A Seven Sister: One Holy Hour

One Priest, Each Week, One Heart of Prayer

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop – a "holy wasting" (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

I am hoping to bring this ministry to St. Catherine, limited to 7 women participating at any one time.

dramatic scenes, discoveries of original writings, interviews, scientific research showing identical features of

Divine Mercy image with Shroud of Turin. Parishioner Reviews ■ Fantastic; spiritual; well done; left with good feeling. Saw modern day history of the Church. – Scott Cochran ■ Well acted; learned a lot; slightly slow moving. Recent one-woman St Luke Production of St. Faustina focused intimately on her, her visions. I recommend both. – Eileen McMahon

■ Especially enjoyed details about the relationship between the painting and the Shroud of Turin. Am now doubly disappointed that the Shroud of Turin event scheduled last month in Beaverton was canceled. — Toni Iven ■ Sparked desire to learn more about St. Faustina and living more of a merciful life. – Fr. Theo

Definition of Communion of Saints

Church of the Triumphant (those in Heaven)
Suffering (those in Purgatory)
Militant (Faithful on earth)
– with Christ as the Head.

Through the communion of saints,
a perennial link of charity exists between the faithful who have already reached their heavenly home, those who are expiating their sins in purgatory and those who are still pilgrims on earth. Between them there is, too, an abundant exchange of all good things – Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1475)

From Seven Sisters Apostolate Mission & Structure One Priest ► The initial recipient of a Seven Sisters group should be their parish pastor. After the pastor has a committed group, subsequent groups may be formed for others, such as the parochial vicar, a retired priest, a priest serving in a non-parish assignment, or a bishop. ■ The group's intention is directed towards the office of the shepherd more than the individual. In other words, the group prays for the priest until he is reassigned, at which time his successor becomes the recipient of those prayers. This helps us to guard against an undue attachment to a certain priest. <https://sevensistersapostolate.org/mission-and-structure>

"In strengthening the priest, you strengthen the whole Church... Strengthen the priest and you strengthen the whole foundation; you strengthen everything in the Church."
