STEWARDSHIP REPORTING

Thank you to those who are going out of their way to get their offering to us!

A special note of gratitude to Peggy Recca, on behalf of her father John Colopietro. Although he was not with our parish family for very long, he requested that a $5,000 bequest be made to St.
Catherine parish.

May God grant him an extra hug from all of us

Worth mentioning again – our sincere thanks to Georgene Doyle whose trust provided for a $25,000 gift to St. Catherine parish. May God grant eternal rest to all those parishioners who have gone before us, and whose memory we hold dear!

Featured in the Catholic Sentinel's '40 Faces of Lent' article last month:

Matthew Hanson – "What Lent means to me is thinking about how Jesus was in the desert fasting for 40 days. I think about how he died on the cross for our sins. I give things up because we are taking a little bit of what Jesus went through and putting it into our own sacrifices."

Hannah Hanson – “The word sacrifice captures Lent for me. The sacrifice of Jesus is astonishing. Having that much love for someone that you would fast for 40 days! We can sacrifice like Jesus, even in our own small ways. Love your neighbor and sacrifice for others to show your love, just as Jesus did.”

Gianna Hanson – “Lent means preparing for Easter, taking the time to step back and be ready for the amazing event of Jesus rising from the dead. it helps us really slow down from life and pay attention to how amazing our faith is.”
