QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Sirach teaches that the Lord desires us to be forgiving and merciful to each other. In doing so, the Lord will show us mercy and forgiveness in return. To whom could you show mercy and forgiveness this week?

Second Reading:

Paul instructed the Romans that Jesus was the Lord of all — both the living and the dead. How should this reality impact our daily living?

Gospel:

Jesus tells the parable of the unforgiving servant to teach the disciples the importance of compassion and forgiveness, especially toward those who sin against you. How do you deal with friends or co-workers who have wronged you?

TODAY'S READINGS

Sirach 27:30—28:7;
Psalm 103;
Romans 14:7-9;
Matthew 18:21-35

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

As Christian stewards, we recognize that all we have and all that we are is gift from God, and we live our lives in a grateful response to such extravagant love. This calls for continuous conversion of heart. The practices of giving a portion of our time, our talents and our treasure are essential steps on the path to conversion. But they serve an even deeper purpose than helping us remember our good intentions. They open our minds and hearts to ever-deepening surrender to the Lord, Who has given us every good thing.

Today's readings call us to look inward to the state of our hearts, those aspects of ourselves that cannot quite be quantified or measured, but which are the deepest part of us — our thoughts and emotions.

Our first reading, from Sirach, addresses the complicated emotion of anger. "Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight... Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord?... If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins?" We have all been wounded by others at some point, some perhaps quite deeply. Our emotions are gifts from God. But we must steward them well, rather than allowing them to overcome us.

How do we do this? Sirach tells us. "Remember your last days, set enmity aside... Think of the commandments... remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults." We embrace the stewardship mindset — not brooding over hurts, but recalling all the gifts our good God has given us, all the love He continually pours out upon us, and we put our focus and trust in Him.

In other words, we live for God and not ourselves. What freedom this approach to life brings! All we have is a gift from the Lord. He loves us completely and we can rest in this truth. Knowing this, we need not cling to anger over injustices. God is Lord over all. St. Paul puts it this way in our second reading from Romans: "For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus gives us a provocative reminder of the true position we have before Him in light of all that He has done for us. He compares the kingdom of heaven to a "king who decided to settle accounts with his servants." In the parable, a debtor is brought before the king, owing such an overwhelming debt that it could not possibly be repaid. Yet, the king is filled with compassion for the servant, forgives the debt and lets him go free.

Doesn't that sound like each of us in relation to the King of Kings? The Father has given us life, and then sent His only Son to die for us to free us from our sin "debts" and make eternal life with Him possible for us. Like the servant in the parable, it is impossible to repay this debt. All we can do is thank God by giving Him our whole selves — our outward actions and our inner selves — and by treating our fellow debtors with the same compassion and forgiveness He has shown to us. In fact, Jesus rightfully and justly commands us to "forgive your brother from your heart."

PADRE PIO: 7 FACTS ABOUT THE SAINT TO KNOW AND SHARE

1. Padre Pio was only 5 years old when he expressed a strong desire to serve God.
2. Padre Pio was only 15 when he entered the Capuchin Friars Minor as a novice.
3. On Sept. 20, 1918, Padre Pio received the stigmata while praying in a church. The wounds remained visible on his body for the rest of his life. The wounds were on his hands, feet and side, corresponding to the wounds suffered by Jesus during his crucifixion.
4. The blood from his stigmata smelled of floral perfume.
5. He had the gift of bilocation, that, being in two places at once.
6. Before dying at the age of 81, all his wounds healed without scars, just as he had foretold they would 50 years prior.
7. Beatified in 1999, St. Padre Pio was canonized on June 16, 2002, by the late Pope and now St. John Paul II. He is known among Catholics as St. Pio of Pietrelcina.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive
Communion at this time,
Feed my soul spiritually.
I unite myself to you now,
as I do when I actually receive
You in Holy Communion. Amen.*

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our personal relationship with Christ is important, yes — but thank God, that is not all there is to being a Christian. We depend upon the support, the encouragement, and even the correction of the rest of the Body of Christ.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

BLESSED JUAN BAUTISTA & BLESSED JACINTO DE LOS ÁNGELES

Juan Bautista and Jacinto de los Ángeles were both born the same year, in 1660, in the town of San Francisco Cajonos in Oaxaca, Mexico. The boys grew up together in their Zapotec tribal community with de los Angeles descending from a long line of tribal chiefs. The boys were raised Catholic and were altar servers in their youth. Both married, had children, and actively participated in their Catholic faiths.

In 1700 when both were about 40 years old, while doing their rounds as fiscales, they learned that a local man named José Flores would be holding a ritual featuring native idols in his home. The men alerted the Dominican priests to whom they reported and were instructed by the priests to intervene. During the ceremony, Bautista, de los Ángeles, and some of the Dominicans disrupted the ritual and surprised those participating. As the men were well known in the community, many of the participants covered their faces and ran from the home, not wanting to be identified. The fiscales and Dominican priests confiscated the idols and other items used in the ritual.

The next day word of retaliation against Bautista and de los Ángeles caused them to seek refuge and hide in the Dominican friary. That evening, a mob of angry men stormed the church with weapons and threatened to kill everyone inside if the two men weren't handed over to them. When the Dominican priests refused, the mob burnt down Bautista's nearby home and threatened to burn down the entire church and friary with everyone inside if their demands were not met.

Both men decided to give themselves over to the mob to end the brutality and save the lives of everyone else. Before leaving they asked the priests to hear their confessions and administer the Eucharist to them. They then went out to confront the mob and were abducted while yelling back to the priests "Fathers — commend us to God!"

The Dominicans recovered their bodies and buried them at Villa Alta. In 1889 both men's bodies were moved to the Oaxaca Archdiocesan cathedral. In 2001, theologians confirmed that Bautista and de los Ángeles were murdered in hatred of the faith and Saint Pope John Paul II approved their cause and beatification on August 1, 2002, during his apostolic visit to Mexico.

STEWARDSHIP - A Journey in Faith SERIES

Finance

"The Power of Giving" - "Appear not before the Lord empty-handed, for all that you offer is in fulfillment of the precepts. The just man's offering enriches the altar and rises as a sweet odor before the Most High. The just man's sacrifice is most pleasing, nor will it ever be forgotten. In generous spirit pay homage to the Lord, be not sparing of freewill gifts. With each contribution show a cheerful countenance and pay your tithes in a spirit of joy. Give to the Most High as He has given to you generously, according to your means. For the Lord is One who always repays and He will give back to you sevenfold."

Book of Sirach 35:4-10

One part of the stewardship journey is to share our financial blessings. However, this is the part that challenges the most stalwart of souls. Our tendency is to gather and save for that proverbial 'rainy day'. The Lord tells us in Isaiah, 'be not afraid' so, how can we not trust? The beautiful reading from the Book of Sirach holds such promise... 'the just man's sacrifice is most pleasing', 'it will never be forgotten', 'the Lord is one who always repays' and 'he will give back to you sevenfold.' Do we not trust the Lord to do as He says?

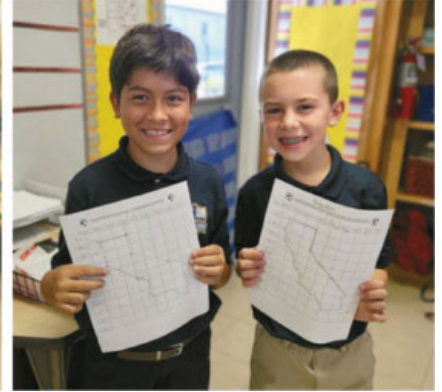

The Bible teaches that everything we have is a gift from God. God's gifts include our family, our children, our ability to learn, and our ability to earn an income. All is a gift from God. In gratitude for these gifts, God asks us to give a portion of our gifts back. "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with first fruits of all your produce; then will your barns be filled with grain, with new wine your vats will overflow." (Proverbs 3:9-10)

The disciples' examples that have been shared are examples of their love and faith in God and the grace and love received from God. God loves us no matter what we do; however, our financial stewardship should remind us of how much we love God and that He is first in our life. Take time in your Journey in Faith to examine your giving. Are you giving out of gratitude? Does your giving reflect your love and faith in God? "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and try me in this says the Lord of hosts; shall I not open up the floodgates of heaven to pour down blessings upon you without measure?" (Malachi 3:10) If your giving to God is not out of first fruits; then try Him as described in the book of Malachi. Take the "leap of faith" and trust that He will provide for your needs... even if you must sacrifice some of your wants. Your trust in God, your Journey in Faith, your discipleship will be repaid.
