AFTERTHOUGHTS

“If I just had more faith!” Have you ever said that to yourself? Well, Jesus makes it clear that we can carry out his mission not because we have enough faith but because we have faith ... even faith the size of a mustard seed.

Daily Prayers for Priests:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of the priesthood. And, we particularly thank you for the priests here in the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux. We ask that you draw them ever closer to the Sacred Heart of Your Son Jesus. And, that they would experience the depth of communion with you that you long for. Grant them stillness Lord, that they might perceive your presence. Heighten their spiritual senses that they might see and hear you ever more clearly and feel you ever more deeply. Remind them of their call. Remind them of all that you have promised them and they promised you on the sacred day of their ordination. We ask for miracles of renewal in their priestly vocation, Lord. Renew them in your love and strengthen their resolve to love and serve you. Strengthen their priestly fraternity, Lord, and strengthen the bond between the priests and the Laity. That together Lord, we all might be ONE as you are One. In Jesus Name we pray, Amen.

GOSPEL COMMENTARY

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants, we have done what we were obliged to do.’”

We begin life totally dependent on our parents and guardians. Some of us continue to expect others to do for us long after we are more than capable of doing for ourselves. When a father was asked by one his children to do something he would tell them, “Move your legs, then your arms, and wiggle your fingers.” Then he would tell them, “You look capable of doing it yourself.” When they really needed help, he was there for them. In today’s Gospel the disciples asked Jesus to “Increase our faith.” He tells them, and us, to “Move your legs, your arms and wiggle your fingers” He is teaching us that we have the gift of faith from God, but we must use our head and heart to grow in faith. He cannot do for us what only we can do for ourselves. A wise sage said, “God gave us two ends to use, one to think and one to sit. Success depends on which we use, heads we win, tails we loose.” God has given us the gifts of life, intelligence, reason and free will. Do we use those gifts to increase our faith in God? Or do we just sit there?

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

THE VALUE OF SACRIFICE

Sacrifice is the expression of love!

The Eucharist is the greatest expression of God’s love for you. In the Divine Eucharist, Jesus gives you the gift of Himself, all He has, and all He is. St. Augustine says of the Holy Eucharist: “Although God is all-powerful, He is unable to give more; though supremely wise, He knows not how to give more; though vastly rich, He has not more to give.” Give Jesus the sacrifice of spending an hour with Him in the middle of the night and it will be the perfect expression of your appreciation for the gift of His infinite love for you in the Holy Eucharist.

St. Francis’ Adoration Chapel current hours are 7am-6pm daily (Key fobs allow 24 hours access). All are welcome to come by and spend a few minutes with our Lord.

CATHOLIC KORNER

Last week we learned that the Part of the Mass: Canon of the Mass is central part of the Mass, also known as the Eucharistic Prayer. This week we find out about the Part of the Mass: Epiclesis. Epiclesis is the prayer petitioning the Father to send the Holy Spirit to sanctuary offerings of bread and wine so that they may become the Body and Blood of Christ. The action of the priest during this epiclesis over the bread and wine is the same. He places his hand, palms down, over the bread and wine as he says the prayer, then makes a sign of the cross over them with his right hand. There is a second part to the epiclesis that invokes the Spirit again, asking that all who share in the Body and Blood of Christ may be brought together in unity to themselves become one body, one spirit in Christ.

Find out more next week when we talk about the Part of the Mass: Consecration.

SAINTS

4-Oct St Francis Assisi
(animals, ecologist, environment, families, merchants, peace, zoos)

Saint Francis of Assisi was renowned for drinking and partying in his youth. After fighting in a battle between Assisi and Perugia, Francis was captured and imprisoned for ransom. He spent nearly a year in prison — awaiting his father’s payment — and, according to legend, began receiving visions from God. After his release from prison, Francis heard the voice of Christ, who told him to repair the Christian Church and live a life of poverty. Consequently, he abandoned his life of luxury and became a devotee of the faith, his reputation spreading all over the Christian world.

5-Oct St Maria Faustina
(lymphedema, heart conditions, milroy’s disease)

On February 22, 1931, Faustina was visited by Jesus, who presented himself as the “King of Divine Mercy” wearing a white garment with red and pale rays coming from his heart. She was asked to become the apostle and secretary of God’s mercy, a model of how to be merciful to others, and an instrument for reemphasizing God’s plan of mercy for the world.

In her diary, Faustina writes: “In the evening, when I was in my cell, I became aware of the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand was raised in blessing, the other was touching the garment at the breast. From the opening of the garment at the breast there came forth two large rays, one red and the other pale. In silence I gazed intently at the Lord; my soul was overwhelmed with fear, but also with great joy. After a while Jesus said to me, ‘paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the inscription: Jesus, I trust in You.’”

9-Oct St Dennis
(headaches, hydrophobia, rabies, strife, possessed people)

Pope Fabian sent the Italian-born Denis and other missionary bishops to encourage and restore the Faith in (present-day) France. Denis and two inseparable companions, the priest Rusticus, and Eleutherius, a deacon, arrived in the neighborhood of Paris and settled on the island in the Seine River. He set about building a church. His fearless and tireless preaching made many converts, but also excited the anger and envy of the heathen priest. Inciting the people against the new preachers, he prevailed upon the Governor to forcibly put a stop to their teaching. Denis and his two companions were seized, tortured, and beheaded. Legend has it that St. Denis’ body stood up, and before the astonished onlookers, picked up his head, and walked six miles.

13-Oct St Edward
(difficult marriages, kings, separated spouses)

Edward the Confessor was a deeply religious man. Some called him the monk-king since he prayed frequently and attended Mass every day. Unlike many kings, Edward was hailed throughout his life as a gentle, loyal and devoted king who resisted war and promoted peace. Edward built a new cathedral to replace the Saxon church at Westminster. The cathedral became known as Westminster Abbey.

Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession, is the latest addition to the Augustine Institute’s library of sacramental preparation programs. You have access to all 9 sessions! Forgiven explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God’s love. By looking at God’s revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God’s invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son, Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God’s law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.
