QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Page 2

First Reading:

The prophet Ezekiel teaches that all people (the just and the wicked) are capable of doing evil as well as repenting. What do you think motivates anyone to repent?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the believers in Philippi to have the same attitude of humility as Jesus. Is humility one of your strengths?

Gospel:

Jesus criticizes the religious leaders of Jerusalem for lacking self-reflection. How often do you examine your own behavior and choices?

TODAY'S READINGS

Ezekial 18:25-28;
Psalm 25;
Philippians 2:1-11;
Matthew 21:28-32

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

Today's readings challenge the modern-day disciple to imitate more fully both the actions and attitudes of Christ.

St. Paul encapsulates the actions and attitudes we must strive for in the Second Reading, from the Letter to the Philippians. "Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others." In other words, Paul continues, "Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus." Whether we are at work or school or within our own homes, our actions should be focused on others first in imitation of Christ, Who is always perfectly focused on others.

But there is another reason for seeing others as more important than ourselves, a reason that will help us to become better stewards. It is the recognition that the "others" in my life — whether my spouse and children, my next-door neighbor, or even the co-worker that gets on my last nerve — all these others are gifts from God, to be treasured and nurtured for God's glory.

And just in case this seems like a bit too much to ask of us, St. Paul gives us another reminder about the Savior we are imitating as we embrace this attitude towards others. "Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave... he humbled Himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross." Unimaginable humility.

We should not be overwhelmed by this high bar, however. Our God is a loving and patient Father. He embraces every faltering step we take in imitation of His Son. Jesus demonstrates this comforting truth through the parable He tells in today's Gospel from Matthew. It is the story of two sons whose father instructs them to go out and work in his vineyard that day. The second son gives the right answer, right away: "Yes, sir." But he does not follow through. Despite the lip service, he has failed to follow his father's will.

The first son just can't seem to get on board with his father's command. He responds, "I will not." At least he is honest! And this honest, less-than-perfect response should be consoling to us Christian stewards. Haven't we all felt this way at times when God's will for us seems to be just too hard? We can be honest with God at these times. He knows already, after all. But when we stayed engaged in a real relationship with Him, even if it's just to say, "I don't think I can, Lord," He will supply us with just the grace we need to change our minds and do what He is asking us to do.

We are called to a high and holy standard — living as Christ's disciples every day and with every person the Lord places in our path. But we can move towards this goal in "baby steps." We can even take a step backward from time to time because our Father is merciful and kind. What matters is that we keep baby stepping along, assured of the grace we need to more closely imitate the actions and attitudes of Christ.

RECEPTION OF COMMUNION ON THE TONGUE

If you would like to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, for reasons of hygiene, we ask you to wait until everyone else has received. Thank you.

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY– October 7

The Roman Catholic Church celebrates the yearly feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. Known for several centuries by the alternate title of “Our Lady of Victory,” the feast day takes place in honor of a 16th century naval victory which secured Europe against Turkish invasion. Pope St. Pius V attributed the victory to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who was invoked on the day of the battle through a campaign to pray the Rosary throughout Europe.

The feast always occurs one week after the similar Byzantine celebration of the Protection of the Mother of God, which most Eastern Orthodox Christians and Eastern Catholics celebrate on October 1 in memory of a 10th-century military victory which protected Constantinople against invasion after a reported Marian apparition.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive
Communion at this time,
Feed my soul spiritually.
I unite myself to you now,
as I do when I actually receive
You in Holy Communion. Amen.*

POPE FRANCIS' UNIVERSAL PRAYER INTENTION: SEPTEMBER

FOR PEOPLE LIVING ON THE MARGINS

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

PRAYER TO RESPECT LIFE

Dear Lord,
What a gift You have given
in every human life.
Inspire us to respect Your handiwork in every human we encounter.
Embolden us to protect the dignity of the most vulnerable members of society. Amen.

FAITH IN ACTION

Stewardship of PRAYER

Please pray with us for our parishioners, family and friends.

For those who are sick and who have asked for our prayers:

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. THEODORA GUÉRIN

Anne Thérèse Guérin was born on October 2, 1798, in Brittany, France. When she was ten, she received her First Communion and expressed interest in joining a religious community when she was older.

Anne-Thérèse was nearly 25 years old when she entered the Sisters of Providence of Ruillé-sur-Loir, France, a young community of women religious who served as teachers and cared for the sick poor.

While teaching and caring for the sick in France, Mother Theodore, then known as Sister St. Theodore, was asked to lead a small missionary band of Sisters of Providence to the United States of America to establish a motherhouse and novitiate, to open schools and to share the love of God with pioneers in the Diocese of Vincennes in the state of Indiana.

In 1840, despite her challenging health, she and five companion sisters set sail for the United States in response to a call for the Sisters of Providence to begin a ministry in Indiana.

After a difficult, months-long journey, Sister Saint Théodore and her companion sisters established themselves in Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, a small, remote village in the wilderness in Indiana. There, they founded the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods and Sister Saint Théodore became the superior of the community, taking the name Mother Théodore.

During the time Mother Théodore served as leader of the congregation, the Sisters opened schools, orphanages, and free pharmacies, all over the region. She also was able to raise funds and oversee the building of an entire church as well as a convent for the Sisters. During her service in Indiana, the Sisters of Providence grew from its original six members to include sixty-seven professed members as well as many novices and postulants!

Mother Théodore died at the age of 57 after suffering for two months with another illness. Her grave in the Sisters of Providence Cemetery in Indiana bears an inscription in Latin that says "I sleep, but my heart watches over this house which I built." In 1907 some of her remains were moved to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, which she built, and some were left in her original resting place. She was canonized on October 15, 2006, by Pope Benedict XVI and given the official name of Saint Theodora Guérin. ©LPI

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL?

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL VISION: A grassroots movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and sent out in mission "for the life of the world."

DIOCESAN VISION: As Bishop Cantú announced in December 2021, the Diocese of San José seeks to spiritually renew our local church at all levels. The Eucharistic Revival is the heart of this renewal, which also includes the 2023 Diocesan Pastoral Plan to discern the direction of the mission and ministry of the local church in Santa Clara County.

Watch Bishop Oscar Cantú's Invitation to the National Eucharistic Revival <https://youtu.be/scPUXmN4ems>

THE FOUR PILLARS OF THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Pillar 1 - Meet him - Personal encounters

No one who approaches their creator leaves unchanged. Create space for the faithful to gather in a moment of encounter with our Lord. The holy spirit uses the energy created through gathering in a group as a way to usher new movements and transformations in our church.

Pillar 2 - Love him - Reinvigorating Devotion

How we worship matters. Emphasize reverence in the liturgy and elevate the practice of eucharistic devotions, prioritizing an increase in opportunities for adoration and both parish and diocesan eucharistic processions. This provides a witness while strengthening the faith and unity of Catholics in your community.

Pillar 3 - Seek Him - Deepening Formation

With more than 50% of Catholics not knowing the church's doctrine on the real presence, a bold clarity in the true teaching of the church is necessary to bring understanding. Pursue robust formation through spiritual reading, educational events, and study groups. The more intimately we know our lord, the better we can love him, serve him, and bring other people to know him!

Pillar 4 - Serve Him - Missionary Sending

True love overflows into action! Mobilize those who already know and believe the church's teaching on the real presence to reach out to those in need and accompany those who are searching for more. Remember that this is our Lord's work. We are simply his instruments.

In the coming weeks, we will be exploring WHAT WE DO AT MASS.

A Note From Principal Monica Hernandez

Dear Friends of St. Mary School,

The new school year is well underway! Our students fill the classrooms with boundless energy and enthusiasm. It is a true blessing to nurture our students by working with engaged parents, dedicated teachers and supportive parish and school leaders. Together, our goal is to ensure our students receive an excellent Catholic education experience from TK to 8th grade.

As you may know, various leaders from our School Advisory Board and Parish Finance Council studied the needs of our school. Through this process, we established two strategic priorities which are to enhance our campus and to build a new elementary wing. These goals will help keep our school strong in the decades ahead.

We are conducting a campaign planning study, which started the week of Sept. 18. The study involves surveying the entire parish and school community. The study will give us feedback on the initiatives and gauge support for a potential major fundraising campaign.

We have hired the Steier Group, a Catholic development firm to conduct the study. We will share more details about the study and the projects in the coming weeks.

Blessings,
Monica Hernandez, Principal

PASTORAL PLANNING UPDATE

SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

AUGUST 2023

Refining the Pastoral Focus: Building on valuable feedback and the dedicated efforts of our commission and planning action teams, we have sharpened six strategic priorities that will lead to the Spiritual Renewal of our diocese. Notably, Retreats have integrated with Lifelong Faith Formation, and Families now stand as a distinct priority. Therefore, our six strategic priorities are: Youth & Young Adults, Worship, Outreach, Lifelong Faith Formation, Family Ministry, and Structural Renewal. This September, representatives from our parishes and schools will come together once more review and discern the second draft of our pastoral plan. Together, we forge a path of spiritual growth and renewal.
