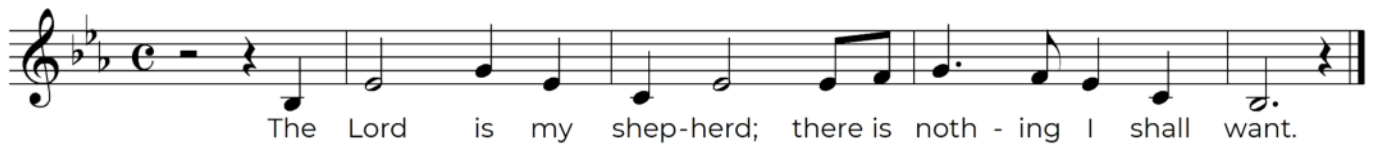

FIRST READING | WISDOM 3: 1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.
They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.
But they are in peace.
For if before men, indeed, they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;
chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them
and found them worthy of himself.

As gold in the furnace, he proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.
In the time of their visitation they shall shine,
and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;
they shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord shall be their King forever.
Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love:
because grace and mercy are with his holy ones,
and his care is with his elect.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 23

1. The Lord is my shepherd; There is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me; he revives my soul.
2. He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name. Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death, no evil would I fear, for you are with me. Your crook and staff will give me comfort.
3. You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing
4. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for length of days unending.

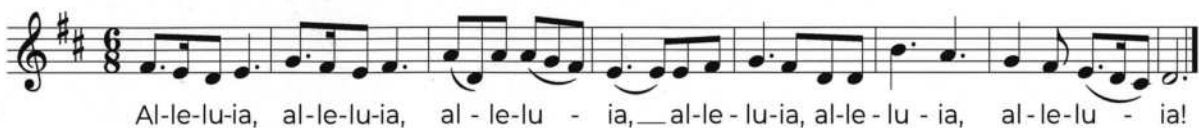

SECOND READING | 2 TIMOTHY 4: 6-8, 16-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | MATTHEW 25:34

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

GOSPEL | JOHN 6: 37-40

Jesus said to the crowds:
"Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow at the following bolder words) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN | WE SHALL RISE AGAIN

We shall rise a-gain on the last_ day with the faith-ful, rich and poor. Com-ing to the house of Lord Je - sus, we will find an o - pen door there, we will find an o - pen door.

1. Come to me, all you weary, with your burdens and pain. Take my yoke on your shoulders and learn from me: I am gentle and humble, and your soul will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light.
2. Though we walk through the darkness, evil we do not fear. You are walking beside us with your rod and your staff. Only goodness and kindness follow us all our lives. We shall dwell in the Lord's house for so many years to come!
3. We depend on God's mercy, mercy which never fades. We remember our covenant and the promise Jesus made: If we die with Christ Jesus, we shall live with him, and if we are faithful, we shall reign with him!
4. Do not fear death's dominion, look beyond earth and grave. See the brightness of Jesus shining out to light our way. Loving Father and Spirit, loving Jesus the Son, all God's people together, we shall live on as one!
5. At the door there to greet us, martyrs, angels, and saints, and our fam'ly and loved ones, ev'ryone freed from their chains. We shall feel their acceptance, and the joy of new life. We shall join in the gathering, reunited in God's love!

RECESSIONAL HYMN | ON EAGLE'S WINGS

1. You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in his shadow for life, say to the Lord: "My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!"

And he will raise you up on ea-gle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand.

2. For to his angels he's given a command to guard you in all of your ways; upon their hands they will bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

National Vocation Awareness Week November 2-8

We will pray a Rosary for Vocations to the Priesthood on Wednesday, November 5 at 7:00 p.m. at Ss. Simon and Jude Church. All parishioners and any family and friends are invited to pray for men to answer the call to priesthood. We will also pray for priests, deacons, and those in religious life. If you are interested in joining our Parish Vocations Council or 31 Club, please contact Laura at laura@straphaelcgs.org or 412-857-5356, ext. 431.

Please remember in your prayer the seminarians, priests, and deacons of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, that they may be strengthened and guided in their vocations as they faithfully serve the Church and our community.

God is still calling men to the priesthood today, right here in our diocese.

Every seminarian has a story. Some first felt the call as children serving at the altar. Others heard God's voice much later, after college, careers, or even other life paths. What unites them is courage: the courage to say yes to Christ and to begin formation for the priesthood.

In the Diocese of Pittsburgh, seminarians spend years studying theology and philosophy, growing in prayer, and serving in parishes. Alongside their studies, they participate in hospital ministry, community outreach, parish life, etc., preparing to shepherd God's people with compassion and faith. Did you know that every vocation begins with prayer and encouragement? A kind word, a suggestion from a parishioner, or an invitation from a priest often sparks a young man to consider: "Could God be calling me?"

Your prayers and support make a difference. By praying for our seminarians by name, attending vocation events, and encouraging the young men in your parish, you become part of the Church's mission to nurture future priests.

Pray today for our seminarians and ask God to raise up more shepherds for tomorrow's Church.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Father of all Mercies, Provider of a bountiful Harvest, send Your Graces upon those You have called to gather the fruits of Your labor, preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you.

Open the hearts of Your children that they may discern Your Holy Will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ.

Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by Your Divine Word and Truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant Your Church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

CARING + GIVING + SERVING

They whom we love and lose are no longer where they were before. They are now wherever we are. -St. John Chrysostom

In this month of November, we pray for our departed family members and friends in a special way. The tradition of praying for the dead can be traced to the Second Book of Maccabees. In chapter 12, we are told, "it is, therefore, a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sin." (2 Maccabees 12: 46)

Those who die in God's grace, but with the effects of sin, must undergo purification in order to be able to be in the presence of God's glory in heaven (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1030-1032). Purgatory is suffering that is temporary to prepare for eternal salvation. We, the living, can assist the souls of our deceased loved ones with our prayers, sacrifices, and especially having Masses offered for them. Many of us save remembrance cards from funeral home visitations. Consider taking your remembrance cards out this month and praying intentionally each day of November for the repose of the soul of one of your dearly departed family members or friends. Also pray for those souls who have no one to pray for them.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed,
Through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.

INFORMATION

FUNERAL MASS PRE-PLANNING WORKSHOP

On Monday, November 17, our Pastoral Care Minister, Laura O'Keeffe, will offer a workshop on Funeral Mass Pre-Planning after our Noon Mass at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church. We will gather in the St. Maximilian Kolbe Room immediately following Mass. To ensure that enough materials are available, please register by contacting Laura at laura@straphaelcgs.org or 412- 857-5356, ext. 431. Walk-ins will also be welcome.

FAITH FORMATION ENCOUNTER NIGHT

This month's Faith Formation Encounter Family night takes place next Wednesday, November 12, at 6:30 p.m. in Ss. Simon and Jude Church. Parents/Guardians are reminded that all family sessions are part of the curriculum, and students are to attend. If a parent/guardian is unavailable to attend, you are asked to find a relative or friend to take your place; students are not to attend alone.

FIRST RECONCILIATION FAMILY SERVICE

Second graders of our parish preparing to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in 2026 and their parents are to attend the First Reconciliation Family Service next Tuesday, November 11, at 6:30 p.m. at Ss. Simon and Jude Church Hall. This service gives families a time to grow together in understanding of Christ's sacrament of healing and His unending merciful love. The candidates will be educated in the sacrament on an age-appropriate level with a teacher in the church; parents will gather in the church hall to be renewed in the gift of God's mercy through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Questions? Contact Sharon Smoller at ssmoller@straphaelcgs.org or 412-857-5356, ext. 429.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND
This week our parish will take a collection to benefit the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). The AMS is the Archdiocese for the Military Services, not of the Military Services. This is an important distinction, because the AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or U.S. Military and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. Instead, it must rely on the generosity of those whose values and priorities align with its mission, programs and services, to meet its costs. Please prayerfully consider a contribution to this special collection to support active-duty military men and women, and their families – including those from our own parish. Please give generously.

Our last weekday Fellowship for this year is next Wednesday, November 12 following 8:30 Mass at Ss. Simon and Jude Church. Invite a friend to Mass then gather for coffee, conversation, and donuts in the Church Hall. All are welcome.

VETERANS' DAY
PRAYER SERVICE AND CANDLE LIGHTING
This Friday, November 7, we will honor Veterans following 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Margaret of Scotland Church. All are invited to join us for a Prayer and Candle Lighting Service at 9:15 (or immediately following the 8:30 a.m. Mass) including guest speaker, Fr. George Chortos, who served as a military chaplain in Vietnam.

Our monthly walk for November will be on Sunday, November 9 at 1:00 p.m., weather permitting. Meet at the Marian shrine in the Ss. Simon and Jude parking lot for opening prayer, then walk, talk, and breathe in the crisp fall air.

CHRISTMAS FLOWER DEDICATIONS

We have a very early deadline for our special Christmas issue of the bulletin. The Christmas bulletin must be submitted right after Thanksgiving. This means that we have to process hundreds of floral tributes in the month of November.

If you wish to have your loved-ones name(s) in the Christmas bulletin, your Christmas Flower Offering (or online submission) must be received no later than November 16. To give online, go to our website (straphaelcgs.org), tap ONLINE GIVING at the top of our homepage then tap the CHRISTMAS FLOWERS button. Please include your dedication information in the "Notes" section of the online form.

All dedications received after November 16 will be in bulletins throughout the Christmas Season.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE.
THE BEGINNING OF THE END OF ABORTION

Closing Event
Sunday, November 2 at 3:00 p.m.
Join us for a Eucharistic Procession followed by a closing Mass.

His Excellency, Bishop William Waltersheid presiding

Join us as we thank God for His protection and blessings, and for lives and souls saved from abortion during these 40 days!

Meet in front of Planned Parenthood at 3:00 p.m. for a brief time of prayer with the Blessed Sacrament before processing to Epiphany Church of Divine Mercy Parish for the Mass. All priests, deacons, religious, and lay faithful are welcome.

COLLEGE STUDENT OUTREACH

The Care Ministry office would like to reach out to our college students as they prepare for their final exams. If you are the parent or guardian of a college student, please call or email Laura at 412-857-5356, ext. 431 or laura@straphaelcgs.org with the name and college mailing address of your beloved student. We will be sending cards and a special gift out the week of Thanksgiving, so we need to have all information by Friday, November 21. We want to let our college students know that they are an important part of our parish family, and that we are remembering them in prayer even when they are away.

Today at the 11:00 a.m. Mass at Ss. Simon and Jude Church, we remember in a special way those who died between October 1, 2024 and September 30, 2025. After Mass, we will invite one person from each family to come forward to receive the candle lit in remembrance of their loved one. Following Mass, we invite all to the Church Hall for coffee and donuts.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz
Dorman

The Semicolon

My grave is in the corner of a cemetery in rural southeastern Wisconsin. For at least a mile in every direction, all you can see is farmland — cows, barns and quiet country roads. It's beautiful, serene. I imagine the hand of God writing me into existence — she lived, she died — using for ink the very dirt that fills this grave. The dust from which I was created.

Surrounding my grave are the burial plots of other family members — Rachel, Georgiana, Julian, Josephine. I visit the cemetery to pray for them, knowing they are there, but also not there. And when I visit their graves, I stand on my own. I look out at the tree-lined horizon and the farmland. I think of how, in a thousand years, none of this will be here. But I will be here, God's hand paused against the page, preparing to write the rest of the story not in dirt but in his own blood. For Christ does not lose anything of what the Father has given him.

Not a soul. Not a bone. Not a lock of hair.

She lived, she died; she lived again. No longer is there a period after the words she died but instead a semicolon. And the semicolon is the grave, that mystical place where the Blood mixes with the dust of the earth, where life meets death, and then meets life again. And the story continues.

CA$H BA$H THANK YOU!!

The Christian Mothers and Women's Guild is truly appreciative of the tremendous work and generous donations that went into making this year's Ca$h Ba$h a huge success.

We had more volunteers than ever, including several of the parish's young adults. It made a big difference having such a great team of workers! From the kitchen recruits to the trash collectors and everyone in between, your hard work did not go unnoticed! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Thanks, too, to our parishioners who donated wonderful prizes. And to our amazing crowd who played all night trying to win those prizes.

All winners of the premium auction prizes (and the grand prize winner) were in attendance or were notified.

In a previous bulletin we gave a special thanks to all our local funeral home owners who donated to the Ca$h Ba$h, but we would also like to thank the other businesses and organizations that donated:

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.
