O sweet Child of Bethlehem, grant that we may share with all our hearts in this profound mystery of Christmas. Put into the hearts of men and women this peace for which they sometimes seek so desperately and which you alone can give to them. Help them to know one another better, and to live as brothers and sisters, children of the same Father.

- Pope St. John XXIII

May the Child of Bethlehem give you peace at Christmas and throughout the New Year.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

We hear how God established his covenantal promise with King David to raise up a son after him and ensure that David's house and kingdom will stand firm forever. What promises have you kept with family or friends?

Second Reading:

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God. As Advent draws to a close, for what can you praise God?

Gospel:

Today's Gospel reading is the annunciation to Mary of the upcoming birth of Jesus. Mary's unconditional acceptance offers us a model to follow. How open are you to God's work in your life?

TODAY'S READINGS

2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12,
14a, 16; Psalm 89;
Romans 16:25-27;
Luke 1:26-38

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

As any harried parent or excited child can tell you, there is just one day left until the celebration of Christmas begins. As Christian stewards let's live this last day of Advent well.

Our First Reading, from 2 Samuel, features King David, who has resolved to do God a favor by building Him a house in which to dwell. But God reminds David Who is truly in charge. "It was I who took you from the pasture and from the care of the flock to be commander of my people Israel. I have been with you wherever you went and I have destroyed your enemies before you."

What is true of David's position before God is true for all of us. Our God is mighty, all-powerful and Love itself. The only proper response is to worship Him and live our lives as a grateful gift for all His goodness to us.

How can we possibly live up to this task? Only by relying on God, as St. Paul tells us in the Second Reading, from his letter to the Romans. Paul instructs us to go to "him who can strengthen you... Jesus Christ."

The truth is, once we recognize that all we have is gift from God, the next step is to acknowledge that we need God's strength and wisdom to guide us in the best use of those gifts for the building of His Kingdom. Hopefully, we are making time during Advent to go to God in prayer and through the sacraments to obtain the strength we need to live as His disciples and the guidance to know we are indeed following His will with the gifts He has entrusted to us.

In fact, our aim should be to make the words of our Blessed Mother our own. We read in today's Gospel passage from Luke the wonderful words of her "fiat," her "yes" to God's plan. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." These are among the most beloved words in the Gospel. But the next sentence is also important for the Christian steward.

After Mary's fiat, we read, "Then the angel departed from her." Our Blessed Mother was left with a lot of unexplained details about God's plan for her! Yet, she followed God's will perfectly. She gave herself and her life fully to God as a gift. She trusted in her Heavenly Father to guide her at each step, and He did. She was the first disciple. We are called to follow her example as disciples today.

This Christmas, let us resolve to make our whole life a gift to the One Who has given us everything. It is the work of a lifetime. But He will give us all the help and strength we need to do it.

NATIVITY SCENE PRAYER

God, bless all who gaze upon this nativity scene.

As we look at this Holy Family, let us pray for all families - those we know, and those we do not; those who live on the other side of the world, and those who live on the other side of the street.

Let us recognize and rejoice in the great diversity of the one family of God as we reflect on and give thanks for those diverse gifts present in our own family.

We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything
in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive
Communion at this time,
Feed my soul spiritually.
I unite myself to you now,
as I do when I actually receive
You in Holy Communion. Amen.*

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God's plans are not always what we imagined. Sometimes they make us hesitate. Be like Mary. Say "Yes, Lord" - and God will show you that His imagination is better than yours.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH BL. MARIA FRANZISKA SCHERVIER

Maria Franziska Schervier was born on January 3, 1819, in Aachen, Germany. Her father was a successful businessman, and her mother was a devout Catholic who instilled in her a strong love of the Lord.

As a young woman, Schervier felt called to serve God. Due to the death of her mother and two sisters of tuberculosis, though, her father objected to her desire to become a nun. He was devastated by the deaths and was determined to keep Schervier away from poverty and disease. Out of respect for the trauma her family endured and for her father's sake, Schervier, put aside her own desires. After her father's death, when she was 25, Schervier joined the Third Order of St. Francis. After she took her vows, Schervier worked as a seamstress and as a nurse. In her spare time, she opened up her personal home in Aachen to provide care for the poor and the sick. She soon became known for her compassion and dedication to those in need, and in 1851, she and four other women founded the Congregation of the Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph of the Perpetual Adoration, also known as the Franciscan Sisters of Aachen.

One of the most significant moments in Schervier's life came in 1863, when she and her sisters were called to care for the victims of a cholera epidemic in Aachen.

Schervier died on December 14, 1876, at the age of 57. Her legacy lived on through the congregation she founded as it continued to grow throughout Europe and the Americas. In 1974, Schervier was beatified by Pope Paul VI and named Blessed. Today, the Franciscan Sisters of Aachen continue to serve the poor and the sick in many countries around the world.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

MEETING CHRIST: EXPLORING THE LITURGY SERIES AFTER COMMUNION

Following Communion, we pray quietly or sing a hymn of praise. This time is for us to reflect on what has happened at Mass: something both awesome and familiar. A mystery we cannot fathom has come very near to us; in the Eucharist, we touch and receive something as familiar as bread and wine, something as mysterious as God.

The Eucharist is many things: daily bread, food for the journey, pledge of eternal life, the Body and Blood of Christ. The Eucharist is the meeting-place of earth and heaven, the Incarnation present, here and now. "The Lord, in the culmination of the mystery of the Incarnation, chose to reach our intimate depths through a fragment of matter. He comes not from above, but from within, he comes that we might find him in this world of ours" (Pope Francis, Laudato Si, 236).

And there is more. The Eucharist calls us to live according to Christ's law of love, and thus the Eucharist calls us not only to be transformed but to be agents of transformation in the world. The recent Popes have all put great emphasis on this aspect of Eucharist. "We cannot delude ourselves," said St. John Paul II in announcing the Year of the Eucharist in 2004: "by our mutual love and, in particular, by our concern for those in need we will be recognized as true followers of Christ. This will be the criterion by which the authenticity of our Eucharistic celebrations is judged" (Mane Nobiscum Domine, 24). Pope Benedict XVI echoed these words: "A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is intrinsically fragmented" (Deus Caritas Est, 14). There are no two ways about it: the Eucharist commits us to the poor.

Long ago, St. Paul wrote to the Christian community at Corinth, where class divisions were evident even in the way they celebrated the Eucharist. "When you meet in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper, for in eating, each one goes ahead with his own supper, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk.... What can I say to you? In this matter I do not praise you" (1 Corinthians 11:18-22).
