25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Are you envious because I am generous?’ Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.” - Mt 20:15-16

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus tells us that the Kingdom of God is like a persistent, generous landowner who continually seeks workers for his vineyard. Elsewhere in the Gospels, we learn that this vineyard—the Kingdom of God—is not in some far-off place, so that we might ignore it. It is not at some distant time, that we might put it on a back burner. And the work is not so difficult that we cannot handle it. No, the vineyard is here and now; and God generously equips us to accomplish the work and rewards us for our labor.

The vineyard is in our families and in our workplace; it is in our schools and places of work; it is wherever we go and includes whomever we meet. It is not just for those who are "good" enough; it is for all peoples. The responsorial psalm tells us, "it [the Kingdom of God] is near to all who call upon him [the Lord] in truth." We are His Church here in Wexford. We are called to be His workers for the kingdom. Whether we are inviting others to a parish function, such as Christ Life or ENDOW; instructing them in our Catholic faith in one of our Children Faith Formation programs or the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults; when we participate fully in the liturgy of the Mass, or serve our neighbors with a smile at the Harvest Home Festival or Fish Fry, we are disciples and living witnesses of Christ to all of our neighbors in His Kingdom.

If we were invited to work the vineyard years ago or just yesterday, praise be to God for His gracious and merciful invitation. If we know of others who are still in need of an invitation to go the vineyard, let us be the ones to invite them. We cannot afford to wait for "better opportunities" to share the Good News of God's salvation through Jesus Christ. St. Paul tells us, "Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. (2 Cor 2:6)" None of our family, friends, or neighbors should ever be able to say that we did not encourage them - either in word or deed - to love Christ and neighbor more. Jesus calls us all to become saints through his Church, and to help others to know the love and mercy of His Father as they journey to becoming saints. Dare I say, the rewards for working in the vineyard are out of this world.

God's Blessings and Peace
Deacon Dave

- Priesthood Sunday - This Sunday is Priesthood Sunday. It is celebrated nationally on the last Sunday of September every year. Let us take time to pray for the priests in our lives and also recognize the need for more priests to serve the Church. Each of us can help be the voice of God when we ask someone if they thought of being a priest or suggest that they would make a great priest. Take some time to reflect on this and on the young men in your day-to-day interactions and ask God for the courage to help be His voice
- Blessing of the Pets - Join us for the Blessing of the Pets next Sunday, October 1 at 1:00 pm outside at St. Alphonsus Church.

MAKING OF THE “NEXT GENERATION” MEN’S FELLOWSHIP

Perhaps more than at any time since Christianity’s early centuries, lay people in the Catholic Church will be the primary evangelizers. That’s hardly a new thought, as Vatican II makes it clear: “The laity... are given this special vocation: to make the Church present and fruitful in those places and circumstances where it is only through them that she can become the salt of the earth.” The role being sketched here for the laity is considerably more substantial and spiritually intense than the conventional view of lay people would have it. The apostolic formation of the laity should be a mission critical undertaking for today’s Church. Please join us on Monday, September 25 at 6:00 pm at The Ark & The Dove on Babcock Blvd. as we discuss the Men’s Fellowship’s efforts to meet this “mission critical” challenge. All men are welcome. For more info call Paul Spence at 724-713-8633.

SHOE DRIVE

Please donate your gently worn, used or new shoes, boots, slippers, sandals, and sports cleats for the North Catholic Boys Basketball team shoe drive. Donated shoes may not have holes or tears. Donation boxes are in the churches or Blessed Francis Seelos Academy. The shoe drive will run until early November as the boys aim to reach their goal of donating 2,500 pounds of shoes!

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

"The child's deepest need is for relationship. There is a special rapport between young children and God. Why is their relationship with God so spontaneous and joyful? Because in this covenant relationship with God, children find what is most precious in themselves: the capacity to love." - Sofia Cavalletti, The Good Shepherd and the Child: A Joyful Journey. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, the Atrium (the prepared environment) is a place where the young child's relationship with God is nurtured. Contact Darcy for more information at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children's Liturgy meets every week at the 9:30 am and 10:00 am Masses. Children ages 3-7 who have not yet made their First Communion are welcome. Children hear the same readings but in more simple language and a reflection for their age level. They return to the church after the homily. We are in need of additional catechists and teen helpers at both churches! Please contact Darcy at dosby@saintaidanparish.org. Clearances required.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Any adults who would like to become Catholic or would like to learn more about the Catholic faith are welcome at our OCIA gatherings starting in September. We are a small group that prays together and discusses different aspects of Catholic teachings so that individuals can discern and prepare for receiving the sacraments of initiation in the Catholic Church. Meetings are Tuesdays from 6:30-8:00 pm beginning September 5. For more information, please contact Darcy Osby at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

BAPTISM INFORMATION

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! If you wish to have your child baptized, please go to saintaidanparish.org/baptism to view our guidelines and fill out the information form. You will need to attend a baptism preparation session if this is your first child, or if it has been four years since you attended a baptism class. Upcoming date is November 16 at 6:30 pm via Google Meet. Questions? Contact Darcy Osby via email at dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

LET'S GET TO KNOW OUR PRIESTS

FR. WILL

What's your favorite movie?

I like a variety of genres but if I had to pick one it would be "Princess Bride".

What do you like to do for fun?

I like to golf, ski, spend time with family, study theology, and follow Pittsburgh sports.

Do you have a nickname?

Just Will or my sister calls me Iron Will (reference to a 90s Disney movies).

In all of history who would you want to have dinner with?

Jesus (obviously), Saint Francis, Abraham Lincoln, or Roberto Clemente.

What is your favorite part of being a priest?

Celebrating the sacraments especially hearing confessions and celebrating the Mass. I also like visiting the sick and the dying and building relationships with parishioners.

What would you tell someone who is discerning their vocation?

Pray every day, ask God "What do you want me to do with my life?" and when you submit to Gods will it is the best thing for you. If you are open to whatever God is calling you to as your vocation, you can't get away from it. It's just you accepting what God wants.

FR. DAN

What's your favorite movie?

I really like the 1984 Robert Redford classic "The Natural"

What do you like to do for fun?

I love biking, watching streamers play Super Mario Maker 2 on YouTube, playing pickup sports, hanging out with friends, watching sports, exploring and reading here and there.

Do you have a nickname?

I have a few, Dan of course, but my favorite is Skilz from a gym pick up basketball game.

In all of history who would you want to have dinner with?

Outside of the Saints and religious figures, I'd like to talk with George Washington and get his perspective on things from back then and today.

What is your favorite part of being a priest?

Saying the Mass is the most amazing part for me. The consecration is where Christ becomes present and heaven meets earth. The rest of life begins to fade away as Heaven is made present in our midst.

What would you tell someone who is discerning their vocation?

God has a call for all of us. Seek God and find out what it is. "You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." (Jer 29:13) We are all most fulfilled when we are doing what we are made to do, so get in touch with what you are good at, the deep desires of your heart and the Lord and let Him lead. His plans are always the best, so be not afraid and go for it!
