A note about notes

Shortly after Fr. Theo came to St. Catherine, I began JOURNALING DURING HIS HOMILY.

➤ Jotting down phrases he uses that I especially want to remember, or comments he makes that speak to the readings. ➤ Looking back through these pages, these gems of wisdom & teaching we hear each week, I continue to be blessed by having written them down.

I ENCOURAGE EVERYONE TO TRY THIS ➤ Towards that end, we have set aside several BRAND-NEW JOURNAL BOOKS that you'll find in the vestibule. PLEASE HELP YOURSELF. ~ Deanna

[Padre Pio] ... is also known as a great confessor and spiritual director, and over the years, growing scores of pilgrims would seek out his confession and his counsel.

He encouraged these spiritual children to frequent the sacraments, including weekly confession, which he compared to a 'dusting out' of one's soul, as one would do with a room. He also encouraged them to pray, especially the rosary, and would reportedly say to them: 'It seems to me as if Jesus has no other concern but the sanctification of your soul.'

The motto that he used that summed up his life of faith was: 'Pray, hope and don't worry.'
