REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

Today's readings take us back to the basics, inviting us to reflect honestly on our deepest priorities in life.

In the second reading, from Galatians, St. Paul reminds us of the essence of the Christian life. "For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, you shall love your neighbor as yourself." Just a few verses later Paul points out why this simple command is so challenging to live out. "The flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want." Isn't that the truth!

Overcoming our tendency toward selfishness while striving to put Christ and others ahead of ourselves is a daily internal battle.

In today's Gospel, from Luke, Christ refers to this struggle within as he encounters two "would be" disciples on His way to Jerusalem. "'Follow me,'" Jesus says to the first man. "But he replied, 'Lord let me go first and bury my father.' The other said, 'I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.'" These two want to follow Christ but only on their own terms, only after taking care of some other, more pressing matters (at least in their own minds).

To this, Christ says thanks but no thanks! Following Him requires an unqualified "yes" not a "yes but..." We are called to put Christ and His kingdom ahead of our own plans if we truly wish to be his disciples and to find victory in the battle of selfishness.

Living stewardship as a way of life can go a long way in arming us for victory. Stewardship living provides us with a custom-made "training plan" — the commitment to a specific offering of our time, talent, and treasure to the Kingdom of God. It is a plan discerned through prayer and by looking at the realities of our unique circumstances, strengths, and limitations. The daily discipline of committing to the plan strengthens us and helps us gradually move away from the "yes, but" attitude and towards an unqualified "yes!" to Christ and His will.

The beauty of this way of life is that far from constricting freedom, living out stewardship day by day increases freedom. Why? It frees us from unhealthy attachments to our comforts, our professional ambitions, and our possessions so that we can attach — fully and without reservation — to Christ. It creates in us the habit of putting first things first, of keeping our priorities aligned with Christ's priorities.

Do not be afraid to give the best of yourself and your gifts to Christ. He deserves nothing less. And this way of life, while challenging, will be characterized by a joy and peace that only comes from giving Him an unqualified "yes!"

— Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

We hear today Elijah's call to Elisha to follow him and succeed him as the prophet to lead the Israelite people. Elisha did not hesitate to respond to the call. How have you responded to God's call for you?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Gentile-believers in Galatia to use their new-found freedom in their faith in Christ to "serve one another through love." In what ways do you use your faith in Christ to serve others?

Gospel:

As Jesus begins his final journey toward Jerusalem, we hear how various encounters allowed Jesus to define the parameters of discipleship. What challenges do you encounter in being a disciple of Jesus?

GIVING THE GIFT OF A MASS

Giving the gift of a Mass is an important tradition of our Catholic faith. Mass Intentions can be offered for almost any occasion - birthdays, get well, sympathy, anniversaries and general intentions - to let a loved one know that they will be remembered and prayed for during the Mass.

Remember that there is no better gift than the gift of God's love and compassion as celebrated in the Sacrifice of the Mass.

NEW Mass Intention Request Online Program - you will now be able to see the dates that are available, select, schedule and pay for a Mass Intention.
www.stmaryslg.org/mass-intention-request. FAQs are also on this page.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive
Communion at this time,
Feed my soul spiritually.
I unite myself to you now,
as I do when I actually receive
You in Holy Communion. Amen.*

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

FAITH IN ACTION

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewardship Freedom

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." Galatians 5:13

We like to celebrate that we are free to "live the good life." We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to Stewardship. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God's work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Please pray with us for our parishioners, family and friends.

For those who are sick and who have asked for our prayers:
Michael Finelli; Larry Grossi; Tony Cirone; Rosalia Russo; Sharon Lyndon; Vince Sanders

For those who have recently died:
Fr. Michael Burns; Ruth Mary Cabrera; Kenneth Bruner; Mary Holmquist; Edward Malysz; Mickey Benson

Members of our parish family who are in the military, hospitals, nursing homes, shut-ins and all who have no one to pray for them.

Please call or drop by the parish office to add someone to the list of prayers for the sick or recently deceased.

STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GIFT OF TREASURE!

Seasons of Hope Grief Discussion Group

JUNE 6, JUNE 13, JUNE 20, JUNE 27, JULY 5, & JULY 11

1:00-2:30 PM VIA ZOOM

Sacred Heart Parish's Seasons of Hope program is part of the parish's bereavement ministry and serves those who have lost a loved one. Structured as a discussion group, Seasons of Hope allows attendees to share their grief journey with others who are on the path of acceptance and healing. The program is sponsored by Sacred Heart parishioners, but attendees of all faith groups are welcomed.

All who have lost a loved one are invited to participate and share their experiences with others who understand.

Our agenda includes prayer, Scripture readings, reflection, and discussion.

Reading materials and a journal will be provided. There is no fee to participate.

To register (please include your name, phone number, and email) :

ST. MARY SCHOOL

Welcome Cecilia!

Ms. Cecilia Salgado is the new Office Manager for the School. With just under 10 years of experience in school offices, she is excited to bring her passion for being part of the education system to the school's main office. In her own words: "I enjoy being able to ensure that every interaction is a pleasant one. I believe the first face the community sees should leave a good impression and goes a long way in building lasting relationships. Being able to also support our students - our future leaders - to become the best versions of themselves is a true blessing!"
