WHAT'S ADVENT ALL ABOUT?

As the weather turns colder and the world is blasting Christmas music, why is the priest wearing purple and what is Advent all about? Advent comes from the Latin word meaning to come towards. And who are we coming towards? Jesus!

We think about the two comings of Jesus. First we reflect on Christ coming at the end of time, after great tribulations where he will judge us, and for those found worthy, we'll inherit with Him eternal life. Have we thought about the beauty of heaven lately and how amazing it is? Have we felt that longing for something more than this world can offer? If we did, how would we live our lives differently today?

Next we think about Christ coming in Bethlehem, in the manger. As we prepare for that, we also prepare our hearts to receive Him in a new and deeper way than ever before. That's why the priest wears purple, for preparation and penance.

We had a beautiful tradition growing up of having some blessed straw next to the manger. We set up the whole nativity set but the kings, who would arrive on Epiphany in January, and Jesus who had not yet been born. Any time we did a good deed, said an extra prayer, or made a sacrifice, we would add a piece of straw to the manger. That way when it was time to insert Jesus, there would be a place that had already been prepared. However, the bigger reason for all of this wasn't just for the statuette of Jesus, but for the preparation of our hearts. Each good deed, prayer or sacrifice stretched our hearts just a little bit more to give and receive love more deeply, leading up to receiving Christ more deeply on Christmas day than ever before.

That is what we journey towards, a deeper encounter with Christ being born again in the manger of our hearts. The four candles symbolize hope, peace, joy and love as we journey closer to the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on December 25.

So, amid the hustle and bustle of the season, can we take time to pray? What's one extra prayer, sacrifice or good deed we can do each day as we prepare for the coming of the Lord Jesus, not just in Bethlehem, but in the Bethlehem of our hearts?

- Immaculate Conception - This week we celebrate The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Thursday, December 8, a holy day of obligation. Please see the article on page 6 for the Mass times.
- Happy Birthday To My Mom - her birthday is December 5. Growing up our favorite family tradition was celebrating St. Nicholas Day as it was the day after my mom's birthday. Hope your Christmas stockings are filled with advent joy!
- Update On My Dad and My Niece Emily - Both are doing well and are out of the hospital. Continued prayers are greatly appreciated.
- St. Alexis Old Church Update - Since August our maintenance staff has been working to remove all items from the old church. During the construction phase, a portion of the ceiling tile fell. We made an insurance claim and it was determined that the remaining ceiling tile was unsafe. We therefore had the maintenance staff remove the remaining ceiling tiles. At this point, we will be working with the Parish Finance Council to make a plan to renovate this space in a phased approach. More information will be forthcoming.
- Saint Alphonsus Furnace - I am grateful to all who have made contributions to the appeal for the new furnace at Saint Alphonsus. The response to the need was amazing and we have reached our goal. I am especially grateful to one family who made a considerable donation that covered a large portion of the costs. The furnace was being replaced this past week and will take a few more days. The update to this system was long overdue, and the new furnace will be much more efficient. Thank you all.

LIFE TEEN MINISTRY

Life Teen December 4 - pizza, fun, and discussion

LifeTeen
SAINT AIDAN

Fearless: Break the chains of fear, depression, anxiety. These are chains that bind us. Jesus tells us in 2 Corinthians 12:9 But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me." Break your chain!! There is power in the name of Jesus!!

Jesus, it is hard to face what we cannot control, especially when it hurts. We surrender these times where we have felt helpless and abandoned to you. We ask you to be strong for us in the times we are weak. We know that you can make beauty out of ashes, and we remember that as we say: God is still good.

CONFIRMATION

Confirmation students will celebrate the Advent season and grow in understanding of what the second coming is and how to prepare for it. We will be visiting the homeless downtown for Christmas gift giving as well. Blankets were made for the Wexford House and the homebound as well as the Sisters of Mercy.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

December 5: Advent season; Christ Our Hope

What do the four weeks of Advent represent? The four Sundays preceding Christmas, which is when Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, are recognized for four virtues. Thank you for your support in helping us and our brothers and sisters in Christ with compassion, dignity and respect especially in these difficult times. May you enjoy God's many glorious blessings!

FAITH FORMATION

This week our Wednesday Faith Formation program will celebrate Mass for the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception! All children (including CGS) will meet in the church and will be picked up from the church. Next weekend, December 11, our Family Program will meet to celebrate Advent and prepare for Christmas!

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Another Advent prophecy that we share with the children is the prophecy of names: "For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful-Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:6) What great names for a little baby! Who could this child be?

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children's Liturgy is now offered at the 9:30 am and 10:00 am Masses for children ages 3-7 who have not yet made their First Communion. We still need your help! We are looking for adult and teen leaders and helpers. Please contact Darcy if you are interested in volunteering at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

RCIA

Are you interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith? RCIA is an opportunity to learn and grow in faith with a small, supportive group of fellow seekers. RCIA prepares adults to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion. RCIA meets on Tuesdays from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. Our topic this week is Mary, the Mother of God! For more information about the RCIA and becoming Catholic, please contact Darcy at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

BAPTISM

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! If you wish to have your child baptized, please go to <https://saintaidanparish.org/baptism> to view our guidelines and fill out the information form.

You will need to attend a baptism preparation session if this is your first child, or if it has been four years since you attended a baptism class.

Upcoming date is January 19 at 6:30 pm via Google Meet. Questions? Contact Darcy Osby at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.
